

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

As the result of a sudden fright from a swiftly closing typewriter desk...

Mrs. Ella O. Shoemaker, who for fourteen years was a member of the board of education of Massillon, O.

Mrs. Barnett, the wife of Colonel George Barnett, commander of the United States marines in Pekin, is a United States horsewoman and recently accompanied her husband on his ninety mile riding tour.

Mrs. George H. Kendall of Nashua, who has just been re-elected president of the New Hampshire Woman's Home association, attended to a thousand humane cases during the last year, exclusive of warnings.

Miss Thebes, the French seeress, declared that the world is to have a declared time in 1910. The home folks will bid time to admit that she is a true prophet of evil, for the disastrous floods in France made the opening of this year memorable.

Lady Constance Steward Richard, who is appearing in public as an exponent of dancing in Greek attire, has a high reputation as a horsewoman, a championship swimmer and a shot. She is a daughter of the late Lord Cromartie and a granddaughter of Anne, duchess of Sutherland.

Richardson married Sir E. Steward Richardson six years ago.

Short Stories.

Canada has 100,000 Indians among her population of 6,000,000. The wind gauge on shipboard registers up to 165 miles an hour.

As many as 308 new rocks and shoals dangerous to navigation were discovered last year.

America cuts yearly some 20,000,000 cubic feet of lumber over and above what is lost by fire and other natural causes.

New York has 2,000 canalboats of all kinds at present, but the fleet will soon be increased by many large ones for service on the new Erie canal.

London is still a shop and factory. Paris is a drawing room turned into a kitchen. Berlin is a kitchen turning into a drawing room.

Science Siftings.

An ordinary gas jet will consume as much oxygen as five persons. In a recent test of a new German high speed telegraph apparatus 2,000 distinctly recorded words were transmitted 430 miles in five minutes.

In a series of telephonic experiments a German scientist has made magnets, alternating current transformers and even dynamo talk without the use of vibrating plates or membranes.

A new pyrometer for measuring high temperatures consists of a strip of two metals rolled into a spiral. As heat rays are focused upon the strip it gradually unrolls owing to the difference between the two metals' coefficients of expansion.

Flower and Tree.

Plants cannot live if deprived of their leaves. The date palm requires a hot, dry air, but moisture about the roots, and plenty of it.

Palm trees never live more than 250 years. Ivy has been known to live 450, chestnut 800, oak 1,000 and yew 2,880.

To prevent crooked trees from splitting after they come into bearing twist and fasten two small limbs together, and as the stem grows it will prevent splitting.

Train and Track.

A railroad will soon connect India and Ceylon.

The maximum wage of workmen on English railways has just been fixed at $7.78 a week.

Canada's total railway mileage last July was 30,330 miles. This means that there is one mile of railway for every 300 inhabitants.

An Australian inventor has designed a piece of mechanism which renews the life of a street car rail by planing down its irregularities while it is in use.

Tales of Cities.

St. Petersburg, the capital and largest city of Russia, was built on the site of a desolate swamp.

Genoa has the finest candy stores in Europe. Candied fruits are here produced in perfection, mammoth in size and complete in preservation.

One of the things that strike a stranger in New York is that it is an unfinished city. A traveler will see in one day more buildings in course of erection there than he would see in a tour of the old cities of Europe.

English Etchings.

Six hundred patents are applied for every week in London.

London motor bus drivers are fined for being ahead of time, but rarely for being late.

In the house of lords no question can be decided on a division unless thirty peers at least are voting.

The decrease in the consumption of wines in England continues and is now only one quart per head per annum as against double that quantity a few years ago.

A Love Feast. Fat Man—You're growing stout. Lean Man—And you're getting thin. Whereupon they shook hands, smiled, and each mentally declared the other fellow "a bully good friend."

Served Her Right. Little Hopsop. She lost her sheep. According to nursery books. Ah, said was her lot. But that's what she got for associating with crooks!

The Narrow Path. Don't block the way, my brother. Do not fill the narrow path. Others you may come to wish. Draw aside for those, my brother. Who with a softer foot may tread. Longer not for you, my brother. Till the sliding goal be reached. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

His Pull. "Does that 'ere this, stomp about dazed, dyspeptic lookin' specimen that you bought so much from today sell any better or cheaper goods than the fat one ye turned down so hard yesterday?" Inquired Ill Boy.

"Don't know as he does," confessed the Squam Corner merchant, "but his views on the criminal rapacity of the trusts are a whole lot sounder." —Puck.

Another Version. Mary had a little lamb. A pretty lamb, in color. Its fleece was white as winter snow. And only like and sticky. But when Miss Mary would run She sold it for a dollar. And soon the lambkin found its way An actor's impostor. —Chicago News.

His Little Yarn. "I thought you were going to take me to the grand opera?" "Well, you see, I ordered two seats in the front row."

"Good enough." "But then they had to take the first row out to make room for the orchestra." —Louisville Courier Journal.

Ferretary. Hock a-by, baby, on the treetop. If you cut down the forest the baby will flop. And when the trees tumble the babies will fall. So put up your ax and don't chop them at all! —Judge.

His Natural Bent. "What are you hollerin' at me for?" demanded the offended one, fuming about. "If you wish to go ahead why don't you turn out and go ahead? The sidewalk is wide!"

"Excuse me," said the other. "It was force of habit. I am a motor-man." —Buffalo Express.

