Monuments

Forest Grove Monumental Works can Save Money for You.

A. E. Peat, of Varley, on the Oregon Electric, west of town, was in the city Saturday. His parents, John H. Peat and wife, of New Brunswick, but who have been in the Missoula section, Montana, for some time, are here on an extended visit. It is not improbable that they will take up their home in Cornelius. They were very much surprised to see how much farther Spring is advanced here than up in the Bitter Root country, and they think we have a fine section in the Willamette Valley.

The Cardinals will be out for practice next Suuday at the Athletic Park, and then comes the opening game of the season the following Sunday-on the 17th. Manager Moore thinks he has any of the amateur teams of the state beaten to a frazzle, and there is promise of good baseball all Summer.

Fred Narup, of near Banks, and who is one of the leaders in strawberry culture up in his section, was down to the city Thursday afternoon last, and called on the Argus while in the city.

Ralph Imbrie, of West Union, was in the city Saturday, and added his name to the list of subscribers for the Rest Room, thus swelling the Argus fund for that purpose.

Capt. J. D. Merryman, for ears connected with the First National Bank, of this city, and now with the U. S. Customs office at Portland, was out Sunday. a guest at the Dr. A. B. Bailey home.

Mrs. Wm. Jolly came out from Portland the first of the week and is at the Jolly hopyard farm, north of town. She will keep Mr. Jolly company until the hop season closes this Fall.

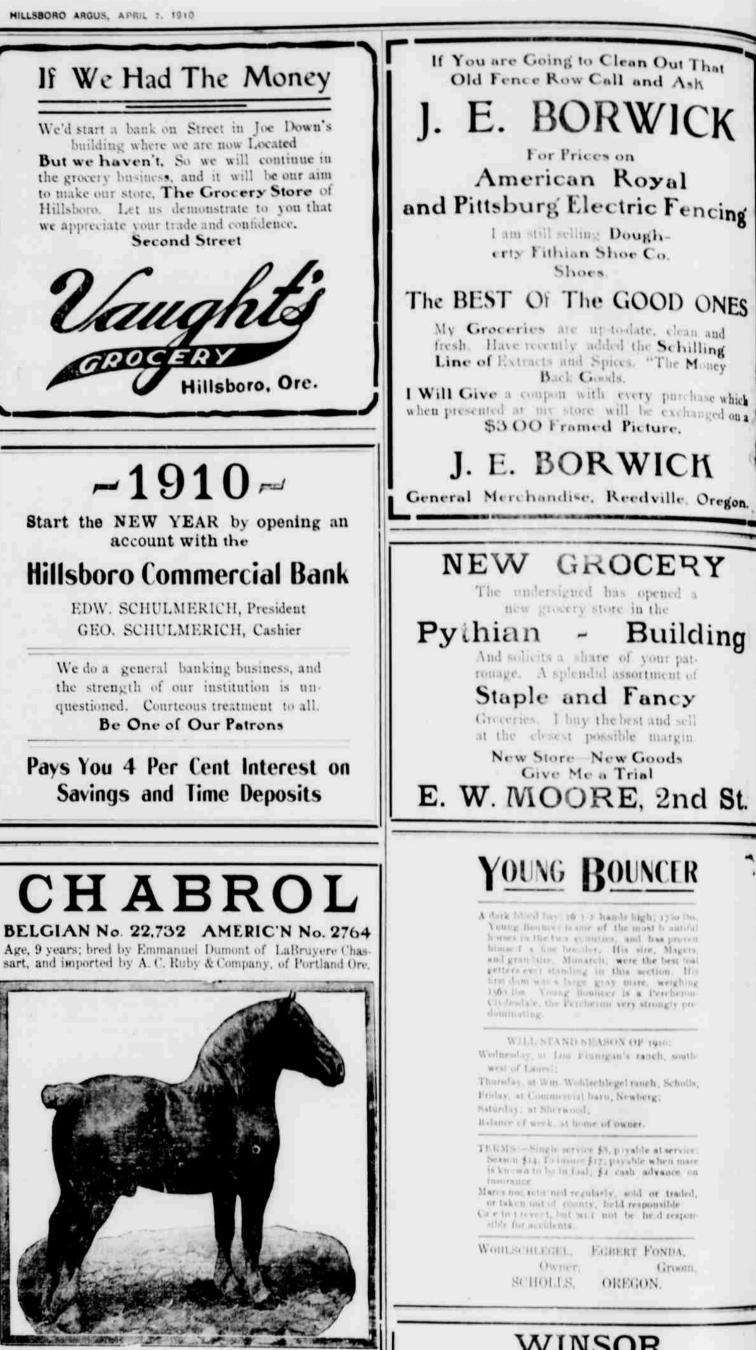

The funeral of the late J. B. Tamiesie took place Saturday afternoon, from St. Matthews' Catholic Church, and interment was in the cemetery below Newton.

Camile Duyck, who is farming near Forest Grove, was down the last of the week, and made his annual call on the Argus.

J. T. Powell, the thresherman, writes that he is located up at Umatilla, in the new irrigation district.

B. G. Leedy, of Corvallis, was down to his old county seat Saturday, greeting his friends.

Sam Moon, of Centerville, and Antone Hermens, of Verboort, were in town Saturday.

Designs and stock, none better. Quality and workmanship unexcelled. Prices lowest on coast. All work guaranteed. Orders and all communications promptly attended to. Will call and show designs and samples at any distance.

BUYS CALIFORNIA PAPERS

D. W. Bath, for a number of years editor of the Independent, leparted Monday evening for Riverside, California, where he has bought the Riverside Messenger, a weekly newspaper, and will have full charge of the publication. This is the only weeky in the city, which has a population of about 16,000. He will get a good financial support, and the Argus wishes him all kinds of success. D. W. has the newspaper business down pat from both ends-mechanical and editorial and reportorial and that he will make a "go" of the venture is assured.
