W. W. Wright, who has been manager of the Pacific States Telephone here for an extended period, has resigned his position and will travel for a Portland wholesale house. Mr. Wright has made many friends here by his straightforward business methods, and the patrons of the office regret his resignation.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AFTER REDUCTION

Insists That its Trackage is Assessed too High

WANTS CUT OF OVER ONE HALF Board of Equalization Listens to Complaint

The Southern Pacific representative was out last week and had his saying before the board of equalization. The company alleges that its assessment of the Yamhill division, running past Sherwood and Middleton, value of $17,500 per mile, is illegal and disproportionate, and that it should be assessed no higher than $7,000 per mile; and that the valuation of $21,500 on the West Side division, running past Hillsboro and Forest Grove, is also too high, and wants it reduced to $8,000 per mile.

The board has taken no official action as yet upon the petitions, and will not until perhaps next week. The company also filed a petition, asking that its lands be reduced from an assessment of $8.43 per acre to $4 per acre, but after the agent of the company had compared the other assessments he was apparently satisfied, and will not press for this reduction.

ARCADE GRANGE FAIR

Washington Grange No. 313 will hold its annual fair at the Arcade school house on November 6, 1909, and exhibits will be on display covering all kinds of production, such as fruits, vegetables, grains, grasses, etc., beside all kinds of art work, needle work, and all that goes to make the demonstration a success. This Grange always has a splendid fair, and is open to all who feel inclined to exhibit. Dinner will be served at the noon hour. The school is located three miles from Glencoe. Everybody is invited. Come and have a good time.

Mrs. Sarah Harvey, Secretary

JOHNSON—FRANK

The home of Mr. and Mrs Samuel Johnson, prominent residents of Shady Brook, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, October 27, 1909, when his son, Oliver S Johnson and Miss Marguerite Frank were united in marriage, Rev. F. V. Fisher, of the Hillsboro M. E. Church officiating. About twenty five relatives and friends were in attendance and a splendid wedding dinner was served. The young couple received many beautiful wedding gifts. They will reside on a farm near the scene of the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bridges, of Hillsboro, were in attendance at the ceremony.

MILK COWS FOR SALE

Twenty head of milk cows and heifers for sale, cheap. Will be fresh soon.—L. Kahler, Gates Creek, post office, Banks, Ore., Route 1.

Raymond Wessott, a lad in his teens, is charged with beating a cow, Harlan Kelley, of above Glencoe, being the prosecuting witness. The lad will appear before Judge Barnes Nov. 8.

Fred Scheckla, about 20 years of age, pleaded guilty before Justice Barnes, Saturday, to killing a China hen. Young Scheckla said he heard a rooster crow back of the barn, and grabbed a gun and went after it. The bird rose and the lad banged away. When he picked up the bird he found it was a hen. He started to the house with it and was confronted by Deputy game warden J. D. Wirth, who preferred the charge. The boy was fined $25, but if the case had gone to a jury it is doubtful if a conviction would have been secured. It was early in the morning when the bird was killed and her henship had the longest tail ever seen on the female bird. The young fellow says he thought there was no doubt of the hen being a rooster—and even Deputy District Attorney Tongue admits that the causal appendage of the bird placed in evidence was the longest he had ever seen on the female.

Call at the South Hillsboro greenhouse and see my plants, bleeding hearts, prairie lilies, and bulbs of all kinds. Rose bushes and shrubbery, cheap. Two year old roses at 25 cents each. Everything else cheap for cash. Cut flowers for funerals or decorative purposes.—Mrs. Agnes Campbell, Corner 7th & Fir. Ind. Telephone, 1154

The Pacific Grain Company, of Portland, has sued to have the lands of the estate of the late Hon. T. H. Tongue partitioned and sold so that the estate may be divided among the heirs. The suit has been filed in the Portland courts. The Tongue estate consists of several hundred acres of valuable Washington County lands—which have increased largely in value in the last few years. The estate has been fully administered and the bondsmen of the administrators discharged. E. B. Tongue and F. F. Freeman were the administrators. The Pacific Grain Company is controlled by Gay Lombard, who is married to Mary, one of the heirs of the estate, and the wife has transferred her interest.

Suits cleaned and pressed promptly. Also suits to order. All work guaranteed. Upstairs, next to postoffice.—August Tows, the Tailor. 10-1f

While Sheriff Hancock was driving past the ball ground the other day, accompanied by Claud Whitmore, one of the singletree broke and the horse commenced kicking. One of the horse's feet struck the officer where Stanley Ketchel should have kicked the negro. Jack Johnson, as he is called, to win his fight, and as a result Mr. Hancock was laid up for a day or so. The wound went clear to the bone, and shook up the marrow—and there'll be no more footracing around the sheriff's office for a few days.

For sale at $1.50 each—24 Angora Nannies, fine stock—F. M. Crabtree, Laurel, Oregon. Ind. Telephone 2559 Hillsboro—Laurel line. 30-1f

G. J. Palmateer, wife and daughter, Miss Neva, are at present in Bronson, Michigan. Mr. Palmateer writes the Argus that they had now there on the 12th and 13th, and that mercury stood 6 below freezing, with cold ever since. He says: "After all I like Oregon the best. We have never missed a copy of the paper since we left. We leave for California, via New Orleans, some time in November." Mr. Palmateer wrote under date of the 22nd, and said it was snowing at that time.

M. Cantwell, of above Mountindale, has sold his land and timber to Bishop Brothers, who have swamilled in the county for a number of years. They will move their mill to the new location this winter, and start sawing in the Spring. Mr. Cantwell may take a notion to locate here after a trip over the Northwest.

Clau' G. Gear, formerly with the Climax Mill, and now residing at Corvallis, was down Tuesday, seeking medical aid for a pair of badly inflamed eyes. A Corvallis physician told him he had the regular "pinkies," a disease common to horses. Dr. A. B. Bailey, who is attending the optics, says it is not of that genus.

Roy Hollenbeck, who has been engaged in the warehouse business at Roy, for some time, and who a short time ago sold to W. Skene, who is now in the flour and feed and warehouse drill, at that point, was over from Manor, Wash., and called on the Argus Monday evening.

Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was in the city Tuesday. Notwithstanding he has yet found no heirs to the estate of the Bethany blacksmith, Schaefer, who suicided. It begins to look as though the estate will escheat to the state of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stohler, of East Hillsboro, returned last evening from a six weeks' sojourn in New York and the East, visiting relatives. They report a pleasant trip.

Marriage license has been granted Wm. Walker and Viola Meyers; and Geo. L. Newman and Rose Henry.
