

HEBREW PEDDLER IS FINED FIFTY DOLLARS

Displays His Wares to Justice Kindt

AS MINUS A PEDDLER'S LICENSE

left his Stock in Lieu of Payment of Fine

One day last week, William Esper, who claims to have been born in Jerusalem, the Holy Land, emigrated up to the residence of Judge C. E. Kindt, of Kinton. On his back he bore two large leather grips containing wares and merchandise, which he proceeded to display and offer for sale. The Judge kindly asked him if he had a peddler's license, and when informed that he had not, and needed none, forthwith ordered his arrest. When the man from Jerusalem found he was caught he pleaded guilty and threw himself on the mercy of the court, pleading the Judge that he was a Christian, and that if the Court were lenient God would help him.

Judge Kindt told Esper that while he did not claim any special knowledge of the Divine Will, yet he believed the Almighty would not be displeased with a fine of $50, which was imposed. Esper was not possessed of the amount and the Court, not desiring to add to county expense by increasing the number of boarders at the "Hotel Hancock" agreed that the defendant might leave his goods in limbo, and if he could not raise the money in a few days, the merchandise would be sold by the constable and the proceeds applied to the fine.

So far as known this is the first arrest in the county under the new law regulating peddlers.

COME IN SATURDAY

Saturday will be a big day in Hillsboro. The Hillsboro Cardinals will play a return game with Glencoe, the game to begin at 4:00 p. m. There will be refreshments on the grounds, and at night the fireworks will be set off at Shute Park. There will be dancing at the grounds, and the committee expect a good crowd in attendance.

Big Sacrifice Millinery Sale

Going to extensive repairs soon to be made in the building we occupy, to make room for our rapidly increasing business, we will, for the next 30 days, sell all our trimmed hats, shapes, remnants of ribbons and stock of flowers, at cost.

H. Rhea.

One door west of Connell & Co. Improvement work will not interfere with sale. Saleroom in rear.

RECEPTION

Mr and Mrs J. W. Sewell received Saturday evening, the occasion being in honor of the return of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Sewell. The affair was held in Wehrungs Hall, and over 150 attended. The evening was replete with all kinds of good cheer, and the Hillsboro Band, of which organization the groom is a member, was present, and rendered several pieces. Miss Arab Hoyt was very pleasing in a solo, "The Land of Nod," and as an encore sang "The Golden Shore." Earl Donelson, brother of the bride, who assisted at the piano, played a violin solo, "The Golden Scepter," and the singing and violin numbers were enthusiastically received and Mr. Donelson was a surprise to his auditors, his conception of technique and tone being remarkable. After Mr and Mrs. Sewell had received congratulations a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Miltenberger presiding at the punch bowl.

The host and hostess are well known in Hillsboro and vicinity, and count their friends by the thousands. A pleasing coincidence of the affair is the fact that when they were married many years ago the Hillsboro Band went out to the Williams Homestead, a mile east of town, and serenaded them.

The guests of honor returned Friday from their wedding trip to the Sound and British Columbia.

F. E. Rowell, of Scholla, last week exhibited a model for a ball bearing buggy that his firm sells that is a revelation in the way of a vehicle. It is furnished with ball bearing journals that will last as long as a buggy will last, and it pulls as easy as a flying machine. Just why a ball bearing buggy has not come into general use before is one of the puzzles of modern business.

Work is proceeding right along on the Tamiesie block, formerly owned by W. O. Donelson, and the second story will see a roof before many weeks. The upper story will be splendidly lighted by windows, and one can now see that it is to be a very sightly building, and one that will be a credit to the city.

Wanted—Girl for dining room work.—Home Style Restaurant.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue is having a big time to get a jury on a murder trial, at St. Helena. This is the case of State vs. Murgatroyd, charged with killing an old man, Robert Livingstone, near Gobel, last Winter. Jurors were objected to for any old reason, and one man was excused because he had at one time studied law under the late Congressman Tongue, and the defense alleged bias because E. B. Tongue was a son of the late Congressman.

For Sale: A 3-year old Jersey bull, sired by "Tan St. Helier," Ladd's first prize winner at the Lewis & Clark Fair; his dam was a Jersey cow with a butter record of 14 pounds in 7 days, her milk testing 5.20 per cent. Some of his offspring can be seen at my place, near Phillips. John Schneider, Hillsboro, Route 1, Box 88. Telephone 4943.

