CARDINALS CLINCH TWO MORE GAMES

Beat Glencoe Saturday Afternoon, 13 Runs to Zero

BEAT THE MAROONS SUNDAY Will Play Return Game at Banks Next Sunday—Excursion Train

The Cardinals have clinched two more victories. They beat Glencoe last Saturday afternoon, the score being 13 to 0. The Glencoe boys proved easy for the locals. Gillenwater and Toelle pitched and Darity caught for Glencoe, and Robinson and Phelps were the Cardinals' battery. There was a good sized crowd in to see the game, and in the evening hundreds came in from all quarters to see the postponed fireworks.

On Sunday the Cardinals played the Maroons, and the game was a very pretty one—the Maroons were a fine lot of boys, and played consistent ball. The score was 3 to 1 in favor of the Cardinals and the only score the Maroons made was in the first inning. Duncomb was safe at first in Ingram's boot, Yett going to third and scoring on Briggs' out. The Cardinals scored 2 in the second. Ingram was hit by a pitched ball, and went to third on Moore's single, who kept travelling on the throw to head off Ingram. Both scored on Bussen's timely hit. In the eighth Wilkes singled, stole second and scored when Donaldson fumbled Ingram's grounder.

Next Sunday the Cardinals will play the return game with Banks, on the Banks grounds, and an excursion train will leave here in plenty of time for the game. As the Banks boys beat Hillsboro the first game played a large crowd will go up to the new town, in the hopes of retrieving the fallen fortunes—the only game lost so far this season. Manager Moore thinks his boys will get the game and then win the deciding contest, to be played later.

NEED OF CANNERY

The crying necessity of a cannery in Hillsboro is again demonstrated this season because of the thousands upon thousands of pounds of cherries which have failed to find a market. Cherries, small berries and tomatoes, to say nothing of the prolific production of cucumbers, make Hillsboro a center which should support a cannery and make it a profitable institution. Local capital is ready, in small lots, to aid a business enterprise of this kind if some one will just start the ball rolling. N. W. Chilcote says he will donate the site on his place in South Hillsboro, but it were better to have it located where cases could be trucked to the car. It is too late this year to do much with a cannery, but every business man should get in and boost for a cannery. It will mean thousands of dollars saved to this vicinity. The waste of the year of our Lord A. D. 1909 would pay for a cannery, two or three times over.

COUNTY BOARD LETS BRIDGE CONTRACTS

C. E. Potts, of Gales Creek, Gets the Naylor Bridge

NINESEY FOOT BRIDGE—45 FT. SPAN

M. M. Mead is Awarded the Beaverton Bridge and Fill

The County Board met Saturday, and opened bids on the Beaverton Bridge and fill and the bridge across Gales Creek, at the Naylor place, west of Forest Grove. M. M. Mead was awarded the contract for the Beaverton bridge and fill, the consideration being $300. There were two other bids on the Beaverton bridge, but as there were no figures on the fill, Mead, who had a bid on both bridge and fill, was given the contract. The bids were:

W. F. Dessinger, bridge alone.....$74 00
C. E. Potts, bridge alone..... 74 40
M. M. Mead, bridge and fill.....300 00
Ira E. Bradley, bridge and fill.....390 99

The Naylor bridge bids:
D. H. Reesemer, Hillsboro.....$353 31
C. E. Potts, Gales Creek.....360 43
J. S. Larsung, Hillsboro.....393 45
Oregon File Driver Co., Portland.....547 94

Mr. Potts was awarded the contract, and the structure will be 90 feet in length, over all, with a 45 foot span. The Oregon File Driver Company has been doing bridge work near Tualatin for the Oregon Electric, but their figures were rather high to secure work in county affairs.

Besides the letting of contracts as above, the court allowed the following bills:
F. P. Goodin, work rock crushing, etc. Gaston.....$603 44
J. A. Curry, measuring rock work, same place..... 52 50
Chas. E. Potts, nails, bolts, irons, etc. 34 35
Russell bridge..... 96 50
Schmoecker bridge..... 69 00
Panno Creek Bridge..... 57 50
Hunsacker Bridge..... 11 50
Hauling pile hammer..... 4 50
Total.....$273 35

NOTICE TO FRUIT DEALERS

Dealers in fruit of all kinds are hereby warned to neither buy nor sell diseased fruit of any nature whatsoever, where such fruit shall be infested with San Jose scale or codling moth, and if such diseased fruit shall be found on the premises of any dealer the same shall be confiscated and destroyed as per authority of law. Growers of fruit are also notified that they shall under no circumstances sell diseased fruit as above set forth.

MAN AND WIFE ARE FINED FOR ASSAULT

Judge Barnes Finds Them Guilty of Battery

TWO TO ONE AGAINST BARRETT

Man Fined Twenty Dollars and Woman Pays Five

E. J. Lilly and wife, of Gales Creek, are twenty five dollars poorer as a result of fines imposed late last Thursday evening by Judge Barnes, of Hillsboro. The Lillys live on Gales Creek and they have been having disputes with one Benjamin Barrett over a roadway and fence.

