Administrator's Notice

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been, by an order of the County Court made and entered on the 11th day of November, A. D. 1909, appointed Administrator of the Estate of Daniel Herron, Deceased, and all persons having claims against said Estate, are hereby notified to present the same, together with the proper vouchers therefor, to the undersigned, at his place of residence near Tualatin, Oregon, or at the law office of Thos. H. Tongue, Jr., in Hillsboro, Oregon, on or before six months from the date hereof. Dated this 28th day of October, A. D. 1909. LEWIS M. HERREN, Administrator. Thos. H. Tongue, Jr., Attorney.

Robt. Simpson Jr., of Buxton, just in his teens, is more than likely to rival the famous Wright brothers if his serial inclinations follow in the law of progression. A few days ago the lad was riding the family Dobbin, and he concluded to ride the animal across a ninety foot trestle on the P. R. & N. above Buxton. He succeeded in getting the horse on the bridge but before it had gone many steps all four feet went through between the ties. The boy summoned help and after three shoes had been pulled off and much Jack Johnson and Jim Jeffries muscle had been wasted they succeeded in getting the quinse back on terra firma. Young Simpson then concluded that he had graduated as a high wire performer and mounted his animal and went home via the route of good Old Mother Earth.

Why buy a steel range from a peddler, and pay him more than you have to pay Emrick & Corwin for a steel range? We can beat their prices here at home if you don't believe us come in and see.

J. R. Beagle, of Alaska, was in the city the last of the week, joining his wife, who has been here throughout the Summer. Mr. Beagle is an oldtime newspaper man, and at one time was foreman on the Independent. From here he went to St. Helens, where he published the Mist, now edited by E. H. Flagg, formerly of Hillsboro, and while at St. Helens Mr. Beagle graduated into politics sufficient to get an Alaskan appointment in the customs service, which he has held with credit and profit to himself for several years. Mrs. Beagle and her mother, Mrs. Willie, who spent the summer here, returned north with Mr. Beagle.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the G and Marco, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

W. H. Reiling, of East Hillsboro, has ripe raspberries for table use these days, and he has sent some of them, carefully packed, to his father, Martin Reiling, who is visiting in the East—just to show Eastern people, that while they are having snow and cold, Oregon people have the gifts of the gods showered on them. And yet, there are people who think Oregon isn't in it.

David Wenger, of Helvetia, was in the first of the week, and says the wet weather has cut down the working force of the United considerably, but that the foremen in charge hope, with any kind of decent weather, to get the grade into Glenooc by Christmas. If there is too much rainfall, however, this will be practically impossible, as there is much heavy work yet in the Helvetia section.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Re-b departed from the E. E. Schmeltzer home for Los Angeles, Monday, and Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Skoels, guests at the same place, returned Sunday to their home in Seaside. The ladies are daughters of the Schmeltzers, and the Rees have been visiting here for several weeks.

John W. Connell, F. T. Kane, Ward Downs and Chas. Koonits left Tuesday morning for a two days' trip over in the Nehalem, after salmon trout. They went by train to Buxton and then to Timber by team, sent out of Hillsboro.

W. E. McCourt, owner of the Holly Farm, and who takes to ranching like a duck to the Tualatin, was in town Saturday. W. E. is preparing to register a fine colt, whose dam is Snowbird, one of the best colt producers out of the Tongue string a few years ago.

Contractor Moore has so far completed the Pythian building that the Knights of Pythias have given up the Wehrung building as a place of meeting and will occupy their new castle hall, either Monday evening, or the next following.

A. A. Walker, of Scoggin Valley, was down Monday, on irrigation business with County Surveyor Morrill. As mentioned in last week's Argus, Mr. Walker will irrigate extensively next season.

G. B. Tompkins, who farms up on the hills above Glenooc, and whose place can be seen from almost any section in the county, west of Reedville, was in town Saturday.

Vincent Sedlak, who years ago lived northwest of town, and who now makes his home at Tualatin, was in town Saturday, a guest at the Thos. Green and Ludema Anderson homes.

Fred Goetze and Toni Sinsay, of the Iowa Hill section, were Argus callers Saturday. They report the ground wet enough to plow up their way.

The undersigned will go to private houses and do plain sewing for $1.25 per day and board - Mrs. Henriette Stohler, Hillsboro, Route 1, Box 189 Pacific States Phone, Farmers' Line 288. 38 E

The Use of Money

The way a man uses money—makes it, saves it, spends it—is perhaps one of the best tests of character. Money should not be regarded as the principal ends of life, nor should it be regarded with contempt, for it represents to a great extent the means of mental and physical comfort.

The finest qualities of human nature are related to the right use of money—generosity, honesty, justice and self sacrifice.

A little self sacrifice, a saving account with this bank, and a determination to use your money right (by saving it) will soon accumulate a snug balance to your credit.

We pay four per cent on savings and time certificates.
