HILLSBORO, OREGON, SEPT. 9, 1909

NO. 26

COUNTY HOSPITAL VALUABLE PROPERTY

Located a Mile Southeast of Hillsboro, Near Newton

SEVEN ACRES UNDER CULTIVATION

Over 100 Large Fruit Trees of Different Varieties

Washington County's Farm and Hospital—better known as the "Poor Farm"—is located a little over a mile east of the city park, on the Southern Pacific Railway. Martin Vandebey is the present superintendent, and he pays an annual rental of $150 for the 40 acres of land, all under cultivation, and worth at a conservative estimate, $100 per acre. There are over 100 fruit trees on the place, but the varieties are not of the best. These trees are really too closely huddled, and half of them should be grubbed out. The soil, however, is being made more fertile each year, and Mr. Vandebey is seeding 10 acres of clover each year, as a fertilizer. He keeps 8 cows for dairy purposes, and is under contract to always keep six fat a milk supply. His corn and vegetables look fine and he crops show evidence of careful farming.

The county hospital is a big structure, with its own water supply, consisting of a gasoline engine and pump; water piped all through the house; a bath room for the inmates; 8 rooms for county purposes and three rooms downstairs, aside from the living apartments for the superintendent and family. Twenty inmates could be kept, with a little more attention. Mr. Vandebey gets $10 per month for each county charge, and for his own must clothe and care for them. He gets but little help from the old folks, as they are generally very feeble. One patient, August Busche, however, is the jewel of the inmates—he is always willing to help, and he is not quarrelsome. When the baby Vandebey cries he always starts to care for it, and he is always helping about the room. Some of the inmates are very childish and a source of much trouble. The present charges, picked from the best and jessam of the world and its infests, are:

Thos. Philbin, of Vineland, who a few years ago was found sick in his cabin, which burned and left him destitute.

Aug. Busche, who has a wife in Kansas City, and two grown children in the east.

Dan Buner, an old timer of North Washington county, and who is blind, and who always lets people know that he is around.

Joe Yahl, brother-in-law of the late John Brugger, one of the pioneer mill men of the county. Yahl is now recovering from amputation of one of his feet, and is getting fleshy from his rest policy.

Mr. Elizabeth Miller, feeble-minded, and who was brought up from the east end of the county.

Wm. McBride, an old clock tinker, who has both feet amputated just in front of the instep.

And last, but not least, "Jimmie Craig," who always makes it warm for everybody when he gets where there is a drop of the joy bubble. Jimmie got on his dignity and pulled out a few days ago on a vacation because the saloon men in Hillsboro refused to give him a return when he put up his 10 cents. Jimmie will come back some day and be a good boy for a few weeks.

Mrs. Almira Brooks, of Mountaineale, and who is aged 75 years, fell one day last week and sustained a fracture of the forearm. Although so advanced in age Mrs. Brooks displayed much courage and wanted to start at her household work within an hour after the accident.

Fred Schmidt, of Laurel, is building a large two-story house on his farm, to cost over $2,000. John McFee is also building on his farm a mile south of Laurel, and Lloyd Northrop has just moved into his new house on Mountain Top, Laurel "do move."

Two cows for sale: Both in milk; one fresh, the other fresh in December. One a graded Jersey; the other a Devon and Durham.—G. M. Hunter, Corner Fourth and Jackson, Hillsboro. 26 8

We now have a good supply of good hard burned brick, and building blocks for cellars and foundations. Try our building blocks for your house foundations. Cheaper than cement or brick and better protection against frost. We have finished our run of large tile and are again running on smaller sizes, and have a fair supply at the yard. Parties wanting tile delivered should place their orders now so we can haul them before bad weather. There is always a rush of hauling orders in the Fall when roads are almost impassable. We have a good supply of rough and dressed lumber at our mill, and a quantity of common lumber at the H.A. spur, below Newton, the latter to sell at a sacrifice—2x12, 2x8, 2x6, 2x4, 1x10, 1x8, 1x6 and 1x4, of various lengths. This is all good dry stock, and it will pay you to investigate should you want any of these dimensions—Groner & Rowell Co., Scholls, Hillsboro, R. 2.

The Oregon Electric now has the roof on the new depot at the corner of Third and Washington and it will not be very many weeks until the old boxcar will be abandoned and Agent Cronise will have commodious quarters. The Southern Pacific and P. R. & N. joint depot is also covered and the workmen expect to be through in about a fortnight. The old depot is very crowded, now that the Tillamook line is carrying so much freight to the front for construction purposes.