Lawrence Dixon returned Tuesday from a trip through Southern Oregon. He and his party went up the valley via Roseburg and Eugene and crossed the Cascades at Crater Lake, where they found 10 feet of snow July 4. They were the second party to reach the lake this summer. The new hotel and nearly all the buildings were broken down by the heavy weight of last Winter's snow.

THIRTY THOUSAND BUCKS IN COURT

Estate of Jas. McNulty, Deceased, in Probate

HAS MANY CLAIMANTS AFTER IT

Taslatia Bachelor Dies and Leaves no Will

The thirty thousand dollar estate of the late James McNulty, of Tualatin, is still tied up in court because none of the claimants can satisfy the administrator that they are entitled to receive their respective alleged shares. There is but one claimant on the ground—and that is Mrs. Allie Thomas, of Minneapolis, now stopping in Portland, and represented by Attorney Harold M. Sawyer. Gammans & Malarkey, counsel for the administrator, Bernard Finigan, advises their client that heirship is not conclusively proven in any of the prospective heirs. Some claimants live in Pennsylvania; some in Ireland, and some in Minnesota. Bagley & Hare represent some eastern heirs, and they contend that one Patrick McNulty, an alleged brother, now in Ireland, Mayo Co., is not entitled to heirship as the real Patrick McNulty, brother, was killed in the Civil War.

There are eight attorneys in the dispute and it makes a probate judge do some thinking. The court has adjourned the proceedings until Attorney Sinnott, of Portland can get further proof that Patrick Mayo, brother, still lives, and that he is the genuine simple pure blood relative that he claims to be.

Notice to the Public

The undersigned will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her son, Albert Schaefer, who has left home without her consent. The public is hereby notified to act accordingly.

A. G. Derse and wife, of Oconomowoc, Wis. were here this week, guests of Mr. Derse's sister, Mrs. Edw. Bayles, of North Plains. They departed for Vancouver and Victoria, yesterday, and they sail in a day or so for Honolulu and other points on the Sandwich Islands, to be absent until the latter part of August. Mr. Derse is one of Wisconsin's bright young attorneys, and he says that in all his travels he has seen nothing prettier than Oregon and Oregon Summer weather.

F. M. Crabtree Jr., of Chehalis Mountain, was in town the first of the week, and says his hops are looking fairly well, and that prospects are much better than before the July rain.

The little four year old son of T. C. Parker, of Portland, while visiting Owen Murray, of Cedar Mill, who is the child's grandfather, was kicked by a colt the other morning and severely injured. Dr. F. A. Bailey attended the little chap, and at first feared serious consequences, but the concussion seems nicely allayed and the lad is getting along very nicely.

NINE CARS TO RUN ON THE ELECTRIC

Theatre Car is to be Added, and Other Trains

INCREASED SERVICE BEGINS SOON

Probably Will Take Effect Sunday or First of the Week

The Oregon Electric is soon to increase its train service into Washington County on the Portland-Hillsboro-Forest Grove run, and Manager Talbot gives it out that there will be nine trains each way daily. This will give Hillsboro a theatre train, down after six o'clock, and back about midnight. The service was to have been installed yesterday, but trainmen say that it will go into effect about Sunday, or the first of the week. As near as can be figured out the trains will arrive and leave about as follows, although there may be changes to these unofficial schedules:

Leaves for Portland—6:50, 8:35, 10:25 A. M.; 12:30, 1:55, 3:35, 4:25, 7:00 and 9:35 P. M.

Arrives from Portland—7:45, 9:30, 11:10 A. M.; 1:45, 3:15, 4:30, 6:35, 9:30 and 12:15 P. M.

This will make a fine service and Manager Talbot thinks the travel will warrant its continuance.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, The Great Master of the Universe has called to the labor of the great Grange above, our beloved sister Lido Benson, who has been taken from our mystic circle by the reaper, death.

Resolved, that Hillsboro Grange No. 73 has lost a highly esteemed member, and an earnest supporter. We will ever remember her modest and womanly demeanor, and will cherish her memory as one of many virtues and of great usefulness.

Resolved, that our fraternal and heartfelt sympathies go out to our Brother and the bereaved family.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the journal of this Grange, and published in the city papers.

"We are nearer than we are dreaming; To that bright and happy Shore; We're closer than we're seeming; Where the shadows fall no more."

Bagley & Hare, representing Benton Bowman, as trustee in bankruptcy, have sued to recover for a number of creditors a piece of land deeded by W. E. Sherrill to W. P. Dyke and then deeded back to Sherrill's wife. The claim is that the deed was without consideration, and was fraudulent, and that the transaction was to put things in such a shape that Sherrill could not be attacked by creditors. After the deed was made to Dyke, Sherrill went into bankruptcy. Sherrill helped to build several cottages in this city and went behind in his business.

