

His Pull.
 "Does that 'ere thim, stoop shouldered, dyspeptic lookin' drummer that you bought so much from today sell any better or cheaper goods than the fat one ye turned down so hard yesterday?" inquired Hi Spry.
 "Don't know as he does," confessed the Squam Corners merchant, "but his views on the criminal rapacity of the trusts are a whole lot sounder."—Puck.

Another Version.
 Mary had a little lamb,
 A Persian lamb, by cricky!
 Its fleece was warm in winter's storm
 And curly like and sticky.
 But when Miss Mary needed coin
 She sold it for a dollar,
 And soon the lambkin turned into
 An actor's topcoat collar.—Chicago News.

His Little Yarn.
 "I thought you were going to take me to the grand opera?"
 "Well, you see, I ordered two seats in the front row."
 "Good enough."
 "But then they had to take the first row out to make room for the orchestra."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Forestry.
 Rock-a-by, baby, on the treetop,
 If you cut down the forest the baby will
 cry.
 "Rock-a-by, baby, on the treetop,
 If you cut down the forest the babies will
 cry."
 He put up your ax and don't chop them
 at all! —Judge.

His Natural Bent.
 "What are you hollerin' at me for?"
 demanded the offended one, turning about. "If you wish to go ahead why don't you turn out and go ahead? The sidewalk is wide."
 "Excuse me," said the other. "It was force of habit. I am a motor-man."—Buffalo Express.

Sadness.
 Sad thoughts may come to him who sees
 Some day his first gray hair,
 But sadder yet
 His thoughts, you bet,
 Who sees amid his crown of jet
 A spot that's growing bare! —Detroit Free Press.

Remind Him of Business.
 Gunner—There goes the tobacco
 king. He is a multimillionaire.
 Guyer—Then it's queer he doesn't drive a better team. Those horses
 look like a pair of pligs.
 Gunner—Well, I guess he thinks a pair of pligs is appropriate in his business.—Chicago News.

The Unreasonable One.
 He growled because they "wouldn't give him rope."
 An' set the little settlement a-hummin',
 But ef they'd tried to pinch him
 An' take him out an' lynch him
 I bet you he'd have had a kick a-comin'!
 —Atlanta Constitution.

A Love Feast.
 Fat Man—You're growing stout.
 Lean Man—And you're getting thin.
 Whereupon they shook hands, smiled, and each mentally declared the other fellow "a bully good friend."—
 Lippincott's.

Served Her Right.
 Little Bopeep,
 She lost her sheep,
 According to nursery books.
 Ah, sad was her lot,
 But that's what she got
 For associating with crooks!
 —New York Times.

Fruitless Research.
 "That scientist spent many hours of his life in fruitless research."
 "In what line?"
 "Trousers. You see, his wife always went through them the night before."
 —Judge.

Double Trouble.
 The fustist had the flu quite bad,
 The unfortunate galoot,
 So as he could not treat himself
 He sent a sub-to-foot.
 —Boston Transcript.

A Theory.
 "Why do you believe in long engagements?"
 "Well, I think that a girl should remain her lover's ideal as long as possible."—Cleveland Leader.

"Order Olympic Flour—
 it makes good bread and biscuits."
 —Mother.

Absolutely clean and pure, wholesome and nutritious—made from selected North-western wheat—insist upon Olympic—

"there isn't any flour as good"

Colonist RATES to Oregon and the Great Northwest

The management of the Southern Pacific Co., (Lines in Oregon) takes great pleasure in announcing that the low rates from Eastern cities, which have done so much in the past seasons to stimulate travel to and settlement in Oregon, will prevail again this Spring Daily from March 1 to April 15 inclusive.

PEOPLE OF OREGON
 The railroads have done their part; now its up to you. The colonist rate is the greatest of all home builders. Do all you can to let eastern people know about it, and encourage them to come here, where land is cheap and home building easy and attractive.

Fares Can Be Prepaid
 At home if desired. Any agent of the road named is authorized to receive the required deposit and telegraph ticket to any point in the East.

Remember the Rates
 From Chicago $33, from St. Louis, $32, from Omaha and Kansas City, $35. This reduction is proportionate from all other cities.

The Coffee Club had its annual election at their meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hancock, last Saturday afternoon and the election was as follows: Mrs. H. T. Bailey, President; Mrs. J. P. Tamble, Vice President; Miss Madge Lamb, Secretary; Mrs. R. C. Vanzil, Treasurer. Light refreshments were served after the election and a program. Songs were sung by Mrs. Geo. Schulmerich and Mrs. W. G. Hare, and Mrs. F. J. Sewell rendered a piano solo. Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Sewell presided at the piano during the singing.

For Sale—Bay mare, 12 year, weight 1,000; gentle and well-broke; bunch grass horse 3 years, weight 750, broke to drive but rather wild cow, 5 years, fresh March 1; No. 6 U. S. cream separator, thoroughly overhauled, new bowl and new gear; 3 seated hack without top, with sled runners to fit. Will sell cheap for cash, or trade for young stock.—F. W. Pribnow, Banks, Oregon, 49-51.

D. D. Mowery, who alleges he was hired by Sheriff Hancock to take care of personal property attached by the sheriff in the case of the United Railways Co vs W M Langley, and who says he has a claim of $242, files suit to recover direct. The property in question was attached by the Railway Co. and W. H. Rosenberry claims he is the owner of the property, and he wants $565.10 for remuneration. As the United's bond is behind the sheriff, that official isn't worrying over the outcome.
