Hillsboro is on the baseball map. It is the great national game—clean, healthful, manly and a sport fit for the gods.

Have you noticed that Hillsboro is a better town than ever before. If you have not—notice it, and put your shoulder to the wheel. Help every business that does business in your city, and hide away that hammer, and dig it up only to use on some knooker.

The tariff is a local question, and the latest action of Congress proves this beyond cavil. When a good newspaper man tells you he is not for Adlerichism, then he reads himself out of his party, for that is what we will get in our tariff bill. No man, democrat or republican, can "oukoo" these days without branding himself as a nonentity.

Sterling Bloom, of near St Mary's, was struck by a flying wedge the other day, and severely injured above the knee. Drs. Linklater, Hillsboro, and Robinson, Beaverton, are attending the patient and danger of lockjaw has passed.

Vacuum House cleaning. New upholstering and Upholster Repair. No husband.

Would permit his wife to work herself sick tearing up carpets, worrying over the tornup condition of the house for a week, if he knew how fine my Vacuum Compressed Air Cleaner does the work. Sucks the dirt out and makes no litter. Cleaner than 40 "beatings" it leaves rugs and carpets. Not expensive. For quality of work ask any furniture man, or the scores for whom I have cleaned house in Hillsboro and Forest Grove. Cheaper than you would think. Will go anywhere in the country on call if two or three households will get together so as to make worth while—one big house. Leave orders by telephone, Hillsboro, Pacific States, 177; Independent, 158. A. F. TINGSTROM
