Indications are that the hop acreage in the county will be increased next year, owing to the general advance of prices. Many yards were not cultivated last year, and many were plowed up and used for other purposes. Some yards, however, were allowed to stand without cultivation, and many of these, no doubt, will be in the harvest next searon.

There is ome talk that the Southern Pacific, when it puts on its gasoline cars, will run a line up Fifth to Main, cown Main to First. and thence to the depot, so as to take on and land passengers in the city. It is argued that the com pany would in this manner get a great deal more of the passenger traffic than it dee at present, as this would land passengers down town in Portland and on return pick up perple in the business district of the city.