Wanted—To rent a farm of from 80 to 150 acres cleared, with buildings in shape for use. Will pay cash rent. Want good place. Address Glen Pomeroy, Holbrook, R. F. D. 1. 24-6

Farmers frequently come to town looking for help, and find no man, and the same is true, largely, as to labor conditions in town. There is no excuse, therefore, for any man who wishes to work and can't get it. And this reminds the reporter that a big husky, fairly well dressed, and with a constitution like an ox, struck Dave Corwin for ten cents the other morning, dealing out a hard-luck story. The trimming down that Corwin gave him was well worth hearing—and the chap failed to get his ten cents.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the G and Marco, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Randolph and Mr. and Mrs. George Larus, of Ipana, Illinois, have been visiting Mrs. Ruth Blair the past fortnight. They have visited Yellowstone Park, the Seattle Fair, and other Northern points of interest. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph returned via Salt Lake and Grand Canyon, while Mr. and Mrs. Larus go to Yosemite Park, Los Angeles and other Southern points. The ladies are sisters, and they are cousins of Mrs. Blair.

Just follow the crowd to Nelson's Second Street barber shop—the only four-chair shop in Washington County. Always four men on Saturday. 22 1/2

Fred Ennis, who has been tending book on the Columbia, and who is one of the best timbermen in that section, came out the last of the week, and went out to Banks. He will move to Hillsboro for the Winter, and occupy his own home—the former Buell property, now occupied by Agent Cronise, of the Oregon Electric—and may remain permanently in the city.

Geo. Ledford, fireman at the condenser, badly crushed a finger while throwing wood into the furnace, one day last week. The digit was stiff from an old wound, and was on the hand that was already minus two of its companions. Dr. Tammies attended the wound, and it may yet be necessary to amputate—and probably would be a convenience for its possessor if it were taken off.

Harry O. Farr, of Yamhill county, and Miss Harriet Kreider, of Forest Grove, were married at the residence of E. Kreider, Sept. 1, 1909. Rev. Elijah Stivers, pastor of the Christian church, officiating.

For sale: Shropshire and Rambouillet rams, yearlings and lambs, all eligible to registry. Shropshires are from Canadian sire, out of English imported stock.—Ferd Groner, Scholls, Hillsboro, Rt. 2. 21 33

Geo. Alexander, with a surveying corps on the P. R. & N., above Buxton in the Nelsalem, came over the last of the week for a day or so here and at Portland.

Customers at Emmott Bros may get a beautiful China Dinner Set, free. See their window display, and ask them how you can get one.

J. B. Schaefer, postmaster and merchant at Linnton, and who is interested in North Hillsboro property, was out last Friday.

BOXING BOUT CALLED OFF AFTER 4TH ROUND

Spirited Contest Nipped Before Going Five

REFEREE KING FEARED TROUBLE

Scaler Fights Like Battling Nelson and is a Comer

Two hundred saw the sparring contest at the Crescent Theatre last Saturday night, and the bout was ended at the close of the fourth round, and entrance money refunded. The preliminary was a neat little exhibition by Damon Greer and Chas. Follett, who did some very clever work for lads, and pleased the audience immensely. The boys worked as smoothly as though they were accustomed to the game, and each took care of himself. While Greer was the stronger of the two the little Follett lad, notwithstanding he has but one foot, is considerably the cleverest.

The officials had told the referee that all would be arrested if other than a boxing exhibition were pulled off, and this put a damper on the go. Scaler, who is a fine boxer, and who will some day get into the Battling Nelson class—he fights like the Dane—handled Bob Evans as though he were a child, although Evans is a classy man on points. When the third round opened Scaler punished the little fellow pretty hard, and in the fourth there were some pretty hard exchanges, and Scaler opened pretty stiff on his opponent, although the gloves were too big for any material damage.

It was easy to see, however, if Scaler wanted to close the bout, it was in his power at almost any time to have put his man out for the count of ten. Referee King, not wanting it to go to a point where a knockout might be involved, at all times consulted with the Sheriff, who was back of the ringside. Hancock told him that he thought the bout had better be called off, as the boys were getting warmed up. The exhibition was declared off and then there was an instant demand for a refund of the admission. After some little parley this was done, and all got their money except those who had lost their coupons.

One Portland fan became excited and threatened H. T. Bagley. Marshal Larsen started to make an arrest but the disturber broke through the crowd and ran down First street. The Marshal fired two or three shots in the air to stop the fugitive, but he was hitting the high places only, and made his getaway through a vacant lot, and got back to Portland.

This probably will end the boxing game in this city. No one was hurt, although Evans was badly wounded. To those who have seen some of the big fellows go—such as have farm wagon local here at the clubrooms, the affair was very tame. But, certain, Scaler will be heard from in the pugilistic world.

John H. Zimmerman, wife and two children, of Sabatha, Kas., and who left home August 1, going to El Paso, and thence to Los Angeles, and from that city to Hillsboro, arrived last week and are guests of A. C. Winney, of above Glencoe. They remain a few days, and think Oregon is about right. Mrs. Zimmerman is a daughter of Mr. Winney.

