VOL. XVI.

HILLSBORO, OREGON, NOV. 18, 1909

NO. 36

BOARD OF TRADE OFFERS CASH PRIZE

Will Give Ten Dollars First Prize, for Apples

FIVE DOLLARS FOR SECOND PRIZE

Washington County Should be Able to Put up Fine Exhibit

There will be a state exhibit of apples in the Mc'er & Frank building, Portland, Dec. 6-8, and the Hillsboro Board of Trade has donated a $10 cash prize for the best exhibit from Washington County and a $5 cash prize for the second best display. The only condition or string is that the product must be from this county. This generous donation should be a sufficient incentive to make some of our apple producers sit up and take notice. Hillsboro is the only town in the county which has offered a cash prize, and, as we have many growers who are raising as fine apples as can be found in the world, there should be a fine representation in the Rose City.

Homer C. Atwell, president of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, writes N. H. Alexander, secretary of the Board, as follows:

"My Dear Sir: I was very glad to receive yours of the 9th inst. informing me that your organization will give $10 for the best box of apples grown in Washington County and $5 for the next best, and fruit to be exhibited at our annual meeting in Portland, December 6-8. I regret that your information did not reach me in time for your order to appear with the others in the press notices, and I would suggest that you cause your offer to appear in all the county papers, as well as in the Portland press. If the apple growers of the county are made acquainted with your offer I am sure they will respond, and it will be a good advertisement for your enterprising city."

BANKRUPT SALE

Bids will be received by the undersigned at Hillsboro, Oregon, for the property of John P. Applin and Samuel Applin situated near Dilley, Oregon. This consists of a two thirds interest in the farm of the late Joseph P. Applin, being about 20.50 acres improved land with buildings. Bids will be received up to December 1st, 1909. Bids and sale subject to confirmation by the U. S. District Court.

Edw. C. Luce
Trustee in Bankruptcy.

Leave orders for cream at Greer's store.

R. H. Walker, of near Beaverton, was in town Monday.

Tilt Kenney Shoes for men are the kind that wear—ask Baird.

Wm. Hanson, of Scholls, was in the city Friday, and called on the Argus.

A. F. Gritzmacher and wife, of Ore. ex., were in the county seat Saturday.

W. J. Ingram, of near Farmington, was in town Saturday, accompanied by his wife.

A. J. Killen, of Thatcher, was in town Monday afternoon. He says the freeze was very heavy up his way Sunday night.

E. Wenstrom, of Scholls, was in the city Monday afternoon. Mr. Wenstrom says he is very much pleased to see the town's improvement of the past year.

J. M. Bridges is busy parking the court yard and A. P. Luther is plowing the sod. This is the first time in many years, that the yard has been turned over.

The frost of Sunday and Monday caused some people to shiver—but Easterners think nothing of it. They say that back in the East they have many times hushed corn barnyard with weather much colder.

I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, one cow in milk, and one pony, on Main Street, opposite the Main Street Livery, at 1:30 p. m., on Saturday, Nov. 27, 1909.—B. F. Cornelius, Auctioneer.

Manager Kinser, of the Pacific Condenser at Forest Grove, was here Tuesday, and brought the welcome news that the Hillsboro factory would open December 1. He states that the P. C. people are paying $1.80 per cwt. for milk the last half of the current month.

The Hillsboro Reed & Cornet band has received 36 new pieces of music, and the boys are meeting for practice every Sunday in the Picnicer's Hall. By Spring, the boys expect to have an entirely new repertoire and under the leadership of Chas. Parker, will turn out an classy music as any organization in the Willamette Valley.

We now have a good supply of good hard burned brick, and building blocks for cellars and foundations. Try our building blocks for your house foundations. Cheaper than cement or brick and better protection against frost. We have finished our run of large tile and are again running on smaller sizes, and have a fair supply at the yard. Parties wanting tile delivered should place their orders now so we can haul them before bad weather. There is always a rush of hauling orders in the Fall when roads are almost impassable. We have a good supply of rough and dressed lumber at our mill, and a quantity of common lumber at the Hare spur, below Newton, the latter to sell at a sacrifice—2x12, 2x8, 2x6, 2x4, 1x10, 1x8, 1x6 and 1x4 of various lengths. This is all good dry stock, and it will pay you to investigate should you want any of these dimensions—Greener & Rowell Co., Scholls, Hillsboro, R. 2.

Margaret Gilliland Hutchison, who died at her home northwest of Glencoe, Nov. 9, 1909, was born in Holmes Co., Ohio, Oct. 24, 1830. She moved with her parents to Iowa in 1838. She was converted to the church in early life and was a devoted Christian until death. She married David Hutchison July 4, 1850, in Jefferson, Iowa. Nine children were born to the union, seven still surviving: Archibald Hutchison, Yamhill, Ore.; Irvin, James, Marion and Anderson, of Cornelius, Route 1; Alta May, of Portland, and Sarah May, of Hillsboro. All the children were present at the deathbed. Funeral services were conducted by Jephtha C. Garigus, of Banks, Ore.

