LONG & MCKINNEY

Hillsboro has had a fine year from the standpoint of improvement, and each year will see substantisl growth. When the mills which are bound to come are once established look for one of the best towns in the Northwest.

Be thankful that you are living in the best section of the test state in the union; be thankful that you have good schools for your children-if you have children; and be thankful that Oregon is each year getting more desirable a place in which to live.

If you are dyspeptic and prone to look on the dark side of things just ginger up and make a resolve that you'll quit whimperiog. When you are making an eternal roold of yourself, and see nothing but bitternees in this "vale of tears" you are only advertising your ills, and being laughed at for your paine. Face the world with brightnessdon't cry all the time-like our centemporary down the street.

HOPS MOVING

The greatest buying movement the he market has seen this season has been as during the past few days. Since les Thursday, not less than (10) bales ben passed out of first bands. A large pot of the business has been for export account. The result is that the market is now asceedingly firm.

The purchases of Klaher, Wolf & Neite on Friday, Saturday and resteriar agrega ed 1782 bates. They bought 40 bis in The Dailes and Independence setting at 22% cents, including the Munson laid 21 bales at Dallas. They also got tered hundred bales at Aurora and practically cleaned out that section. They were n the market. John Carmichael is reported to him bought between 700 and 800 bales at 2 b 27% cents and possibly 12 cents, sells have taken on consignment about 20 bales at to cents advance. It is coulds of probable he will get another big blet. Among the purchases credited to Corni chael are the Gong lot of 108 bile s Salam at 22 cents, the Mayers lot of 3 bales at Dallas at 22 cents and the Cooners lot of 94 bales at St. Paul at 21 com. T. A. Riggs, of Dallas, is believed is have obtained 1000 bales on consignati at 20 cents advance.

The Seavey Hop Company on Fridg. Saturday and Monday brought 500 bis and H. L. Horst yesterday bought ill boles at 21 cents. William Brown, db tem. was also in the market, -Oregonia. Tuesday.
