Murderer: Finch is to be hanged inasmuch as Gov. Benson refuses to commute to a life sentence. Justice does not always miscarry in the Northwest, and Finch gets his deserts.

Our poor befuddled contemporary, the Independent, still sings its mournful wail, and cries about "muddling." Keep it up, brother—every community must have its newspaper clown.

The Portland milk demand is what appears to be the matter with the milk shortage in Washington County. Readers have perhaps noticed that the assessor tells you we have as many cows this year as we did last year. What we need is more cows if we are to supply the growing demands of our markets.

Youngsters who go out of the way to destroy property should take warning. Franks and Hal-low'en are not always valid excuses. City Attorney Bagley's lecture of some young fellows did a world of good. Others who did not come under the huc ure class went out and corrected their work, which is some gratification. Next year we shall perhaps have a sane Hal-low'en.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHINGTON.

Charity H. Niedermeyer, Plaintiff, vs. Austin N. Hamblin, Defendant.

To Austin N. Hamblin: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the expiration of six (6) weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: On or about Thursday, the 23rd day of December, 1909; and if you so fail to answer the plaintiff for want thereof, will take judgment against you for a decree declaring the marriage entered into between you and the plaintiff at Portland, Oregon, on the 23rd day of May, 1898, to be null and void, and of no legal effect from the beginning, and not binding on the plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the Court seems meet and just.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable J. Wesley Goodin, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington, and said order was made and dated on the 10th day of November, 1909, in the absence of the Circuit Judge from Washington County, and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 23rd day of December, 1909.

Arnold's Plantation, A Colored Musical Comedy in 3 Acts.

The only one ever seen on this coast. Special scenery, elaborate wardrobe, introducing the latest southern songs, quartets and choruses.

Where ever this company has appeared there is only room for stoop hangers. When these colored joy-jokers commence sending their wireless messages across the foot lights it holds the crowds spellbound and in wonderment, and has made many a person wonder how colored people could be so great. It makes them all sit up and take notice. One of the greatest of musical comedies—Did you ever see and hear a Colored Musical Comedy? If not, go see it.

Watch and wait for us, if you see it, you will be one walking advertisement for the Greatest Colored Show on Earth. It is one "bully good doings," and if you miss it, you are missing something "salubrious." Dont forget the date.