E. J. Lilly and wife, of Galea Creek, are being tried before Judge Barnes, today, charged with assaulting Ben J. Barrett. Barrett alleges he was fixing a fence, and that he and Lilly had words, and that both husband and wife assaulted him. The Lillys allege that Barrett brandished a hammer and the husband took it away from him, the wife assisting to disarm the prosecuting witness, and that he used no more violence than was necessary to get the dangerous weapon away. The case will be decided late this evening.

The dance floor at the city park is being smoothed in fine shape, and Walkers' orchestra will furnish the music for Saturday night's dance.

Wm. Bagley Sr., of Leisyville, who has ninety acres of hops, which have come out wonderfully since the early July rains, was in Tuesday. He says the bloom is setting down further on the vine than for some years, and that is prospect of a pretty fair crop where a few weeks ago it looked pretty bad.

The day of the big picnic, next Saturday, July 17, I will sell any article in my store (except Victrola goods and Howard watches) at a discount of 20 per cent. Don't forget the date, one day only.—L. M. Hoyt.

Orpha Sheldon, who married Guy Sheldon here in 1905, and who later moved to Linnton, has sued for divorce, alleging drunkenness and gross abuse. A little son is the issue of the marriage and she asks its custody and $30 per month alimony. Rev. A. Robinson was the officiating minister who tied the unhappy knot.

Mrs. Clara Brown, wife of Dr. C. B. Brown, of Portland, and well known in this city, is seriously ill. She lost an arm in the Elks' excursion, enroute to Grays Harbor, several years ago, and has never enjoyed health since the accident.

The Beaverton Dramatic Club will stage a play Sunday evening, at Foresters' Hall, Verboort, on titled "The Royal Runaway." The proceeds will go to St. Mary's Home, Beaverton, a more than worthy institution. The young people giving the play have splendid talent, and will please their auditors. The public is cordially invited.

Come to the celebration grounds Saturday night and witness the fireworks. Then have a good time on the newly smoothed dance floor, with Walkers' orchestra for the inspiration.

A man by the name of C. E. Stone, of Cooper Mountain, has 7,000 cabbage plants set out on his place. Shades of sauerkraut and cold "slaw," but that is setting a pace. If we could just move that over by the side of J. E. Reeves' (Cornelius) 12-acre cucumber patch wouldn't it be j'y eternal.

Married: July 12, 1909, by Judge G. W. Barnes, in Hillsboro, Anthony Hardy, of Portland, and Miss Maud Cade, of this county.

A party of young ladies, chaperoned by Miss O'ivia Ferrin, of Forest Grove, left Hillsboro this week for a camping vacation above Buxton. Misses Mary and Wilma Heide, Mattie Wilson, Margaret Goodin, Maude Griffith, Lura Tamiesie and Alice Lund.

Next time you're in town, take some ice cream home with you. Will ice it up, so that it will keep for twenty-four hours.—Den of Sweets.

Chris. Rocks, one of the best hotel men Hillsboro ever has known, writes from Lincoln, Neb.: "In deed, I want your paper continued—I would miss it as I would a friend. I am anxiously waiting until I can return to Oregon."

If you are looking for a farm, or want to sell one, we can attend to it for you.—Imbrie Land Co.

Rufus Waggener, C. E. Deichman, C. R. Boyd, Hillsboro, and A. C. Hall, Sherwood, and who were on the U. S. trial jury, in Portland, for many weeks, are at last discharged and are home. Mr. Waggener and wife will soon leave for Newport.

Nearly all the stores in the city have decided to close at 8:00, except Saturday evenings, during the months of July, August and September.

Dr. R. C. Brophy, well known in the dental world, having invented a device that is worth thousands, lectured before the state dental association, Portland, this week, and his old classmate, Dr. A. B. Bailey, went to the city to meet with him.

Baird's Store will close at 8 p. m. during the months of July, August and September—excepting Saturday evenings.

J. P. Aplin, in the flour mill business at Bellingham, Wash., and Samuel Aplin, of Portland, were out to Hillsboro, today, on legal business. They were formerly in the milling business at Dilley and Cornelius.

Greer will close his store every evening except Saturdays, at 8:00 o'clock.

Contractor Moore, of Portland, was out this morning and filed his bond for the performance of his contract in the matter of the construction of the K. of P. building.