Ed. Baker, who shot himself through the hand at Portland, last week, says the dance and horse raffle at Buxton, Saturday night, given by him, was well attended and a financial success. Edith Hathorn, a Hillsboro young lady, won the horse. Mr. Baker desires to thank those who bought numbers, and says that when young people want a good time they should come to Buxton. He desires especially to thank the lumbermen and loggers who assisted the affair financially.

Attorney Chas. J. Schnabel, of Portland, and C. Bircher, administrator of the estate of Fritz Biedermann, deceased, were out Friday, and sold 40 acres of land on the west side of Cooper Mountain, to Hedwig Smith, the sale price being $1,050. There is said to be several hundred cords of wood on the place, but the land is very rough. The property was originally appraised at $1,400.

C. F. Bunsen, of the Argus, and J. Knight, who is on the Bunsen place, near Rood's Bridge, have extensively gone into the pigeon business, and will raise squabs for the Portland market. They already have 230 of the birds at the farm, and expect another consignment soon. The birds were bought from the homer farm at McMinnville.

C. F. Brown, of Greenville, was in town Saturday, enroute home from Portland, where he was at the bedside of Mrs. Brown, who was recently operated on by a surgeon. Mrs. Brown is rapidly convalescing, and will soon be able to return to her home. The patient is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bradley, of this city.

Cornelius Camp, Woodman of the World, will give a Masquerade Ball on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 24. Music by Toelle's orchestra, Portland. Tickets, $1.00. Spectators, 25 cents. Oyster supper, extra. All are invited.

Edward Newbegin, secretary and manager for the R. M. Wade & Co., Portland, wholesale dealers in farm implements and machinery, was in the city Monday and Tuesday, calling on Connell & Co., the firm handling their lines.

The freeze has not injured potatoe in the ground—and there are yet hundreds of acres undug. It was thought at first that the freeze might have done damage in this regard but the fears were unfounded.

L. C. Kinser, of near Glencoe, was in town Saturday. Mr. Kinser, who came here from Texas a year or so ago, and bought near the Scotch Church, thinks this section beats the Texas country considerably.

Customers at Emmott Bros. may get a beautiful China Dinner Set, free. See their window display, and ask them how you can get one.

Hon. Benj. Scholfield, of Cornelius, and who served many years as one of the Monmouth Normal regents, was in the county seat Saturday.

The pure white flour is the best on earth. $1.50 per sack. At Greer's.

CHAS. BURNHAM HAS A NEW STUNT

Has Another Escapade, Stealing Rabbits From Home

SELLS THE BUNNIES IN PORTLAND

Inscrutable Youth Leaves Horse and Soggy in Town

Chas. Burnham, a youth about 20 years of age, and who has had several registries in the Washington County jail, is again an applicant for the honors of the baffle. He was given his freedom but a few weeks ago, and it was thought that it would be some time before he would again be a candidate for imprisonment. The other day he took the Burnham horse and buggy, stole his foster-mother's rabbits and hid to Portland. Arriving in the city he sold the bunnies, put up the horse, and let it remain there without notifying his foster parents. What young Burnham needs is a place where he can work off his fervor and at Salem they have a place admirable for him. Let one in penitence appear to do him no benefit and as fast as he gets out of one scrape he falls into another.

BOX SOCIAL

Friday night, Nov. 19th, at the Grange Hall, the Endeavorers of the Christian Church will give an entertainment followed by a box social. Ladies are all invited to bring baskets, or boxes, with enough supper for two. Boxes will be sold to the highest bidder. Gentlemen come and buy boxes. Most of the proceeds will go toward the new church, and gymnasium room for the boys, to be built near the Church. Help out a worthy enterprise. A fine social time is assured. Come at 8 o'clock.

UNIQUE RECORD

Mary Josephine Carlson sues John E. Carlson for divorce, and her complaint sets out that they were married in Vancouver, Wash., in May, 1908, and upon being advised the ceremony was illegal, again married in Portland, last February. On Nov. 2, Carlson sued for divorce in Portland, alleging a statutory offense. On Nov. 11, he dismissed the suit, and on Nov. 13, Mrs. Carlson sues out here, asking divorce and a resume of her maiden name, Turnbridge. For a compilation of events this has the belt.

