Henry Freitag, of East of Glencoe, was in the city Friday evening.

Watch Greer's bargain tables for bargains that are bargains.

James Miltenberger and wife returned the last of the week from a short stay at Newport.

John L. Abbott and wife, of Portland, visited the last of the week at the home of E. L. Abbott.

A. J. Killin, of Thecher, and who is a brother of the late Benton Killin, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Mark Sears is at B'laton for an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Ottinger.

Miss Bernice Schooling of Portland, was a Sunday guest at the H. T. Bagley home.

Miss Meta Wallace, who has been visiting with her parents at Hammond, returned home Saturday.

Come everybody, and see the bargains you can get for 10c and 25c in glass and granite ware, at Greer's.

Dr. C. W. Lowe, the old time North Carolinian, was in the city Friday, greeting his friends and patrons.

T. S. Watson, the purchaser of the Meier place, near the Wooley bridge, northwest of the city, was an Argus caller Saturday.

J. T. Powell, who is threshing out on the North Plains and around West Union, was in Friday. On one acre he turned out 100 bushels of oats and tares.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis, who have one of the neatest homes in the Mountindale section, left Friday, for a fortnight at the Seattle Fair, and a visit with relatives.

W. W. Anderson, managing the Ladd & Reen Farm, at Reedville, was up to the city Saturday, Willis farmed a mile east of this city for a number of years.

G. Hager, of near Phillips, was in the last of the week. He has bought the Buck Lusby place above Mountindale, and will sell the Phillips farm and reside on the new purchase.

Miss Jennie Lilligard, clerking at Greer's grocery, departed Saturday, for a two weeks' vacation at Cascade Locks. Miss Cecelia Greer will remain in the store during her vacation.

Jas. E. Butler has accepted a position with Porter Bros and left Tuesday for The Dalles, where he will assume his duties as draughtsman for the new Central Oregon Railway people.

Z. M. L. Rue, of Forest Grove was down Tuesday, accompanied by F. J. Folsom, of Montevideo Minn., who is a brother of Mrs. LaRue. Mr. Folsom thinks we have a fine country here.

Alvin Hankins, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Ethel Joy, of Casburne, arrived in the city Sunday, to attend the funeral of their mother, the late Mrs. Hankins. While here they were guests of Mrs. Geo. R. Bagley.

W. S. Cooper and Earl Wilson, of Herderson, Iowa, are here the guests of Mr. Cooper's cousins, H. R. and Lou Emmott. The three are now out on a hunt and Ray Emmott is taking care of them while on the jaunt.

Edward Baylee, of this side of West Union, was in Friday. He reports that A. G. Derse and wife, the Wisconsin people who left here for Honolulu a few weeks ago, had a very pleasant trip to the Islands. Mr. Derse is a brother of Mrs. Baylee.

Clyborn Williams, well known in and around Greenville and Banks, and now residing at Rainier, was in the city Friday afternoon, accompanied by Harry Sherman, a Columbia logger and lumberman. They were up conferring with District Attorney Tongue on some timber deal.

Jack Latta, of Forest Grove, and who is one of the downright Al boys of which the college city has many, was in town Friday, showing his brother, A. C. Latta, late of Hulton, Kas., what the country has in the way of good territory. The brother is out to see the Fair, and says that we have a great country out here.

Geo. Alexander, with a surveying corps on the P. R. & N., came down the last of the week and went to Portland. Mr. Alexander worked on the DeChutes survey and he was called in on that account. Hill's engineer, John F. Stevens, in an interview, states that Hill is backing the road, and this will mean that Mrs. W. F. Nelson, who has relatives in this city, will get remuneration for the share that her late husband had in the proposed road.

Monday while Supervisor Wenger was putting in a bridge near the Reynolds place, near Phillips, Michael Seethaler, a young man about 26 years of age, residing on the Dietz place, was badly injured. A team was hauling a huge timber stringer and it swung against the fence near which three men were working. The other two got away safely but Seethaler was caught at his right leg badly crushed between the ankle and knee. Dr. F. A. Bailey was called and reduced the fracture, which was a very ugly one, and the patient will be laid up for some weeks.
