

COURT APPOINTS FRUIT INSPECTOR

S. J. Galloway, of Hillsboro, Gets the Billet

BIG SESSION FOR THE MONTH Will Require Several Days Time to Clear Business

The county commissioners' court in session this week, and it will require several days to transact all business that comes before that body, as the law directs a multi-tude of action at the January term.

Besides the monthly claims there are the following matters to take care of:

Appointment of road supervisors Selection of annual jury list of 200 taxpayers.

Appointment of paper to publish official proceedings of board Change of several road district boundaries

Perfect a system of road work where special levies have been made and direct a course for all supervisors to follow.

The court appointed S. J. Galloway county fruit inspector. The appointment carries with it $3 per day actual time and travel expenses while in performance of duty.

Mr. Galloway is an old fruit man, and formerly lived in Albany. He has made Hillsboro his home for about 10 years.

The voters for the Cassidy road are: A. B. Todd, Jas. H. Cox and the county surveyor, A. A. Mores.

The list of claims as allowed will appear next week.

The county court appropriated $120 for the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, of Portland—an average of $10 per month for the year.

MRS. EDWARD SCHULMERICH

Mrs. Edward Schulmerich, one of the most highly esteemed and respected women in the county, died at the family home, Main Street, this city, Saturday morning, at 12:45, death ensuing from acute pneumonia, after but a few days of illness. She is survived by her husband and three children, Bruce, aged 17, Roy, aged 15, and Melvin, aged 6. Mrs. Schulmerich was Miss Alice M. Bailey, daughter of Calvin B. and Levia Bailey. She was born in Cedar County, Iowa, March 2, 1867, and came to Oregon with her parents in 1884, settling near Blooming. She wedded Edward Schulmerich in 1889, and for years they lived on the Schulmerich homestead, a few miles south of the city. When Mr.

The late Mrs. Edward Schulmerich Schulmerich engaged in the mercantile business they moved to Hillsboro, where they have since resided.

Of her immediate family, her father died in 1907 and her mother passed away in 1898, and the following brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Josephine Johnson, wife of Geo. E. Johnson, deceased, Hillsboro; Mrs. Mary Wilson, Forest Grove; Lawrence B.iley, Portland; Portland; Daniel Bailey, Blooming; Mrs. Ida Baker, wife of Harry Baker, Wapato; Mrs. Nora Pearson and Mrs. Laura Crowthers, Okland, Cal.

The funeral took place from the M. E. Church, Sunday afternoon, Rev. Fisher conducting the service, and interment was in the Masonic Cemetery.

Mrs. Schulmerich was a woman of sterling worth, a devoted wife and mother, and her many estimable qualities endeared her to a wide acquaintance. The bereaved family has the sympathy and condolence of the entire community.

MC DONALD—POLLARD

Herbert W. McDonald and Miss Anna E. Pollard were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. J. Wood, of near Kinton, Jan. 1, 1910, Rev. W. E. Simpson officiating.

Land for Sale

Will sell 15 to 30 acres of cultivated land, three-fourths of a mile from Welch Hazel station. No house. Will sell at $225 per acre, part down, balance on time.—E. C. Sunberg, Beaverton, Ore., R. 4.

A good Oregonian, $2.25.

The entire Northwest has been in the grip of a cold wave for several weeks, and Jack Frost seems disinclined to let go his strangle hold. Tuesday mercury was but 10 above here, and although it has moderated to about the freezing point, indications are for more cold weather, according to the bureau. Snow fell this morning and there may be a heavy fall before it is over with. The ground is frozen all the way from two or three inches in depth, and the oldtimers know of nothing as frigid as this within their memory.

The Schiller and the Grand Marca are two Oregon made cigars. When you want a smoke, just call for one of the other. They fill the bill, and are cheaper smokes in the long run, than nickel goods.

This should interest the several hundred patrons of the Hillsboro postoffice—yesterday morning the water poured into the office from a break in the water pipes upstairs, near the H. T. Bagley law office, and for a time it looked like a Mississippi River flood. The rural carriers made up their mail under a huge umbrella, held by Mrs. E. B. Poles and the postmaster was compelled to hunt a new station for his cancellation. With the repair of the pipes the inundation ceased.

Money to loan in any sums desired upon real property mortgage security only—Washington County Abstract, Title & Trust Company, Shute Bldg. 301f.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace and daughter, Miss Meta, went to Wapato, Sunday, to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. William Joy, who died at her home two miles south of that place, Friday. The husband and several adult children survive. Interment was at North Yamhill. The Wallace family knew the Joys in the East. The deceased was about sixty years of age. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marlin also attended the funeral.

Wanted: Girl for housework, small family, in country. Address Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2—F. E. Rowell, Schollie. Lud. Tel., Schollie Division.

W. Wallace Wilson, aged 51 years, and who has been an invalid for a number of years, died January 5, 1910, at 655 Commercial St., Portland, after being in this city but a fortnight. He was a son of Sherburn Wilson, a well known resident of Hillsboro for many years. The funeral takes place here Friday, and interment will be in the Masonic cemetery. Wilson was in the Idaho section a long time, but came down a year or so ago for his health.

Joe Wilson and wife, of Doty, Wash., were in town yesterday, guests of Wm. Wolf and wife, of North Hillsboro. Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of Mr. Wolf. Mr. Wilson says that Doty has a sawmill with an output of 125,000 daily—that is what Hillsboro wants, some of these days.