OLD TIMER VISITS

Frank Hausman, aged 81 years, came down from North Yamhill, Monday, to see the historic town after 35 years of absence. He says he had no idea that there were so many changes, and he says that he saw but very few of his old friends—the late Robt. Imbrie, Steve Scoggins, and Isaac Smith, not to mention "Uncle Ben" Cornelius, who was a boon companion. The last time he visited Hillsboro was in 1875, when a fine county fair was always an annual feature. Mr. Hausman owns considerable property around North Yamhill.

BIG WHEAT PRIZE

Several threehermen from this county will attend annual convention on December 2 and 3 at The Dalles. There is a prize offer of $200 for the best bushel of wheat grown in the state, offered by Philip Bates, secretary of the association. Judges in this contest have been named as follows: Prof. E. D. Scudder, agronomist at the Oregon Agricultural College, and J. W. Ganong, vice-president of the Portland Flouring Mills. Addresses of note are on the program. Prof. Phil R. Roe, Madison, Wis., will lecture on the use of gasoline power on the farm, and Byron Hunter, of the Department of Agricultural, Washington, D. C., will speak on selection of seed wheat and the organization of seed growers' association. The government good roads work will be represented and other speakers will tell of the threshing industry in this state. The business men of The Dalles will give the threehermen a banquet at The Dalles hotel.

Ben Perkins was out from Portland Sunday afternoon.

Alfred Guerber, of Helvetia, was in Monday, greeting his many friends in the county seat. Mr. Guerber is still in the cheese business, but says he hasn't time to send down an exhibit to the state meeting.

Fresh home made bread for sale at Pope's depot store.

Joe. Cawree, North Plains hopman, was in town Saturday.

Watch for Nelson's barber shop local next week.

Ed. Northrup, of Shady Brook, was in town Saturday.

Beautiful pictures at Baird's for 89c with every $2.00 purchase.

J. H. Dorland, of Shady Brook, was in the city Saturday afternoon.

Try our new flour—the pure white, $1.50 per sack, at Greer's.

Stanley Hahn, of near Mountaineers, was in the city the last of the week.

Fred Rood, the Rood's Bridge hopgrower, was in the county seat Friday.

P. I. Lilligard, the Laurel hopgrower, was in town Saturday afternoon.

Jake Smith, farming near Glencoe, for several years, was in town Saturday.

George Leonen, of Vinelands, was down to the city Tuesday, and called on the Argus.

Herman Schulmerich, with Wade & Co., Portland, was out Sunday, the guest of relatives.

Dr. Guy Vis, of Forest Grove, now practicing at Buxton, was in town the last of the week.

John Carrico, late of Missouri, and now teaching at Gaston, was an Argus caller Saturday.

Snow for the first time was visible in the Coast Range of mountains between here and Tillamook, Saturday morning.

J. E. Borwick, who recently bought out the Frank interest in the Frank & Borwick store, was in the city Saturday.

Frank Lichty, Cedar Mill, W. J. Lichty, West Union, and Perry Gardner and family, of Quatama, were in town Friday.

Nathan Noland, of Cornelius, and who knows all the old timers here since early in the fifties, was down to the city Friday.

Do not forget the dance Saturday evening, November 27, 1909, at W. O. W. Hall, Glencoe. Tickets, $1, including supper. Toelle's orchestra.

H. W. Scott, who deals in timber lands and is one of the reliable timber cruisers of the West County, was in the city from Forest Grove, Saturday.

J. W. York, of south of Reedville, was in town Saturday, the first time since the carnival. He says it is too wet in his section for much general farming.

A carload of genuine newly manufactured Hercules stumping powder, made by the E. I. Dupont de Nemours Co., of San Francisco, just received. Both telephones.—J. E. Borwick, Reedville, Ore.

Brakesman Kaudson, who was injured at the P. R. & N. gate a few days ago, is getting along nicely, and will soon be able to again take his run on the Oregon Electric.

A. C. Winney, who has painted all Summer on the North Plains and in this city, has suspended operations for the Winter, and is now on his ranch for the Winter, north of Glencoe.

Shooting match: There will be a shooting match at the Louis Stohler place, on the Jasper Gravel farm, 3 1/2 miles northeast of Hillsboro, on Sunday, Nov. 21, 1909. Forty turkeys and lot chickens. Commence at 1:30 p. m.

Hon. W. N. Barrett was at Albany, Saturday evening, attending the meeting of the Mystic Shrine, which assembled in the Linn County city in number of about 600. There was a big parade, and a class initiation of over 50. He returned Sunday morning.

Gus Kemper returned the last of the week from his trip to Eastern Oregon, going as far as Silver Lake. He says they were still threshing and outting grain in the Redman district, above Prineville, and that he encountered some snow up that way. Fred Heidel went on to the Klamath county, and Geo. Gibson, well known here, who went with them, returned to Portland with Mr. Kemper.

