Argus and Journal, $2.25.

John Milne Jr was in from the North Plains, Saturday.

H. Leahy, of near Cedar Mill, was an Argus caller Monday.

Jacob Rafferty, of Mountaineers, was a county seat caller Friday.

Jas. May, of upper Vinelands was in town the last of the week.

Adam Spiess, of near B. Avarion, was in the city Friday, tax paying.

Fred Rood, who is growing hope below Newton, was in the city Saturday.

C Schoenbaechler, of below Farmington, was in town Friday, and called on the Argus.

G Zuercher, for years a resident of the North Beaverton section, was in the city Saturday.

Hugh Smith, one of Forest Grove's "old settlers," was down to Hillsboro, Friday, enroute to Beaverton.

John Handel, of near Cedar Mill, was up to the city Saturday, paying his year's taxes. While in the city he called on the Argus.

Smoke just half as much, and when you do smoke, buy a Schiller, and you'll never be accused of being "grouchy."

J. G. Weiss, of near Tigardville, was in town Saturday. Mr. Weiss says the majority sentiment down his way is for annexation to Multnomah.

Philip P. Zoldt, of Phillips, was in the city Friday, on business at the court house. Mr. Zoldt settled out in the Phillips section over 30 years ago.

Four room house on Washington Street, on car line between Second and Third, lot 50x190, for sale—Ernest Lyons, 2 miles northwest of Hillsboro. 51 u

W. E. McCourt, who has six acres of holly on his farm, south west of town, was in Saturday. He says that none of the trees winter killed, and all are thriving nicely.

Jas. B. Downing, of south of Beaverton, was in the city Saturday, and called on the Argus, after paying his tax-s. J. B. thinks his section will have a strong support for Multnomah annexation.

Alte Meresse, of Forest Grove, has gone to Vale, Ore., to take charge of the Enterprise, a weekly publication. Mr. Meresse is an able young man, and will make good in the bunch grass region.

Dr. E. M. Cheadle, born in Oregon in 1852, died at Forest Grove, Tuesday last. He was a dentist by profession, and a prominent Mason. Dr. Cheadle leaves a widow, formerly Miss Harriet Rice, of West Hillsboro.

A close observer notes that chicken stealing is below par here this winter, and he says that his solution is the fact that lard and butter have been so high that even a purloined bird is expensive to the pilferer.

Marion Kelley, on the McCumsey place, recently purchased, is as tall as they make them—but he has stretched up an inch or two the past week, the cause being a new daughter, their third child, born last week.

The patrons of the Robt Hart-tramp Feed Store and the general public are hereby notified that the business is now located on Main Street, or a block West of the Court House, on the Pacific Railway & Navigation Co.'s railway.

The Federal grand jury, which convened at Portland, Tuesday, had three men summoned from Washington county—John Breker, Hillsboro, and Henry Nauff and Carl Hinman, of Forest Grove. Twenty-eight in all were summoned for service.

Mr. Teber, who bought the Honks hoppyard, below Rood's bridge, was in the city Saturday. Last year he sold the hops on the vine and they were picked by Mr. Reber, but this year he thinks he will run and pick the yard himself.

James Smith and wife, of Obeney, Wash., and who left Forest Grove several years ago for the Inland Empire, were guests the last of the week with relatives and friends at Forest Grove. James has made good, up in the country of great possibilities.

Uncle Henry Reasoner, better known as "Dad" Reasoner, and who is a brother of D. B. Reasoner, has been East and sold out back in Iowa, and is now rustling cat down at Los Angeles. Mr. Reasoner has many friends around Hillsboro who would be pleased to see him back in the old burg.

Geo Galbreath, of near Tualatin, was in town Saturday, paying his taxes, which represented about a dollar for each acre he owns. He was not kicking, however, and said that he felt he was getting value received. Mr. Galbreath came to the Tualatin section with his parents, in 1852, and his father, Samuel Galbreath, took up a 320 acre donation. For all these years, since Joe was 3 years of age, he has lived in the Tualatin country, except a few years spent in Idaho, in the Oro Fino and Lewiston mining districts, where in 1872 he cleaned up enough to pay out on his present home. The old mining fever gets possession of him once in awhile, but he fights it away.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

Francis Morrison, Plaintiff, vs. Lewis Morrison Defendant. To Lewis Morrison, above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before Thursday, the 3rd day of March, 1910, and if you fail to appear and answer the plaintiff for want thereof will apply for the relief prayed for in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree of the Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief in the premises as to the Court seems just and equitable and as in Plaintiff's complaint prayed for.

This summons is published by order of Honorable J. Wesley Goodlin, Judge of the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, in the absence of the Circuit Judge from Washington County, and said order was made and dated on the 19th day of January, 1910, and the date of the first publication of the summons is Thursday, the 30th day of January, 1910, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Thursday, the 3rd day of March, 1910.

CLYDE RICHARDSON, Attorney for Plaintiff, 518 Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Ore.

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned Executor of the last will and Testament of John L. Banks, deceased, have filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, my final account as such executor, and that said court has set, Monday, February 28, 1910, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. as the time and the County Court room at Hillsboro, Oregon, as the place for hearing objections to said final account and the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this January 25, 1910. Carl L. Banks, Executor of the last Will and Testament of John L. Banks, deceased. W. N. Barrett, Attorney for said Estate.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

Louis Von Donner, Plaintiff, vs. G. A. Von Donner, Defendant. To G. A. Von Donner, Defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified that the plaintiff has filed a complaint against you in the above entitled court and cause, and you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint or file some appearance therein by the order of publication thereof, to-wit: the 26th day of March, A. D. 1910, and if you fail to appear and answer the plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and noted and will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet.

The date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1910, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Saturday, the 12th day of March, A. D. 1910.

This summons is published by order of Hon. J. U. Campbell, Judge of the above entitled court, made in Chambers this 3rd day of February, A. D. 1910.
