Garden seeds at Greer's—in bulk.

We now have a good supply of good hard burned brick, and building blocks for cellars and foundations. Try our building blocks for your house foundations. Cheaper than cement or brick and better protection against frost. We have finished our run of large tile and are again running on smaller sizes, and have a fair supply at the yard. Parties wanting tile delivered should place their orders now so we can haul them before bad weather. There is always a rush of hauling orders in the fall when roads are almost impassable. We have a good supply of rough and dressed lumber at our mill, and a quantity of common lumber at the Hase spur, below Newton, the latter to sell at a sacrifice—2x12, 2x8, 2x6, 2x4, 1x10, 1x8, 1x6 and 1x4, of various lengths. This is all good dry stock, and it will pay you to investigate should you want any of these dimensions—Groner & Rowell Co., Scholle, Hillsboro, R. 2.

Sam Pooley's big dray team indulged in a fancy runaway, Monday evening, about 4:30, running from the E. C. Brown residence, where a delivery of furniture was being made, down Second street, to the Wehrung corner, where they collided with the electric light pole, one animal going on each side. The contact separated them from the dray and harness, and both horses fell. Neither was injured, however, and the loss was about $10. A few feet more to the left, and they would have crashed into the glass front of the Wehrung store.

I have a buzz saw and will saw cord wood or poles into stove wood, for any one living in the neighborhood of Farmington or Reedville. Also work done on gasoline engines. Will guarantee to make them run right—Carl Skow, Beaverton, Ore., R. 4, Bx 44 461f

Geo. Stitt, of Beaverton, was up Monday. Mr. Stitt says he is satisfied to remain in Washington County for the present. He says that should his section be annexed to Multnomah they eventually would have to help pay off the debt of the Port of Portland; the debt of the county of Multnomah, and the debt of the city, as in the end the city and county governments will be merged, as in all big cities.

Notice to the Public—J. E. Johnson, photographer, will open a Photo Studio in the new Heidelberg Building, on Main street, in a short time, where all outstanding tickets will be honored, and work of the highest excellence guaranteed. 50

The banks were closed Tuesday, Washington's Birthday being a legal holiday. The most of the stores, however, were open for business. The post office kept open for a short time after distribution, but the rural mail carriers saved a nasty trip, as Uncle Sam gives them the benefit of a rest.

The Scholle Telephone Co. have bought the Hughes exchange in Beaverton and Mr. Kindt, secretary, says the next move will be to put in a new switch board, re-wire the town and put in several new telephones.

THE LAW ON ROAD POLL TAX

Each Male Between 21 and 50 Must Pledge $3

COLLECTED BY ROAD SUPERVISORS

Case Garlachee Wages of Transient Workers in County

The Argus has received many inquiries as to the law on the matter of poll tax. As a matter of fact the old regular poll tax was repealed some years ago, but the legislature of 1903 passed what is known as the road poll tax law, which requires every male citizen between the ages of 21 and 50 years, excepting those exempt by statute to pay a road tax of $3.00. This exemption no longer covers those physically incapacitated and those who are immune from the payment are active and exempt firemen only. The two sections of the statute covering the matter of this road poll tax follow:

Every male inhabitant of this State over twenty-one years and under fifty years of age, unless by law exempt, shall annually pay a road poll tax of $3, which shall be collected in cash by the road supervisor of the district in which any person liable therefor resides, and which must be collected by the road supervisor on or before the first day of December of the year for which such poll tax is due. Such poll tax must be paid on demand to the road supervisor, as herein provided.

The road supervisors, under the direction of the county clerk (court) shall expend the full tax due and collected from persons liable to said road poll tax in keeping the roads in his district in as good repair as the money and labor at his disposal will permit.

The statute provides that a supervisor, in order to collect from transient laborers, if they fail or refuse to pay, may go before a justice of the peace and garnish wages to cover the amount of the tax and the costs of the action.

Here is another little road law that might well bear personal, although the law is as old as common law itself:

Whenever any person driving or controlling any vehicle shall meet on any public highway, post road, or private way in this State, the persons so meeting shall seasonably turn their vehicles to the right of the center of the road, so as to permit each vehicle to pass without interfering with or interrupting the other.

If any person shall willfully violate the provisions of Section 44 of this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of $5.00 for every such violation to the party injured, to be recovered by civil action, and such further damages in the same action as such party may directly sustain by reason of such violation.

You can't make W. A. Tupper, well known here, and now with the Portland Business College as one of the instructors, believe that a toothpick isn't a dangerous thing. About two weeks ago, he hurriedly ran his hand into his coat pocket and inadvertently connected with a sharp toothpick, the point entering under the finger nail. In two or three days he had a nicely developed case of blood poison, and has carried the digit in a harness ever since.

It is not necessary for you to break the Tenth Commandment when passing the Donelson Block on Baseline street, by wishing you owned all or part of it, as Mr. Donelson has placed the property in our hands for sale at a price and on terms that any one in a position to own property can afford to handle one or more—Imbrie Land Co.

