M. L. Howell, who resided at Beaverton for a few years, and who has been driving a street wagon to the city of Portland, was struck by a car, last Friday evening, on Williams Avenue. Mr. Howell was driving one of the big brushers when the car struck his sweep, smashing it to splinters. Clark had been told by Robinson to keep out of the barn but went to the stable to feed a team which he was driving. Robinson claims he was struck by a milking stool, and exhibited a bad looking head in corroboration. Robinson says the injury to his head must have resulted as a collision with the manger. He cheerfully paid the cash for his experience.

A deputy game warden saw the plume fall and promptly arrested the young soldier. He thereupon told who gave him the decoration with the result that Oscar paid Justice Wirtz $25 for killing the bird out

The Use of Money

The way a man uses money—makes it, saves it, spends it—is perhaps one of the best tests of character.

Money should not be regarded as the principal end of life, nor should it be regarded with contempt, for it represents to a great extent the means of mental and physical comfort.

The finest qualities of human nature are related to the right use of money—generosity, honesty, justice and self sacrifice.

A little self sacrifice, a saving account with this bank, and a determination to use your money right (by saving it) will soon accumulate a snug balance to your credit.

We pay four per cent on savings and time certificates.