Sam Kunz, of Bethany, and who has just finished a three weeks run with an Advance thresher, was in town the last of the week. He recently threshed a small piece of wheat for Fred Berger that yielded 60 bushels to the acre—what's the matter with that for a yield?—and turned out some oats that went 73 bushels. Kunz' machine is a 30-inch cylinder, and in a half day's run he threshed 1960 bushels.

For a fine lawn or field fence, the Royal American is the best of all; neat, durable, strong. Any height you want.—Emrick & Corwin. 25 6

C. W. Allen and wife, F. M. Allen and wife, and Robt. Hocken and wife, passed through the first of the week for a fishing and hunting trip to the Wilson River country, and they possibly may go over to the bay if the weather remains warm. C. W. was up Saturday to take out his license and get ready for the trip. He expects to get all kinds of big game and laid in a keg of salt petre to preserve the venison.

Try our prices for tinware, granite, and hardware of all kinds, before you buy. We can show you where we can save you money.—Emrick & Corwin. 25-6

To the K. of P.—E. B. Hawkins, of the Insurance department of the K. of P., will be here next Monday night, and all members of the order are invited to be in attendance. There will be work in both the second and third ranks. Do not fail to attend, as there will be other important business up for consideration.

A. C. Davis, of the Oregon Journal, Portland, was in town Friday. Mr. Davis left Portland for Beaverton, taking the Oregon Electric. He was duly sober, but becoming interested in a conversation failed to watch his station, or hear it called, and landed in Hillsboro before he knew it. You can't keep them away from old Hillsboro—they will come.

Z. M. LaRue was down from the Grove, Friday, and says he is still selling Watkins' remedies to the farmers of Washington County, and that his stock and poultry foods are giving universal satisfaction. His Hillsboro office is at the tailor shop of Aug. Tews. See him. 26

John E. Zimmerman, of the Wallace settlement, above Glencoe, was over to the county seat Friday afternoon. He reports that his father, G. E. Zimmerman has gone over to Tillamook for a two or three weeks stay, after about 30 years of absence from that place.

Labor Day was a quiet proposition for Hillsboro, although the business houses generally kept open. The county clerk kept open a portion of the day to favor abstractors, who, as a rule, are working harder than ever this season.

CARDINALS CLINCH KICKING COLTS

Great Game of Ball at Forest Grove, Sunday

BOTH SIDES PLAYED CLASSY BALL

Hillsboro Wins by Decisive Score—13 to 2

Sunday's game at Forest Grove was joy to the hearts of the fans, and it was about as classy a game as has been witnessed this year in the county of Washington. Hillsboro sent up a monster crowd of rooters, and the team had a terrific vocal support. There was nothing doing in the first inning, but in the second the Colts ran a man over—Henderson, the first man up, flew out at first; Moore made first on an error by Wilkes; made third on two passed balls; Bullock fanned, and then Fitchener, pitcher, singled and scored Moore; Getter got a base on balls, and Schults drew a pass, putting Fitchener on third; VanBlaricomb was then up, and as Druhob pitched Fitchener tried to make home. He had a dandy lead but the ball was wide and Van failed to reach and Phelps tagged Fitchener at the home plate.

In the 7th inning the Colts again crossed the plate—Moore went to first on being hit by a pitched ball; Bullock went to first on error by Brown; Fitchener sacrificed and Bullock went out at second, Moore advancing to third; Getter hit to Brown, scoring Moore, but the batter went out at first. Schultz then went out on a fly to first. This ended the tally sheet so far as the Colts were concerned.

The Cardinals ran in four in the third inning—Bunson hit to Short stop Cook, who juggled; and made 1st; Bunson stole second and on Fauscher's sacrifice hit, went to third; Turk went out on a sacrifice, but put Fauscher to second; Brown made a neat sacrifice, scoring Bunson, and beating the ball to the first relay; Briggs, in a corking single, scored Fauscher and Brown and Houston hit to left field and scored Briggs, making the quartet of markers. In the 4th the Cardinals again scored, making 3 tallies; then three more in the sixth; and then three in the ninth. The Cardinals played great ball, and Colly Druhob, the Southpaw, says he never had better support in an amateur game. Bunson, who muffed the Sunday prior, and was in sackcloth and ashes, handled two flies to right and gripped the ball so hard that it was dented and the umpire had to call for a new sphere. Wilkes and Brown did some fast and clever work, and Houston played like a league topnotcher. Phelps had his wing with him, dandy, and Briggs and Turk, who is now captaining the team, played like veterans. The same line-up will play the Grove Colts here, Sunday.

The Colts played a good game, but the Cardinals simply had the 23 sign hung up somewhere between Hillsboro and the campus, while the Grove appears to have lost all the numbers except the 2 and 3.