Sadness. Sad thoughts may come to him who sees. Buses dig his first gray hair. But sadder yet His thoughts, you bet. Who sees amid his crown of jet A spot that a growing hair? —Detroit Free Press.

Remind Him of Business. Gunner—There goes the tobacco king. He is a multimillionaire. Guyer—Then it's queer he doesn't drive a better team. Those horses look like a pair of plugs.

The Unreasonable One. He growled because they "wouldn't give him rope." An act the little settlement a-lumunda. But of they'd tried to pinch him. An' take him out an' Lynch him. I bet you he'd have had a nice acomin'! —Atlanta Constitution.

BUT SHORT TIME FOR HALF PAYMENT

Taxpayers Have Until First Monday in April

IF NONE IS PAID—DELINQUENT

Over One Hundred Eighty Thousand On Rebate

Taxes have not been rolling in very rapidly, although there have been many half payments made since the rebate of three per cent. ceased at the Sheriff's office. The office, up to the close of March 15th, had taken in over $180,000 and naturally the payments since that date were smaller, and nearly all have been half payments. Those who have paid half the tax can now have until the first Monday in October to liquidate, while those who do not pay by the first Monday in April will go on the delinquent roll, with a ten per cent. penalty, and ten per cent per month thereafter on the tax until it shall have been paid.

In all likelihood the delinquent tax will be lower this year than in former years, for the farmer has enjoyed fairly good prices for all his product. In the hills, where the potato is the chief product, it has been harder to meet the tax, for the tuber was left in the ground all Winter, but a perusal of the roll shows that even these farmers have pretty generally paid in all or at least a half of the tax.

Remember that by the first Monday in April, if you have not paid, you must have paid half the tax or the delinquent list will be yours.

J. A. Zimmerman, of Roseland Farm, was up to the city Tuesday morning.

Fall dug Burbank potatoes, 65c a sack. One mile west of Hillsboro.—R. Webb, R. 4. 14

Geo. Corrigan, of Shady Brook, and who settled up there a few years ago, was in town Tuesday, transacting business.

Have you mohair? T. W. Wyatt & Co. will pay 23 cents per lb for 12 months' growth clean mohair. 14

Chas. W. Loudon, of Glencoe, was in the city Tuesday, and called on the Argus. After renewing for the religious weekly he remembered the Rest Room.

For sale—Aleike and wild chest baled hay—good cow feed.—Wm Chalmers, near Glencoe, Address Hillsboro, Route 3

At the Christian church parsonage March 19th, at 3 p. m., Robert H. Kruger, of Clackamas county, and Marie Res, of Washington county, were united in marriage.

Marion F. Horn, minister of the Christian church, officiating. Mr and Mrs Kruger will reside at Oregon City.

Lost: Team of horses: Bays, weigh, about 1050 each; one has white mark on face. Both have reached manes. Strayed or stolen from the Sherwood section, March 8. Finder please notify Geo. R. Wright, Sherwood, Or.—R 4 about three miles from Schille (Buxton district) R-ward. 12

The Seven Famous Sayings from the Cross is the great theme at the Christian church Sunday night. A splendid chorus of singing will delight all with gospel singing. Special music in keeping with Easter tide. Bible school at 10 a. m.; morning sermon at 11 o'clock; Junior at 5 p. m.; Y. P. at 8 C. E. at 6:30. Cordial invitation to all. You are always welcome.—Wm. F. Horn, Minister.

Herman Huntman, the peach grower, was over from Jobe's Tuesday. He says that prospects for a fine peach crop were never better, judging from indications at this season of the year. Mr. Huntman has one of the finest orchards in this section and raises a peach that neither Southern nor Eastern Oregon can discount—and they are equal. Last year's crop was a failure owing to late frosts.

You want the Norman School question separated from politics. That is what the Initiative bill does for Monmouth. This is your opportunity to keep it always separate. The state educates her lawyers, farmers, doctors, pharmacists, etc., why not her teachers? We must have schools. The better trained the teacher, the better school and more intelligent service the child gets. Vote Yes for Monmouth. Adv. 25.

Easter Sunday will be celebrated at the Methodist church with much enthusiasm. At the Sunday school session at 9:45 a. m., the annual Sunday school Easter offering for missions will be received. At 11 a. m. the rite of Baptism will be administered and the Easter class welcomed into the full fellowship of the church, after which the pastor, Rev. F. V. Fisher, will preach the Easter sermon on "The Message of Easter." At 7:30 p. m. will be an Easter praise service, at which Mr. Fisher will preach on "Flowers from an Easter Tank." The public is cordially invited to all these services.

If the designers of Fleisher Clothes were not artists, the results would be freakish.

Being artists of high order, the Clothes they turn out are unconventional, original, daring and lively as a cricket. Young men can wear these Clothes and pay the same price they now pay for dull, sombre, uninteresting Clothes. It's simply a matter of coming into the store and asking—

"A healthy youngster does like good things to eat. . . The easiest way to bake good things—to bake successfully—is by using OLYMPIC FLOUR

It is an aid to rather than a test of your ability. —Mother. Infinite care is employed in the production of every sack. Chosen from selected Northwestern wheat every grain is thoroughly cleaned and secured by the best modern methods—that's why Olympic reaches you so clean, so pure, so healthful, so nutritious—that's why it makes such good things to eat. Insist upon Olympic —there isn't any just as good."