E. Wenstrom, of the Laurel-Scholls section, and who will log and cut lumber next season, having bought the Wohlischlegel mill in entirety, was a caller in Hillsboro, yesterday. His mill is on the south road between Laurel and Schollie, and he is busy putting in logs for the Spring run.

Suits cleaned and pressed promptly. Also suits to order. All work guaranteed. Upstairs, next to postoffice.—August Tews, the Tailor. 10-1f.

Revival services are being held at the Methodist church. On Thursday evening Rev. Merritt L. Davis, of Cornelius, will preach. The pastor, Rev. F. V. Fisher, will preach Sunday, at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Special Gospel song service at the evening meeting.

The patrons of the Robt Hartman Feed Store and the general public are hereby notified that the business is now located on Main Street, one block west of the Court House, on the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co.'s railway.

W. E. Smith, of South Tualatin, and who says he still has four acres of potatoes in the ground, was over to the city yesterday, filing a prayer for better weather—which, of course, means the genuine Oregon weather.

Frank Kelsey, road supervisor for South Hillsboro, has been confined to his room for a few days with an attack of grippe. He is now on the mend.

TROUBLE SOMEWHERE

The following letter explains itself and was received by the Argus, Jan. 5:

Sherwood, Ore., Jan. 4, 1910. Dear Editor: In your issue of Dec. 23rd a notice of marriage license was published for Ira Platt and May Edwards. I must beg of you to kindly contradict the notice as there is no truth whatever to the report. Someone is carrying a joke too far, or else Mr. Platt has lost his senses. Yours Truly, R. G. Edwards.

An examination of the records discloses that a marriage license was granted Ira Platt and May Edwards on December 23, 1909, one E. G. Hyster swearing to the affidavit upon which license was issued. Clerk Bailey issued the paper. For the issuance the county was paid $3.00. As yet no return of marriage is of record.

TWELVE MILLS IS COUNTY LEVY

County Board Today Made the 1910 Millage

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY THOUSAND

School Levy is 32 Mills, and Road Levy, 4

Just before going to press today, the county board levied the millage for the coming tax collection. The total is a millage of twelve, even, and the levy will raise something like $180,000. The indigent and library funds are included in the state and county funds. The levy is not computed for the press, as yet, and the Argus will give the various amounts next week. The tax levy is: School, 32 mills; State and County, 4.8 mills; Roads, etc., 4 mills.

STEVENSON—SUMNER

Mr. M. H. Stevenson, of Hillsboro, and Ethel Sumner, of Oregon City, were united in marriage at the Falls City, January 1, 1910, the marriage ceremony being performed by the M. E. Minister. Mr. Stevenson is a member of the Wilkes Bros Abstract Co. They arrived in Hillsboro yesterday, and will take up their residence in one of the Palmateer cottages on Washington street.

If anyone should think the present taxroll is an easy one to extend they should disabuse their minds of the idea. There are 66 special school levies and 20 special road district levies, and all of these must be computed in the various districts to each property assessment. This is the largest amount of clerical work ever brought to the roll extension and it will be several weeks before the roll will be ready for collection.

BIG MASK BALL GREAT SUCCESS

Over Forty Couples Attend Big Masquerade

PRINCES AND PAUPERS GALORE

Greatest Ball Masque for Many Years Friday Eve

Friday evening's masquerade at Hillsboro Hall was the most successful event of its kind for many years, and over 40 couples participated in the festivities. Prince and pauper, King and courtier, Pampersnickle and peasant, mingled together in one grand Bohemia, and it was a saturnalia of glittering robes and royal riches. The prizes were given as follows:

Best waltzer, Mrs. G. A. Patterson and Via Jack.

Best dressed costumes, Mrs. Rose Weisenbeck, Portland, and Chas. Taylor, Hillsboro.

Most comical characters, Miss Delsman, and Roy L. Greer, Hillsboro.

The best of good feeling prevailed and it was an orderly crowd—such as lends popularity to the social events held at this hall.

The judges on maskers were Cal Jack and Chas. Koontz, Mrs. Chas. Koontz and Mrs. Loren Jackson, and the judges of the waltzers were W. W. Boscow, Mrs. Chresty and Mr. Bowley.

WHERE IS OLE?

The Reedville community was considerably agitated the first of the week over the disappearance of Ole Johnson, the blacksmith and wood worker, who was last seen Saturday evening, when he left the Eldotric at Orenco, having rode down from Hillsboro. Johnson had threatened to go down to Reedville and kill his wife, and had later said he would kill himself. He had been drinking, and was loaned 25 cents to get to Orenco. He was supposed to go home from that point, but returned later, with a badly injured leg. Several parties hunted for him Monday, when he did not show up, and it was supposed that he had made away with himself, or perished in the cold. Last evening it transpired that some party had seen him board the late train at Orenco for Portland. He was denied liquor here in Hillsboro Saturday afternoon, and reported it, and it is now presumed that he went to Portland, where he could buy his potatoes. Johnson's wife but recently came from Norway, and Johnson has been neglecting her. She was taken to the home of Andrew P.erson, Saturday where she is being cared for and is among people who can understand her language.

Hops still seem to be in the dumps, and the much heralded advance has not as yet appeared. Prime product is now quoted at 20 and 21 cents, with little or no sales. Nearly all the Washington county crop is sold.