Freddie Hill, son of Fred Hill, who formerly conducted the Quimby House, in Portland, lost a finger on the Forest Grove campus, last Thursday evening, while handling a gopher gun, that the janitor had set on the grounds. The youngster found the gun set in a gopher hole and poked it up, when the discharge badly mutilated two fingers. Dr. Brown found it necessary to amputate the index digit. The young lad withstood the amputation like a Spartan. There were a number of people on the archery course when the accident took place.

COUNTY GROWERS GET SEATTLE AWARDS

Washington County Pu's out a Few Premiums

EDW. NAYLOR FIRST ON MOHAIK

Oregon Nursery Company Gets Gold Medal on Nut Exhibit

While it is deplorable that Washington County did not have a general exhibit at the Alaska Fair there is some consolation in the fact that we had growers who put in individual exhibits and won some premiums. It is much more to our credit, however, for it is much harder to get individual awards than when an exhibit goes in as a collection. The awards reaching Washington County are as follows:

Edward L. Naylor, Forest Grove, gold medal for Mohair.
Barnett Y. Roe, honorable mention, red chaff wheat.
Oregon Nursery Co., Hillsboro, nuts, gold medal.
L. E. Lilly, Forest Grove, apples, silver medal.
D. G. Lilly, Forest Grove, apples, bronze medal.
Peter Zuercher, Beaverton, apples, bronze medal.
J. C. Martinassi, Tualatin, apples, bronze medal.
W. K. Newell, Dilley, apples, honorable mention.

MAMMOTH SHOOTING MATCH

There will be a big shoot match at Oak Park on Sunday, Nov. 21, beginning at 8 o'clock in the morning. One hundred turkeys and 50 geese will be the trophies and there will be both rifle and shotgun shooting. Blue rocks will be shot for the birds, and there will be a special cash prize for the person shooting the most blue rocks out of a possible fifty. There will be two sets of traps—one for the boys and one for adults. Lunch will be served on the grounds. Take Oregon Electric car for Oak Park, a mile west of town. Also raffle. W. H. Taylor & Herbert Miller.

Two Hundred String Rally

Sunday, Nov. 21, at 10 o'clock, at the Christian Church, there will be held one of the very greatest Sunday School and Church Rallies ever held in that historic church. The mark has been set for 200 in the Bible school. The motto: "The Whole Church and as Many more in the Bible School." The pastor will give a sermon talk on "Strings! Strings!" Each person is to bring a string as long as he or she is tall. These strings will be used in the talk. This will be at 11 o'clock. Don't miss it. Children's day program at 7:30 p. m.

BEAVERTON FRUIT MEN

The annual meeting of the Beaverton Fruit Growers' Association, will be held at Beaverton Hall on Saturday, November 20, 1909, at 2:00 in the afternoon. Members are earnestly requested to be present. The public is cordially invited to be in attendance.

B. R. Patton, Secretary.
Beaverton, O. regon, Nov. 9, 1909

SURPRISE

C. T. Allison and some of the young people of near Jobs's tendered a surprise last Friday evening to Miss Bertha Miller, daughter of Frank Miller, of that section. Those present were:

Minnie, Julia and Ben Henshalk; Violet Webb, Irene Olanie, Mattie Bahr, Joe Hargreover, Ward Varley, Ray Chapman, Leon and Harry Ray, John, Ed. and Emil Miller, Fred Taylor and Claude Allison.

Argus and Journal, $2.25.

Two houses to rent.—Inquire at Greer's store.

The Oregon Electric has used in the circuit court asking that a jury determine the value of timber on the place of Webster Phillips, at Cornelius, and the ranch of L. J. Blossick, at Garden Home, on the right of way of the line. They aver that the timber endangers the poles and they say they cannot get the defendants to set figures as to value. Bagley & Hare filed the papers the last of the week.

Hillsboro saloon interiors were exposed to the public gaze, Sunday, for the first time in the history of the city. All front doors had glass in them as low as five feet from the sidewalk and the passer by, and the profland could equally see the bars without trouble. The peculiar thing about the condition, is that while it places the profland, it always starts the saliv in the fellow who crooks his elbow.

HIGH QUALITY Drug Store

A dutiful son and obedient daughter are their father's pride and their mother's delight. And when sickness visits the home all medicines given them should be absolutely pure and of the highest grade obtainable. These you will always find at THE DELTA DRUG STORE.

In fact everything in our stock is the very best we are able to obtain.

Even our line of candies is unapproachable by others, and the prices are but a very little higher than is charged for inferior goods elsewhere. We have secured the agency for Whitman's Fine Chocolates and Confections. None better are made anywhere.

We are closing out our line of McDonald's chocolate at a greatly reduced price to make room for our extensive line of Whitman's.

They are GOOD and RIGHT or you would not find them at the Delta Drug Store.
