FORMER HILLSBORITES WED TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Matthew Madison and Miss Esther Moe, both formerly of this city, now residents of St. Johns, were married October 11, 1909. The groom gained much notoriety a few weeks ago by returning home from Portland, badly beaten, and claiming he had been robbed of several hundred dollars. He was confined to his room for over two weeks and was nursed by Miss Moe, to whom he was to have been married the day on which he alleges he was assaulted and robbed of over $500. Since his recovery he has accounted for the most of the money.

Mr. and Mrs. Madison will reside at St. Johns, where the groom is in the hotel business.

Notice to the Public

Those who wish to subscribe to the Rest Room may leave their donations at the E. L. McCormick Music Store, or with officers of the Rest Room Finance Committee.

Mrs. T. R. Imbrie, Chairman. Mrs. J. P. Tamiesie, Treas. Mrs. H. T. Bagley, Sec.

R. McKnight, who has been living on his place bought from B. O. Thorne, north of town, has bought the C. D. Farnham hopyard of 25 acres, and, with his boys, will conduct the vine crop next season.

L. Hodler, who is farming the Forester estate near Beaverton, was out Tuesday, conferring with the Board of Equalization.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Boge, at Farmington, Saturday evening, October 16, to celebrate their Twentieth wedding anniversary. The parlor was decorated with Oregon grapes and Autumn leaves. The evening was spent in games and music. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Boge were the recipients of many pretty presents. Those in attendance were: Messrs. and Mesdames H. H. Boge, Ed Boge, John Boge, C. C. Emmel, J. W. Jameson; Misses Bessie Withycombe, Mary, Esther and Aetna Emmel, Grace and Effie Clark, Mary Jameson, Anna Boge, Edith Pechin; Messrs. August and Edward Boge, Wm. and Harry Deutschmann, Adrian Kruller and Geo. Withycombe.

Two A1 baseball teams selected from the big National leagues are to play in Portland, October 30 and 31—and Hillsboro is naturally interested because Higganbotham, the old time Hillsboro pitcher, now with the Chicago Cubs, will be on the pitching staff of the All-Stars, an aggregation consisting of the best of the Nationals. As Sunday comes on the last named date more than likely Hillsboro will send a large delegation down to see the best of the ball trimmers in the world, and if "Hig" doesn't get a chance to play, and is kept on the bench, he will be brokenhearted.

Andrew Stewart, son of the late Albert Stewart, returned the first of the week from a summer near Prescott, Wash., running a thresher. While up there he saw Warren Dobbins, an old time Hillsboro boy, who has been doing nicely for himself for several years. From Prescott Stewart went up to Idaho, and from there to the Alberta country, where he saw seather that registered 8 below this fall. This soured him and he made a bee-line for the Willamette Valley.

Miss Macche Langley, of Forest Grove, and a daughter of W. M. Langley and wife, has been admitted to the bar of Oregon and is now a full fledged attorney. Lawyer Langley is well known in the county seat, having attended to her father's practice here for many years. She is a very deserving young woman, and the Argus wishes her every success.

J. R. McNew, who recently bought a place near the Perkins ranch, below Redville, were in the city Tuesday. Mr. McNew will run 200 colonies of bees next year, and says "There's money in the bee business."

When you can buy a 10 quart, 14 quart, or 17 quart diepan for 25 cents you are getting a bargain, so go to Greer's and take advantage of a good thing 30 3

Elder W. J. Johnston, of the Free Methodist Church, will preach in the Evangelical church, Hillsboro, Sunday, Oct. 24, at 3 P. M. All are cordially invited.

Judge Campbell and Court Reporter Runyon were out Monday, and held a short session of circuit court.

Wanted—Parties to clear 15 acres of land. Will pay $40 to $50 per acre.—Fred Haase, 6 miles south of Hillsboro, Cornelius, Ore., Route 2. 32 4

Chas. Bernards, of Cedar Mill, and who is to build a cottage in Portland this Winter, was up from his ranch, Saturday.

August Irmiler, of Cornelius, and who travels for the Mitchell-Staver-Lewis people, was down to the county seat Tuesday.

Chas. Matthes, of near Laurel, was in town Tuesday. While in the city he met N. P. Oakerman, of Beaverton, for whom he worked 30 years ago.

Teas at cost—that sounds good, eh? At Wyatt & Co's. Saturday only.

Peter Jossy, of near West Union, was an Argus caller yesterday. The United tune only a little over a mile north of his ranch.

H. Basford, of near Farmington, was in the city yesterday afternoon and called on the Argus.

Do not forget that Greer keeps all kinds of field seeds. 29 1f

COFFEE CLUB MAKES OVER TWO HUNDRED

Public Gives Comedy-Drama a Splendid Support

LOCAL TALENT IN EXCELLENT PLAY

All Characters Were Well Depicted, and Play a Great Success

The entertainment at the Crescent Friday and Saturday evenings for the Rest Room Fund was well patronized and as a result the fund nucleus is now $208.30, realized from the public support and some donations. The play was well staged and the characters well represented, and it was voted one of the best local talent endeavors ever attempted in the city. Chas. Lamain, as Harold Rutledge, the young New Yorker, who fell in love with Hetty Holcomb, represented by Miss Olive Landess, sustained his lines finely, and Miss Landess, as the heroine, gave excellent satisfaction. W. W. Boscow, as the old farmer, Silas Holcomb, was the hit of the play, and if anyone thinks Mr. Boscow is slow on comedy that one is badly mistaken. Miss Myrtle Butler, as Liza Ann Tucker, Miss Letitia Imbrie, as Verbena, the hired girl, and Ronald Vaught, the clock tinker, the three real comedy characters in the play, had the audience from the start, and their work was really extremely clever. P. R. Cooper carried the lines of the New York lawyer exceptionally well; Oscar Lund, as the "son of the soil," was good, Miss Josephine Follett, as Miss Carney, the aristocrat, sustained her part well; Miss Mary Heidel, as Mrs. Rutledge, mother of the hero, neatly depicted the proud New England woman who assumed that her family was the whole thing, and everything else nothing, and Miss Shaw, as the old maid sister of Silas, was worth while in every respect.

The tableaux depicting ancient days were well staged. Miss Leonora Shaw monologued the scenes, and her class would respond as an accompaniment to the text. N. H. Alexander made a great Daniel, and Cal. Jack Jr. as Belshazzar was all that could be wished for in an Oriental ruler. Their supports, consisting of about 80 young people, did their exercises nicely. Altogether, it was a very creditable entertainment and worthy of the financial support received.

The character work of the Misses Grace Emmott, Minnie Morrill, Vesta McFee, Lucy Weathered, Lucile Imbrie, Maude Griffith, Mattie Wilson and Hope Emmott, as Maids of Honor, in support of the principals, added largely to the presentation of the tableaux, and the solos by Messrs. N. H. Alexander and Fred Vrooman were rendered in fine voice.

When? Friday night, Oct. 29. Where? At the Christian Church. What? An unique evening's program on the subject of "Mother, Home and Heaven." Program consists of short addresses, recitations, and songs illustrated by the stereopticon. This will be great. Watch for program next week Admission, 15 and 25 cents. This will be worth many times the price of admission. Don't fail to come.