W. A. Venable, formerly of Goldendale, and a friend of Wm. Tupper, who knew him years ago, has bought the Second Street restaurant, opposite the Pythian Building, and will remodel the interior and make other improvements.

Don't stand around with your hands in your pocket, and your eyes closed, and let rank outsiders come in town and take the bargains in property away from you. We have any number of up-to-date houses and cottages for sale on easy terms, so why pay rent.—Imbrie Land Co.

T. M. Kerr has bought the interest of H. A. Hubbert, his partner in the Webfoot Realty Co., and will continue the business alone. Mr. Hubbert has two or three offers of foremanship of sawmills offered him, and may accept one of them in the near future.

Frank Pomeroy, who lived for years at Cornelius, and who last week accompanied the remains of his wife to Cornelius for interment, was in town from the guest of his brother-in-law, W. H. Taylor.

Judge Rood is busy these days, handling the treasurer's office at the court house, during the lay-off of County Treasurer Jackson.

S. A. Berry, who is farming on his Capt. Christenson place, South Tualatin, owned by Frank Unger, of Hillsboro, was in the city Monday.

Frank Pranger, of Cedar Canyon, formerly of Leisyville, was in town Monday. He is interested in the Sobler-Spierrings-Pranger sawmill, and says it keeps them busy logging and sawing, the year around.

When the kitchen is properly equipped there is sunshine in the house. Come in and see our Champion and Charter Oak ranges. They are the best—Emrick & Corwin.

Hugh Rogers, of Buxton, is authority for the statement that the Buxton Band dance cleared $40 net, the other evening. The band assisted the music, the orchestra being Frank Petzlika and Mrs. Fred Caldwell.

For Sale—Fine residence property, only three blocks from business center; also a business chance. Inquire of G. M. Hunter, planning mill on Third St., between Main and Lincoln. Both phones. 49 ff

Under date of the 13th, T. R. Imbrie writes from Chicago that he left that evening for Washington, D. C. He says there was plenty of snow and cold in the windy city. Mr. Imbrie expected to be in New York on Sunday, the 20th.

Farmers look here—we will pay you more in trade for your produce than you can get anywhere in the county. Bring it to us. We will convince you that we can and do pay more than others. We take veal and pork on Tuesdays—Stevens Bros., Farmington. 50

Geo. Williams, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday. Mr. Williams has a new girl at his house, born Saturday, and he says the arrival sleeps like an angel all day, and is no trouble at all, but when night comes she wants to entertain the entire family.

Edward W. Abraham, of Yamhill county, and Ruth A. Petty, of near Gaston, were granted license to wed, Monday, by Clerk Bailey. The bride is but 17 years of age and it required an affidavit of consent by the father, J. O. Petty, before license could issue.

H. B. Dauchy, of Greenville, says the United Railways have run a survey out through Cedar Canyon as far as Glenwood. Two or three preliminaries will be run to the summit of the coast range, with a view of getting as easy a grade as possible into the Tillamook timber section.

J. D. Foote, of Virginia, and H. D. Ellsworth have joined in a partnership, and purchased the Forest Grove paper, the publication started last fall. The new owners will enlarge the paper. Mr. Klauke, who has been in charge of the destinies of the press since its appearance, has not announced what his future will be.

Harry Wolford, of above Buxton, was down to the city Monday, returning Tuesday. He states that he has a 7-year old Baldwin that this year produced 12 bushels of merchantable apples. This is going some—and a five acre orchard of trees yielding like this one would keep the wolf from the door. The time will come when the Buxton hills and from there to the summit will be the Mecca of apple growers.

John Ritter and J. C. Kurall returned Saturday evening from the sale of personal property of the late Mrs. John D. Roselair. Mr. Ritter held a chattel mortgage on the livestock and personal property, and with the consent of Roselair's attorney, Jeffrey, placed the property on sale. It brought $418, but out of this must come expenses of care and feed for the stock and the sale charges. Mr. Ritter also holds a mortgage on the farm.

PROSPECTS FOR BIG HOSTELRY

Captain Paul Reimers Negotiating for Property

WAY BUILD ON WASHINGTON STREET

Two if Not Three Story Structure Figured on Soon

Captain Paul Reimers, who was a blockade runner, carrying supplies and contraband of war for the Russian government during the Russo-Japan war, and now a prominent real estate man and promoter of Portland, was in the city the last of the week, figuring on the quarter block South of the M. E. Church, and Southeast of the Oregon Electric depot, with the view of putting up a fine brick hotel, possibly three story, and at least two story. The Captain recently bought the famous Spring Hill ranch, above Gaston, and also bought some North Hillsboro acreage, and he has the capital if things look right, and he gets the moral support of the town. Captain Reimers thinks a good hotel would pay here, and he calculates to build as soon as he gets things settled.

He desires to build so that the structure will face the Oregon Electric depot, and he intends to put in a finely equipped hostelry and grounds that will be a credit to the place. Mr. Lehman, of Cedar Mill, owns the property that is being negotiated on.
