BIG BAND CONCERT NOW UNDER WAY

Entertainment Will Take Place at Crescent March 14

GREAT MUSICAL EVENT BILLED The Boys Should Receive a Hearty Public Support

The Hillsboro Reed & Cornet Band, under the leadership of Chas. S. Parker, will give a public concert on the evening of Monday, March 14, at the Crescent Theatre, and if there is anything that should receive unanimous public support it is this feature of Hillsboro's public and social life.

A good band is an advertisement for the city—and Mr. Parker is confident that when Summer opens he can claim leadership to the best band in the state outside of Portland.

Go to this event. Take the children; get your neighbor to a good. Fill the Crescent Theatre, and help the boys financially. This is not an advertisement—it is a free will offering for the good of the band. Be there!

There is talk of organizing a Boys Band in Hillsboro and a sufficient number of lads will soon be signed up to perfect the organization. The Hillsboro Academy of Music has been organized, with Chas. S. Parker as principal, and Douglas O. Anderson as secretary, and there will be no lack of musical training for the boys. Mr. Parker is an experienced musician, and already has been instrumental in rounding the Hillsboro Reed & Cornet Band into its fine shape as any musical organization in the state Hillsboro has needed an instructor of Mr. Parker's ability for some time.

Twenty-five feet from the sidewalk is as close as you can build a house on the Donelson block—no danger of your neighbor cutting off your view. That's worth something. See us regarding prices and terms.—Imbrie Land Co.

The Board of Trade, through its secretary, will endeavor to furnish the farmers with the names of men who are looking for work on farms without cost to either party, so when in need of help, phone to N. H. Alexander of the Imbrie Land Co., and he will see that you get the right kind of a man. The secretary can put his hand on a first class man if you need one right now.

We will serve ice cream Saturday and Sunday.—Den of Sweets. Chas. Stevens, of Buxton, passed through town this morning enroute home from Portland. Mr. Stevens has an eight month old pet deer, that is the biggest in Buxton, and the youngest makes his daily rounds to the backyards of neighbors for his handouts. Fences are no handicap to him and Chas. is wondering what he will do with him when the garden season comes.

We will serve ice cream Saturday and Sunday.—Den of Sweets. At the Roy debate, last night, C. J. Herb, J. M. Vanderzanden and Matthew King, for the affirmative, won over John Bernards and J. W. Vanderzanden, on the question "Resolved that the Manufacturer and Middleman are Responsible for the High Cost of Living." The judges were Theodore Vanderzanden and H. C. Carstens.

Wanted—Girl for general household work. Inquire at Argus office. Thos. Connell, of Glencoe, who was in the city last evening, says that farmers have an immense amount of Spring work on hand owing to the fact that the usual acreage of Fall sown grain was not sowed last Fall. Men and teams will soon be at a premium, as the plowing and seeding will be fifty per cent greater than for several Spring seasons.

Mrs. J. Nicodemus entertained the Needle Craft Club at her residence, Seventh and Washington, March 2. A dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. J. J. Krebs assisting Mrs. Nicodemus in serving. All reported a good time. Mrs. Reiling and Miss Tamiesie joined the club.

The Queens of Avilon basket ball team last Friday evening defeated the Banks Girls' Club team, by a score of 13 to 12. The King Arthur team also lost to the Banks Boys' team, the score being 39 to 18. The Clubs served refreshments to all at the home of Max Crandall.

Peter Hoffman, the Bacon sawmill man, was in town today, and says that the heavy snows of the Winter are gone on the south slopes, and that a few days more of good weather will see the bare ground on the north slopes.

C. W. Barr, who has been in the Cedar Mill section for six years after five years in the Shady Brook neighborhood, was in town today, and called on the Argus. He has been in the county since 1873 and is getting to be an "oldtimer."

Miss Jenni Birdsey, of Chicago, Illinois, arrived in Hillsboro Tuesday and will take a position as trimmer at Mrs. Bath's Millinery store. Miss Birdsey's home was formerly at Columbus, Wis. She is a cousin of Mrs. Bath.

March 1 opened with a gale and storm, but yesterday and today were harbingers of Spring. With a few days of bright weather, plowing and seeding will commence, and the buds will soon be swelling.

J. R. Hainline, a Portland contractor, and who rocked the county road, last year, near Cedar Mill, was out yesterday, to see what the court is doing in the way of road improvements.

L. C. Brown, of Iowa Hill, was in yesterday, and says that Will Phillips, of his section, is the champion coon hunter, landing one this week that measured three feet and nine inches from tip to tip.

John Pierce was bound over in the sum of $300, by Judge G. W. Barnes, to appear before the circuit court to answer the charge of pointing a revolver at Lee Lower.

Joe Donovan, of near Cedar Mill, was a caller this morning. He says that farmers will be considerably rushed as soon as the good weather prevails.

A car of Eastern corn has just arrived at the Climax Mill. We can supply your needs in any quantity.

Peter Almoist, of near Reedville, was in town today, and called on the family journal.

Garden seeds in bulk, at Greer's.
