HILLSBORO CONDENSER TO OPEN DECEMBER 1

Manager Kinser, of Forest Grove, Makes Announcement

FACTORY HAS HAD OVERHAULING

Mass Employment of From 30 to 40 People

Manager Kinser, of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday, and made the welcome announcement that the Hillsboro condenser will reopen December 1 and continue as long as the milk supply is adequate to justify the operation of the factory. The condenser has been closed down several weeks, and workmen have been busy in overhauling the plant. It is now in first class condition and by December 1 will be ready to sound the whistle.

The opening of the plant will give employment to 30 or 40 people, which is quite a factor in the city's industrial life.

No price has been announced, but Mr. Kinser stated that for the last half of this month patrons were receiving $1 80 per cwt. for four per cent. milk.

The number of milk wagons on the road will not be determined until an idea of the supply is formulated.

Mr. Kinser says: "We are going to open the Hillsboro condenser as a matter of good faith to the community in which it is located. We hope to continue its operation permanently, and nothing short of so small a milk supply as to make running out of the question will deter us. The milk flow should increase within the next thirty or sixty days, and by Spring we should have a good run."

DOUBLE WEDDING

A double wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandaw, November 16, 1909, when their daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to J. C. A. Jones, and Miss Jennie Fink was wedded to Harry C. Jones, both of Lewis County, Washington. The double ceremony was performed by Rev. Guy R. Stover, of the Hillsboro United Evangelical church. Both of the happy couples will reside at Chehalis after December 1.

R. H. Kaitz, the piano tuner, who makes Hillsboro several times each year, was in the city the first of the week.

Slogans.

"Look here," said the constituent, "are you going to make any more anti-trust speeches?"

"I may consider it my duty to do so."

"May be it is. But there's something wrong with the combination. Every time you say down with the trusts some trust says, 'Up with the price,' and makes it go through."

Natural Progression.

Mrs. McCall—How about your servant girl? The last time I saw you you complained about her being so very slow.

Mrs. Hiram Offen—Oh, she's progressing.

Mrs. McCall—Indeed?

Mrs. Hiram Offen—Yes; she's getting slower and slower.—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Dubious Set.

"I don't believe," observed our wife, "that Dr. Cook did a bit of good."

"Nonsense!" we exclaimed. "Why, he established—"

"Yes," said the lady. "But will next summer's ice bills be any smaller? And if they're not, will you pay the difference?"—Cleveland Leader.

Her Little Joke.

Lawrence—Really, it is very interesting to see a barn dance.

Florence (laughing)—I should imagine so. It must take something like an earthquake to make a barn dance, doesn't it?

Sour Grapes.

"Tomorrow will be my birthday," remarked the fair typewriter maid, "and I'm going to take a day off." "Hub!" sneered the bookkeeper, who had loved and lost. "Why don't you take five years off, as you did last time you had a birthday?"—Chicago News.

Just a Theory.

Professor—Suppose an irresistible force encountered an immovable body, what would be the result?

Student—I don't know exactly, but I imagine it would be something like the meeting of two rival Arctic explorers.—Detroit Free Press.

The Photograph Man

Christmas is coming with jolly Saint Nick. And those who want photos should order them quick.

Don't wait for the moss to grow thick on your back, And your feet to grow webbed till your toes won't track; But hurry as lively as ever you can.

To the workshop of Johnson the Photograph Man.

Roy T. Stuart, who was foreman on the Oregon Electric truck crew, all Summer, was recently operated on at St. Vincent's Hospital Portland, for an aggravated case of appendicitis. He is getting along nicely and his surgeons think he will soon be permitted to leave his room. He is a son of A G Stuart and wife, of Seventh Street, Hillsboro.

Geo. M. Hunter has leased the Trullinger shop, on Third, and has an announcement in another place in this issue.

Hard to Understand.

Elsie—There is one thing I cannot understand about football.

Harry—Yes?

Elsie—Why a game so named should need so much headwork.

The Opposites.

"There is one thing which strikes me as funny about this explorer business."

"What is it?"

"That there should be so much hot air about the north pole when the public would be cold about a trip to the equator."—Baltimore American.

In a Low State.

"Wattles appears to be a good deal discouraged about something."

"Yes. He lost considerable money in a stock deal not long ago. He could hardly have taken it harder if he had been an English duke when the budget was passed."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cheerful For the Bride.

Bridegroom—How much, person?

Officiating Clergyman—Whatever she is worth to you.

Bridegroom—I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll give you a percentage on what she takes in by washing the first year.—New York Press.

Speaking of Justice.

"Any way," remarked the moraliser, "justice is blind."

"Yes," rejoined the demoraliser, "but not so much so as the deluded man who goes to law with the idea that he is sure to get justice."—St. Louis Republic.

The Producer.

"Does your husband play cards for money?"

"Judging from practical results," answered young Mrs. Torkins, "I should say not. But all the other men in the game do."—Washington Star.

The Decline of the Drama.

"How many actresses were present at the big reception?"

"Three."

"Oh? Why, I heard it stated there would be at least fifty?"

"There were at least fifty women of the stage present, but only three of them could act."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"I used to complain about the stove—but not since I began using OLYMPIC FLOUR"
 —Mother

You always bake successfully when you use Olympic. It is pure and wholesome—nutritious and clean—just what is required to make good things to eat. Every sack of Olympic is made from most carefully selected Northwestern wheat and manufactured under ideal sanitary conditions—only the plumpest, hardest grains are used, the choicest of the entire Northwestern crop. Insist upon Olympic—there isn't any just as good.