The parties met a few weeks ago and Barrett accused Lilly of tinkering with a fence and letting his horses out. Lilly denied this and Barrett used his tongue so freely that Lilly resented his language and retorted in very vigorous Queen's English, intimating that he could do things to his neighbor Lilly claims that Barrett tried to whack him with the hammer and he landed on him, finally clinching. Barrett received two or three Jack Johnson swings and finally Lilly downed his man and at this juncture Mrs. Lilly, who years ago had taken her oath to cling to her husband through thick and thin, stole second, and got the bat away from Barrett.

Between the two, anyway, Barrett looked like an Irishman after a payday, and he brought his troubles before Justice Barnes. W. G. Hare aided Thos. Tongue in prosecuting and Mark Bump defended, with the result that—
The husband paid twenty,
The wife paid five,
And Mr. Barrett's
Glad he's "alive."

Wm. E. Oliver, of Portland, was in town Friday afternoon, meeting the friends of his brother, the late C. Percy Oliver, onetime school teacher and druggist of this city, and who went from here to the Philippines, with the Second Oregon, dying at Cavite. Mr. Oliver came out to Portland from Lake-land, Minn., two or three years ago.

T. R. Yergen, interested in the Hillsboro Light & Power Co., was in town Saturday, conferring with his associates, C. E. Lytle and J. T. Stephenson. Mr. Yergen has sawmill interests over at Everitt, Wn.

Miss Maude Tucker, of Clarkston, Wash., where she is engaged in the millinery business, arrived Friday for a short visit with relatives, and is a guest at the Powell, Gardner and Long homes.

O. B. Gates and wife, of Klamath Falls, where Mr. Gates superintends a water and light plant, are here for a few days, guests of R. Waggener and wife and Geo. Wilcox and wife.

William Wolf and wife, of North Hillsboro, went to North Yamhill, Saturday, to spend a week with Mrs. Wolf's brother, Geo. Riggan.

Greer's for jelly glasses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Thirkell were out from Portland, Sunday. Daniel Bailey and party were in from Blooming, Saturday, in his automobile.

F. B. Clark, of below Farmington, was a county seat caller, Monday.

Geo. Zimmerman, of Scappoose section, was up to this city the last of the week.

W. F. Dessinger, the Beaverton general contractor, was up Saturday, on business at the court house.

J. T. Powell will start up his threshers next Monday, threshing first on the J. N. Grabel farm, on his plains north of town.

Commissioners McClaran, Gales Creek, and W. J. Butner, Beaverton, were up Saturday, meeting in session to let some bridge and fill contracts.

County Judge J. W. Goodin was a Glencoe visitor Saturday evening, attending the 25th anniversary of Glencoe K. of P. Lodge, of which he is a member.

Victor Crop was in from the North Plains, Monday. He says that he is now running the Crop Bros.' baler, and that the threshers will soon start its big fall run.

A. C. Winney, of beyond Glencoe, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Winney has been indisposed for several weeks, but is now feeling better.

Jasper Kaffer, of near Glencoe, was in town Friday evening. Jasper has quit the sawmill business and is devoting his entire time to farming.

Taken up: White gelding pony, weighs about 700; about 10 years old; dark mane and tail.—R. W. Huffaker, Hillsdale, Ore., R. 1, Box 62. 19 21

Leo Bullock, well known here as a boy, and who is a grandson of the late Grandma Wood, was down from Salem Saturday, attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine B. Reynolds.

J. H. Collier, who has five acres of onions growing, was up Saturday, and says the crop is looking well. He says that outside of the hay shortage everything looks fine, and his grain prospect is the best he ever had this time of year.

J. W. Marsh and wife, of Centerville, were in the city Saturday. "Wallace" thinks that Banks-Cardinal ball game was about the most interesting he has seen since the days he played town-ball away back in the fifties.

Dave Rice came up from Scholle, Saturday, and went on out to Glencoe, accompanied by E. P. Cornelius, to attend the reunion of Glencoe Lodge, K. of P. Postmaster B. P. Cornelius and the Argus reporter also went out to assist in the general good time.

J. T. Young and family started Sunday for their annual outing over at Netarts, and will make the trip by easy stages, overland. J. T. says if anyone from Hillsboro should get over there he will see to it that he furnishes a clam dinner and other substantial edibles.

Chas. Holcomb, of near Bethany, was in Saturday and tipped over a fine load of hay, weighing 3,600, when the Ebbly place, North Hillsboro, and when the load went over Chas. made a flying jump over a high picket fence and slid home, without injury. The extra pitching of nearly two tons of hay was the only injury sustained.

Hillsboro will be proud of the Tammies building when it is completed, and with the construction of the Pythian Castle Hall building on Second, will be another business block that will be a credit to the city. With numerous residence structures going up here and there the building operations for the year will be considerable.

M. E. Everitt, who has been visiting here, returned Friday from a trip to Seaside, where, as president of the organization, he attended the annual session of the State Pharmaceutical Association. He says that the year showed 77 new members, and the meeting was very enthusiastic—in fact, one of the most successful ever held. Mr. Everitt brought up from North Bend, where he is in business, a lot of fine samples of myrtle wood, worked into shape for cabinet use.

Nathan Noland, pioneer of 1852, and who came here at the age of 11, with his father, J. S. Noland, was in from Cornelius, Saturday. His father first settled on what is now the J. E. Reeves' farm, and traded a cayuse pony, worth about $15 for the claim. He afterward traded it away for a pony, and took the same Mазeppa and went to the Umpqua where he traded it for a ranch. Those were times when land was had for the asking, and a pony had to be bought.
