MORGAN--BAILEY BLOCKS ARE SOLD

J. W. Shute Will Take Possession on March 1

TWENTY THOUSAND FOR HALF

Corner Will Doubtless be Used for National Bank

Dr. F. A. Bailey has sold his half interest in the Bailey-Morgan block and the two bricks to the North and inclusive of the frame building used as a tinshop by J. C. Larkin, J. W. Shute being the purchaser. The price to be paid is $20,000, and it is the biggest deal in realty for a number of years.

It is generally supposed that Mr. Shute wants the corner for his new National Bank, and this feature is what is supposed to have caused the deal. Deeds will pass March 1 unless present arrangements are upset. Mr. Shute recently commenced partition, suit on the property but the case will be with drawn in case the deal goes through as at present outlined.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Isabel McKinney Hineshaw, well known to nearly all the pioneers, died at Mohler, Wash., Feb. 13, 1910, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Morgan. She was born in Indiana, March 31, 1831, and crossed the plains with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. William McKinney, in 1845, coming via the Meek cut-off. The family settled in Washington county first, and the took up a donation on the South Umpqua, later moving to Hillsboro.

In 1852 she wedded Luke Hineshaw, the husband dying many years ago. Five children were born, three surviving, and all were at the death bed: Mrs. Dora Morgan, John and Wilbur Hineshaw, all of Mohler, Wash., where they have lived for thirty years. Mrs. Hineshaw had for some years made her home with Mrs. Rachel Cornelius, departing for Mohler last June. Of her immediate family the following brothers and sister survive: William McKinney, of Watsburg, Wash.; Montgomery and J. Newton McKinney, of the Okanogan; and Mrs. Rachel Cornelius, of Portland. Deceased was a grandchild of the Walters who took up a donation on the North Plains, where the T. R. Davis ranch is located. She was a woman of noble characteristics and was of a kindly disposition. The interment was at Mohler. Mrs. Hineshaw was a sister of the late Chas. McKinney, well known here as the pioneer property holder on Second street.

Mrs. Nancy Watts, pioneer of 1852, and widow of the late M. M. Watts, died at Forest Grove, Feb. 15. She was born in Jefferson Co., Mo., in 1826, and was married to Mr. Watts in 1846. They came to Oregon in 1850, and settled above Forest Grove, on Gales Creek. No children were born to them but they raised the following: Mrs. John McCoy, Mrs. John Crabb, Mrs. Sarah Hicks and Miss Belle Watts. Two brothers, Isaac Knighten, of Moro, Ore., William Knighten, of Jackson Co., and a sister, Mrs. Minerva Walker, mother of Green Walker of Greenville, survive her. The funeral took place at Forest Grove yesterday. Mrs. Watts was widely known and highly esteemed for her womanly qualities.

F. L. Hay, raised a mile below this city, writes from Montreal, Canada, that it was only 25 degrees below there last Thursday, but he says the cold is that dry that one doesn't notice it. Mr. Hay has been promoted to the general office of the Canadian Pacific Sleeping & Dining Car service, and the promotion carries with it a splendid remuneration. F. L. gained his railway experience back on the Pennsylvania & Reading, some years ago. His many friends here are pleased to learn of his good fortune.

Evangelists Lewtas and Reed closed their revival meetings at the Methodist church last night, and Mr. Reed left for Tacoma, Dr. Lewtas remaining over for his lectures. Both men have left a fine impression in this community by their sweet music, eloquence and the high character of their lives, free from all sensationalism and unrefined methods. The meetings have been of great benefit to the churches.

Popular Illustrated Lecture.—Rev. John Lewtas will deliver his second lecture Friday night on "What I Saw in the Holy Land and Egypt," illustrated by 200 original colored slides. This lecture is conceded to be the best ever delivered on the Pacific Coast, and no one should fail to hear this splendid travel lecture. At the M. E. church tomorrow night.

B. Brown, an old man about 71 years, dropped dead near his cabin, Tuesday, in the Sterwood-Tualatin section. The old gentleman had left the habitation and started to get an armful of wood, when he keeled over—at least he was found dead by neighbors. Coroner Brown did not deem it necessary to hold an investigation.

N. H. Alexander yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his father, E. A. Alexander, aged 70 years, at Philadelphia, Pa. Mr. Alexander was a special agent of the United States treasury, with headquarters at Philadelphia. His wife died some years ago.

W. O. W. notice—All members of Hillsboro Camp No. 500 are requested to be present at the regular meeting, Tuesday evening, Feb. 22. Initiation and business of importance. F. U. Simpson, district organizer will be here. Be sure and attend—By order C. C.

The Knights of King Arthur have two big events on hand next week, on Tuesday night, the annual banquet of Washington Castle, as orator, and on Friday night the basket ball contest of Banks vs Tualatin Castle.

Next Sunday at the Methodist church will be a red-letter day. In the morning the pastor will receive many new members. In the evening there will be a special musical service, and Mr. Fisher will preach, "Who Shall Have Hillsboro, God or the Devil?"

Thos. Howe returned Tuesday from a trip down to Bandon, on the Southeastern coast of the state. He says he still has that $1,000 ready for the purchase of Lord Lovelace, but that E. B. Tongue, the owner, can't be induced to talk sale.

George Laemermann, of above Greenville, in the Cedar Canyon section, was in town yesterday, and says there is but two feet of snow up in his section, and that it is almost impossible for a man to get out with a team and wagon.

A. L. Giebs, of Laurel, thinks that the South Tualatin section is bound to get an electric line within a few months—and the Argus hopes his prediction will come true.

William Kempin, who has spent 30 years in the Verboort country, was in yesterday, paying taxes and calling on his friends—and he did not forget the home paper.

Thos. Whittedge, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Gregory Hoskin, of Minneapolis, were guests of Ronald Vaught, Tuesday evening.

Our Caramels must sure be good, judging from the way they sell. Have you tried them? We make them. Den of Sweets.

John Schaefer, of above Mountaineers, was in the county seat this morning.

A. Gross has a coupon in his display which may be worth $1 to you. Read it—on second page.

We are going to make some more North Pole Nougets of various flavors. Den of Sweets.

Jacob Maus and family, of near Banks, was in town today.
