Now is the time for Hillsboro to offer every encouragement to capital looking for investment in the way of manufacturing industries.

When a man swells up and tells you he is so and so, politically, just ask him to locate himself, especially since in Congress there are no longer strict (or even a semblance of) party lines.

The Twentieth Annual convention of the Washington County Sunday School Association will be held at Banks, Ore., Thursday, June 24, 1909.

Chas. Hickenbottom, who owns a fine place up in the Shady Brook section, was in today, accompanied by his son, Joe, who has a place over in the Nehalem.

Alec Gordon, of near Glencoe, was in yesterday, and says that clover which is cutting its first crop this year, is very good, but where the field has been seeded for two or three years the cut will be very disappointing.

The Wilkes' family held an outdoor reunion, Sunday, and visited various points at Banks. The participants were: J. Wilke and wife, Thos. S. Wilke and sons, Burt, Ward and Clair, J. B. Wilke, and wife, Lynn and Ipha Wilke, Mrs. L. E. Wilke, Rhea and Lewa, Wilkes, O. G. Wilkes, Velma Wilkes, Mrs. Elsie Schulmerich, Mildred Mays and Rose Humke.

Wm. Welch, who recently had a narrow escape by reason of a premature blast, is getting along nicely under the care of Dr. F. M. Robinson, of Beaverton. Welch lost one of his eyes, and when picked up was unconscious.

COUNTY DAIRYMEN TO MEET AT BANKS

Hon. Jas. Withycombe Will be Present and Address

ALSO DEPUTY FOOD COMMISSIONER

Big Attendance Expected on June 10, New Town

The Washington County Dairymen's Association will meet at Banks on Saturday, June 19, a rousing time is expected. Dairymen from all over the county are expected to be in attendance, and Wm. Schulmerich, who was in Farmington, Monday, states that Paul Maris, deputy Food and Dairy Commissioner, and an expert in his lines, will be present and address the session, while the favorite authority, Hon. Jas. Withycombe, of the Agricultural College, has consented to deliver a lecture. Mr. Withycombe is Hillsboro man, and still retains interests south of town, and his visit is always greeted with some.

Dairymen, irrespective of what they belong to the Association, are earnestly requested, as well as the general public, to get out to the meeting at Banks. The assembly will come to a close at ten in the forenoon.

BURKHALTER-BAKER

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's father, G. Hathorn, Laurel, June 6, 1909, contracting parties being Eric Burkhalter and May Hathorn. The bride is a well known Laurel girl, and the groom is the old W. D. Hare ranch a mile south of this city. The guests congratulate the newly wed couple.

To the Public

We, the ministers of Hillsboro, wish to put ourselves on record with reference to the proposal, which has appeared in local papers, that we should invite congregations to go with us to the Park on Sunday, July 4th, at 11 a. m. and that we there hold religious services, the more expressions of the fraternaling interrupted for a short time for purpose.

We consider the festivities proper decoration of the Lord's Day, and not see how we can divide the Sabbath with sermons and stock-wire fences, and, at the same time, uphold sacredness—to say nothing of the dignity of our calling.

We deplore the decoration of Lord's Day at any time, and especially on the birthday of our national independence, for which we are universally acknowledged to be indebted to Almighty God. Respectfully submitted, J. F. Belknap, Pastor M. E. Church; C. H. Davis, Pastor Baptist Church; Guy B. Stover, Evangelist; A. A. Beery, Christian Church; F. H. Adams, Congregational.

H. C. Pearson was in from Hill, today, and called.

Clarence Young and wife are journeying at the present up at head of Hood River.

Wm. Schmidt, of Bethany, the father of a new baby boy, June 8.

John Stribich, one of Forest Grove's finished mechanics, who is "a jolly good fellow," down to the city yesterday.

Mrs. W. F. Nelson, of Banks, accompanied by her sons, Charles and Robert, are guests at the home of Mrs. Jos. Downs.

Miss Nellie Willie, aged 21, daughter of S. N. Willie, of Clatsop, died this morning of peritonitis. She had been ill but a few days.

Nine children will make their first communion next Sunday. These will be the first in the parish of Roy. A new bell has been donated by the Catholic of Foresters of Verbort.

Mr. Cornelius DeGroot, of Portland, well known here and abroad, died at Portland last Sunday, and was buried Wednesday, nine o'clock, in the Mount Calvary Cemetery.

A baseball was played at between Roy and Buxton, Sunday, with a score 11 to 5 in favor of Roy. Batteries—Cop and water for Roy; McPherson and Stevens for Buxton. Rain struck out 11 men. Stevens struck out 5 men.

The Beaverton's second baseball team went up to Redville in nice uniforms and received a big at the hands of the Redville sprinters, last Sunday. It is doubted that the Redville will soon join the league.

The program at the M. Church, last evening, was rendered, and every number well received. The readings by Miss Lulu Donelson, Miss Cave Rev. Belknap, Miss Mill Mrs. and the original poem Mrs. Ida Brown, and the solo N. H. Alexander, Miss Arab N. and Miss Cecelia Grier proved Hillsboro has vocal talent to which the city should be proud. The violin solo by J. B. Wilkes, one of the musical features.
