NOW OFFERING BEAVERTON - REEDVILLE ACREAGE.

3600 acres, platted into tracts of 1/2 to 20 acres each; a system of completed roads extending along one or more sides of each tract platted; located ten miles southwest of the Courthouse, on Fourth street, railway, five trains each way per day, 40 minutes ride; no rock, no gravel, hillsides or cold white land, but very fertile soil, especially adapted to fruit, nuts and vegetables.

This plating offers you acres at the price of outlying city lots and only 40 minutes' ride from Fourth and Stark streets. An opportunity you will not allow to pass when you investigate.

A few hundred judiciously investigated in this acreage and paid in easy installments will result in highly satisfactory showing in the very near future.

Come in and permit us to explain to you the extraordinary advantages of this special location.

Now selling at $100 to $500 per acre, payable on easy installments.

Call at our office.

245 I-2 Stark St. Portland, Oregon and arrange to go with our representative and examine this property.

Edward Byrle, the West Union orchardist, was in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Andrew Hekmann, supervisor for the Bethany district, was in town Saturday.

Give us a trial order, and be convinced you can do better at Connell's.

Thos. Mu. phy, of below Mountaindale, was in to the supervisors' meeting Saturday.

Best variety of fresh vegetables and fruits in town. None too good for us, at Connell's.

Arthur Bacon, now living at Arleta, was out the last of the week, and will visit at the Grove and Corvallis for a few days.

Smoke just half as much, and when you do smoke, buy a Schiller, and you'll never be accused of being "grouchy."

Fred Hunzinger, of Portland, and who lived here a few years ago, was out Sunday, attending the funeral of the late Guy Decker.

John Berger, of near Bethany, was in town Monday morning, and took out a 7 1/2 power gasoline engine to run his feed chopper and wood saw.

C. W. London, formerly of the Fourteenth U. S. regulars, in the Philippines, was in from his Glencoe ranch, Friday. He is busy shooting stumps and cleaning up land these days.

E. W. Dant, the Reedville three-horseman of 35 years steady running, was in town Saturday, and says that he is getting tired of following a separator, and expects to retire if he can sell his outfit, which is a splendid one.

David Hardy, of Casper, Wyoming, writes that he is the only living close relative of the late Geo. Hardy, who died here a few weeks ago. He writes County Clerk Bailey to ascertain whether or not Geo left any estate.

A. C. Wirtz, of above Mountaindale, was in the city Saturday. He states that the people in his section are doing considerable speculation as to possible changes in the United Railway survey, in the Glencoe section.

John Ritter, of Helvetia, was in the city the first of the week, and went on up to the Roseair place, above Buxton, to inventory the livestock on the farm, and he will sell the property, against which he has a chattel mortgage.

The patrons of the Robt. Hartrampf Feed Store and the general public are hereby notified that the business is now located on Main Street, on the block West of the Court House, on the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co.'s railway.

G. Schlaefli, of above Mountaindale, was in town Tuesday morning, and called on the Argus. Mr. Schlaefli is one of the many farmers who owns a Hillsboro home, but he is still staying with the farm until the "kinder" get a little older, and need the benefit of the town schools.

We have the sole right to handle the famous Utz & Dunn shoe for ladies, and a shipment will reach us in a few days. You should see this remarkable shoe—remarkable for style and beauty, and for the low selling price. We also have a shipment of the Bradley-Metcalf shoe, the best shoe ever fitted to a man's foot—Wyatt & Co.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

FRANCIS MORRISON, Plaintiff,
vs.
Lewis Morrison Defendant

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before Thursday, the 1st day of March, 1910, and if you fail to appear and answer the plaintiff for want thereof will apply for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the Court seems meet and equitable and as in Plaintiff's complaint prayed for.

This summons is published by order of Honorable J. Wesley Goodin, Judge of the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, in the absence of the Circuit Judge from Washington County, and said order was made and dated on the 19th day of January, 1910, and the date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 20th day of January, 1910, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Thursday, the 1st day of March, 1910.

CLYDE RICHARDSON,
Attorney for Plaintiff,
215 Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Ore.

Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Arolin M. Basford, deceased, has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington, his final account as such administrator, and that the Court has fixed Monday, February 21, 1910, at 10 a. m., and the County Court room in Hillsboro, Ore., as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account, and for the final settlement of said estate. Dated this Jan. 20, 1910.

H. M. Basford,
Administrator of the Estate of Arolin M. Basford, deceased.

John M. Wall, Attorney for Administrator.

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned Executor of the last will and Testament of John L. Banks, deceased, have filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, my final account as such executor, and that said Court has set Monday, February 21, 1910, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. as the time and the County Court room at Hillsboro, Oregon, as the place for hearing objections to said final account, and the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this January 25, 1910.

Carl L. Banks,
Executor of the last Will and Testament of John L. Banks, deceased.
W. N. Barrett, Attorney for said Estate.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

Louis Von Donner, Plaintiff,
vs.
G. A. Von Donner, Defendant.

To G. A. Von Donner, Defendant above named:
In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby notified that the plaintiff has filed a complaint against you in the above entitled court and cause, and you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint or file some appearance therein on or before the last day prescribed by the order of publication thereof, to-wit: you fail to appear and answer the complaint or file some appearance therein, the plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and noted and will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet.

The date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1910, and this summons is published on every Thursday of each week for a period of six weeks between said dates.

This summons is published by order of Hon. J. U. Campbell, Judge of the above entitled court, made in Chambers this 3rd day of February, A. D. 1910.
