Timothy, clover and all kinds of grass seeds at Greer's.

Frank Williams and John Driland, of Shady Brook, were in town Monday.

Get Greer's prices on field seeds before buying elsewhere.

Louis Ennes, of South Tualatin, was over to the county seat Monday morning.

Henry Harris, of southwest of the city, was in from his dairy ranch, Monday morning.

A. Spiescheart, on the Tongue place, South Tualatin, was over to the city Monday morning.

Dave Wenger, rancher and thresherman, Helvetia, was in the city the first of the week.

Judge Hollis, of Forest Grove, and Attorney Eumons, of Portland, were here Monday, doing business for the United Railway people.

Gabriel Essner, of Mountaineale, and who fell heir to the lumber at the Thompson Bros' mill, above that place, was in the city Monday.

Just follow the crowd to Nelson's Second Street barber shop—the only four-chair shop in Washington County. Always four men on Saturday.

Joe Bucher, the old veteran, and who has a ranch up above Mountaineale, was in town Saturday and Sunday, coming in for medical attendance.

Mrs N H Sheidel, who in company with Mrs. John Weik, is visiting at Waverly, N. W. York, is expected home the last of the month.

Four room house on Washington Street, on car line between Second and Third, lot 50x190, for sale—Ernest Lyons, 2 miles northwest of Hillsboro.

Elder J A Campbell, of Portland, and who has taught and preached in Washington County for many years, was in town the last of the week.

Jas. H. Sewell, of northeast of town, was in Monday, and says that he will doubtless cultivate his hop yard next season, after it has been idle for a year.

The Beaverton Colts became victorious, Sunday, and kicked the Reedville nine clear to the North Pole, with a score of 13 to 6 in favor of the vegetable town's nine.

Geo. Biersdorf, who has a hop yard on the North Plains, was in Tuesday, and is feeling pretty good over hop prices, as but a small part of his product is under contract.

Gas Steves, of Virginia Place, east of town, left the first of the week for Celilo, where he will work for the government on river improvement. He expects to be absent all Winter.

F. M. Crabtree, the Laurel hop grower, was over to the city Monday. Mr. Crabtree has several thousand pounds of hops over and above his contract lot, and this will mean good money.

Why buy a steel range from a peddler, and pay him more than you have to pay Emrick & Corwin for a steel range? We can beat their prices here at home if you don't believe us come in and see.

Oliver Huston, son of S B. Huston, who made 100 yards in nine and four-fifths seconds, last Spring, has quit the track, and will enter football this Winter, and play with the University of Oregon baseball team next season.

J. Millar, who conducted a store at Reedville for many years, was in town Monday. Mr. Millar and wife left Wednesday for a Winter visit at South Durban, Quebec, Canada, and the Argus will be with them during their visit.

Calvin Jack Sr., who lived 37 years in the Farmington section, and sold out and left for Portland in 1901 was in town Monday, greeting his county seat friends, and it kept him busy attending to the grips of his large acquaintance.

D McLuchlan, of the P. R & N. returned the last of the week from Portland, where he went to attend the funeral of his wife's mother, Mrs Foster, a highly respected resident of Albion, and who had made her home there for thirty years or more.

Hon. W. H. Wehrung would not accept the compromise offered him by the Portland Livestock Show for his salary, and as a result the funds—constituting the gate receipts—are still held under attachment. Mr. Wehrung, it appears, wants bankable paper, or the money, and if the directors sign as members of the Association it is a question whether or not the banks would take up the paper.

Wm. Reidt, who has made a bushel of money in Portland, buying and selling real estate, was in town Monday, with his usual knock on Hillsboro. Mr. Reidt sold some Main Street property a few years ago and had he glued to it he would have made four or five times to the good on the realty. He sold too soon, and yet, with a handsome concrete building about completed on the property he sold; with a hundred or more residence buildings completed in the last 18 months; with a general improvement everywhere, Billy can't see the old town is going ahead. Billy, Billy!

The Use of Money

The way a man uses money—makes it, saves it, spends it—is perhaps one of the best tests of character. Money should not be regarded as the principal ends of life, nor should it be regarded with contempt, for it represents to a great extent the means of mental and physical comfort.
