

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XVI. HILLSBORO, OREGON, MARCH 3, 1910 NO. 51

ASSESSOR CRANDALL STAYS IN OFFICE

Will Not Resign and Accept the Bank Position

WILL SERVE OUT HIS FULL TERM

Was Offered Assistant Cashiership of Forest Grove Bank

Assessor Max Crandall will stay with the office to which he was elected at the last general campaign. He came to this decision one day the latter part of the week. Mr. Crandall was offered the assistant cashiership of the Forest Grove National Bank, at a salary in considerable advance to that which he now draws, and for a time gave it favorable consideration. After looking at the matter from all standpoints, Mr. Crandall decided that he owed his constituents his services in the assessor's office, and he last Saturday made public the announcement that he would serve the remainder of his term.

The offer of the bank was a flattering one, and the position would be a real lead to promotion. The Forest Grove National Bank is a substantial institution, and has the backing of some of Forest Grove's best men, but Mr. Crandall was of the opinion that he owed a fealty to those who elected him to office, and the proffer has been declined. Mr. Crandall's services were sought because of their value in many ways, he being an analytical accountant of repute. For many years he was in railway employ, and this gives a man an insight into auditorship that would make his experience valuable to the bank, hence the substantial offer.

Edw. Boge, of Farmington, was a county seat caller Monday.

We now have a good supply of good hard burned brick, and building blocks for cellars and foundations. Try our building blocks for your house foundations. Cheaper than cement or brick and better protection against frost. We have finished our run of large tile and are again running on smaller sizes, and have a fair supply at the yard. Parties wanting tile delivered should place their orders now so we can haul them before bad weather. There is always a rush of hauling orders in the Fall when roads are almost impassable. We have a good supply of rough and dressed lumber at our mill, and a quantity of common lumber at the Hase spur, below Newton, the latter to sell at a sacrifice—2x12, 2x8, 2x6, 2x4, 1x10, 1x8, 1x6 and 1x4, of various lengths. This is all good dry stock, and it will pay you to investigate should you want any of these dimensions—Groner & Rowell Co., Scholla, Hillsboro, R. 2.

"Whiners" will be the first subject of a very interesting and profitable series of sermons to be delivered at the Christian church the four coming Sunday evenings. You are invited to hear each subject discussed. The pastor promises plain practical preaching. Special music at each service. Splendid chorus, under the direction of Geo. A. Webb. You are wanted at the Christian church—Marion F. Horn, minister.

Banker now has Title to Main and Second Property

THREE BRICKS AND ONE FRAME

Transfer was Made Monday and Deed is of Record

As per schedule deed passed for the brick on the corner of Main and Second, now occupied by Wyatt & Co.; for the brick occupied by Emrick & Corwin, the brick under rental to C. E. Kootz, and the frame building used by J. C. Larkin for a tinshop, the instrument now being of file in the Recorder of Conveyances' office at the court house. The corner in question is conceded to be as valuable as any corner in the city, and as the building is more expensive than those on other corners, foot for foot, it is conceded to be the best piece of realty in all Hillsboro. COLLECTS DEBT AFTER 20 YEARS

R. M. Dooley Sight Drafts Canada Man for $360

CHARGED SIXTY DOLLARS FOR IT

Cases Taken to Circuit Court—Jury Disagreed

Some months ago, Jos. Avery went to R. M. Dooley, then in the First National Bank of Forest Grove, and presented a claim, twenty years old and outlawed, for collection, against a man then in Canada. It was a claim only, as the note had been burned, but Dooley got busy. He sight drafted the man for the outlawed debt, and by pressing the claim, succeeded in getting $360 from the delinquent debtor. Dooley held out $60 for his work, and Avery brought suit in justice court. Dooley beat Avery in the minor court and then Avery appealed, and the case was heard, Saturday. The jury it is understood, stood 8 to 4 in favor of Avery, after being out all evening, and the court discharged the body. Mr. Dooley is now in Portland, and has a responsible position in a bank there. The jury:

F. B. Clark, T. W. Sain, C. W. Bloom, T. R. Davis, A. T. Buxton, H. A. Ball, F. S. Barr, Thos. Howe, C. C. Nelson, J. J. Hartley, Isaac Trullinger, E. A. Eddy.

Other cases—divorces granted: Ray Gumbert from Morris Gumbert; Anna Earl vs Alexander Earl; Ira Coburn vs Maude Coburn; J. W. Bowers vs Kate Bowers.

On the 14th of March, court will again be here, and the case of Vreen vs Booth, Forest Grove, will be argued. This is also the date that the grand jury returns.

Big prizes are offered for successful flights, and with favorable weather conditions, it is expected some new world's records may be made. The Odd Fellows, of Forest Grove, will soon erect a three-story structure on their property, recently acquired from the First National Bank. This is quite the proper idea—when an order goes into business partnership with its town, showing an abiding faith in its present and future, it means strength to its membership—and the Odd Fellows are to be congratulated on their enterprise. The Hillsboro Odd Fellows built several years ago, and the venture was a very profitable one.

One Cause of Headache

When an eye is said to be astigmatic, the meaning is that the eye has a double focus. This annoys the brain and the eye will strain unconsciously to bring about a clear focus. This strain usually causes headaches.

Astigmatism is usually congenital or so at birth. It is remedied by wearing glasses ground from the segment of a cylinder. These glasses if rightly made bring images to a focus on the retina and thus relieves all strains.

I am prepared to correct all errors of sight. My prices are the lowest consistent with service and quality of eye-wear.
