

THE NEW DEERE

The farmer who buys either the New Deere Gang or Sulky Flow gets absolutely the finest, most servicable implement of its kind ever produced. Before buying such a tool you'll want to know how it's built, how it works and what it will do for you. As to quality of the material and workmanship the name Deere on it is a sufficient guarantee for you on those points. For ease of operation and light draft the New Deere will be a happy surprise to you. The many new features which enable the operator to do work with it he never could do before, with a sulky or gang plow, are marvels of simplicity and effectiveness. It takes a whole book and a lot of illustrations to explain them all, and we know you will want to read the book.

J. E. BORWICK

"The Meanest Thing in Hillsboro! What is it?" This will be the theme Sunday night at the Christian Church. The pastor is asking very many this question. Many answers are given. Don't fail to hear these answers and the sermon that will follow. It will be highly interesting. Come early and get a seat. "They're all coming." The morning theme will be: "The Supreme Gift." Bib's school sings for 150 in attendance Sunday. The men are ahead in the contest.

C. M. Robinson, the contractor who failed to finish the M. E. Church, last year, the building having been completed by his bondsmen, has been arrested in Portland for swearing to the Union Guarantee Association that he was worth as much as his bond. Robinson threw up the work and it cost the association only $3,240 to finish the contract. The trial will take place Dec. 22, and the real charge is obtaining "money under false pretense."

Frank Muger, of East Oak Street, and who returned from North and South Dakota, week before last, says the two Dakotas had a fine wheat crop this season, and that nearly all vegetables were fair, except the potato crop, which was only a fair average. Dakota, he says, are now raising more clover than ever, and the old fallacy that it could not be produced in that dry country has been exploded.

Editor Klancke, of the Forest Grove Press, was in town Friday, in the interests of his paper, the first issue of which appeared last week. The Press shows a pretty fair advertising list for an infant, and if the venture keeps up its present level of business it will be able to make its weekly call with out stress or trouble.

W. P. Quinlan, of Grants Pass, was in town the last of the week, looking over this section with a possible view of locating. While in this section he was the guest of J. T. Morrison, of near Farmington, and with whom he was acquainted down in Southern Oregon.

Van DeLashmutt, the old time Portlander, and who was Mayor of that city in its strenuous days, was up from his Witch Hazel ranch, Saturday. Van is now interested in Spokane property, and is making good in the Inland Empire metropolis.

George Kirkwood, who until 28 years ago drove locomotives on Eastern railroads, and who still thinks he would like to pull the throttle once in a while, was down from Forest Grove, Friday and Saturday.

Dr. C. H. Raffety and wife of Portland, and who have just returned from a trip to Europe, came out Friday evening, and were met by Jacob Raffety, who conveyed them to Mountaindale, where they spent Sunday at the old home.

Why buy a steel range from a peddler, and pay him more than you have to pay Emrick & Corwin for a steel range? We can beat their prices here at home. If you don't believe us come in and see.

C. V. McKinney, a Baker County stockman, and who recently brought down a shipment of beef for the union stock yards, Portland, came out the last of the week, and was the guest of W. V. Wiley.

The Schiller—a 10 cent cigar, and the G and Marco, a two for a quarter cigar, are what you want when you buy a cigar. Kept at every bar in Hillsboro. Ask for them.

Rural mail carriers are all agreed that the roads are getting mighty muddy and slippery these days and some of them who have long routes are very late in getting back to Hillsboro.

Mrs. Mary Walker, of East Hillsboro, is very ill, and her children have been notified. A daughter, Mrs. Waite, has telegraphed that she has started for Hillsboro.

Just follow the crowd to Nelson's Second Street barber shop—the only four chair shop in Washington County. Always four men on Saturday. 22.1

J. W. Vandervelden, the Roy merchant, and who has been located there since the P. R. & N. was built through that section, is in the city Monday.

Eugene Schiller, once a railroad city engineer, and who owns a place down on the Beaverton mountain, was in town Tuesday, and called on the Argus.

Wm. Schulmerich, who has a reputation all over the state as a breeder of Jersey cattle, was in the city from his Farmington ranch, Saturday.

F. M. Crabtree was in from Laurel Friday. He has finished plow drying and delivered his hope, and can take it easy until Spring.

Hon. G. W. Marsh, of Centerville, was in town Friday. G. W. says he sees improvement in the old town every time he visits us.

Ge. W. Sitt, of Beaverton, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Sitt is one of the oldtimers of Beaverton.

Jasper Keffler, of near Glencoe, was in town Tuesday, getting ready for plowing if the rains ever cease.

R. DeGunia, of Cornelius, was in town Tuesday.

The Use of Money

The way a man uses money—makes it, saves it, spends it—is perhaps one of the best tests of character.

Money should not be regarded as the principal ends of life, nor should it be regarded with contempt, for it represents to a great extent the means of mental and physical comfort.

The finest qualities of human nature are related to the right use of money—generosity, honesty, justice and self sacrifice.

A little self sacrifice, a saving account with this bank, and a determination to use your money right (by saving it) will soon accumulate a snug balance to your credit.

We pay four per cent on savings and time certificates.
