ISAAC LEISY, PIONEER PASSES AWAY MONDAY

Death Claims Pathfinder at Age of 88 Years—Paralysis

LIVED NEAR HILLSBORO MANY YEARS

Was Man of Sterling Character and Strictest Integrity

Isaac Leisy, aged 88 years, died at his home in Woodlawn, Monday, April 11, 1910, and his remains were interred in Rose City cemetery, yesterday. Since 1850 until a couple of years ago, Mr. Leisy made his home at Leisyville, two miles northwest of this city. He suffered a paralytic stroke a few days ago and was unconscious until death.

Mr. Leisy was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, Jan. 25, 1822, and lived there until he was 13 years old, when his family moved to Wayne County, Iowa. In 1850, he and a party of four started West behind oxen. The party stayed three months on the American River, and Mr. Leisy then came on to Oregon, settling in this county. He worked on farms until 1854, and then settled on a homestead on Dairy Creek, near the present town of Banks. Later he settled on a farm three miles northwest of Hillsboro.

His aged wife, Esther Marsh Leisy, a pioneer of 1846, survives. The surviving children are: Rosella, wife of George Hathorn, Laurel; Henry W., Mrs. Nettie Montgomery, wife of Wm. Montgomery, of Woodlawn; Daniel E., South Tualatin; Mrs. Flora Pomroy, Leisyville; Mrs. J. E. Long, Isaac B. Perry, Portland, and Douglas, on the Portland police force.

Mr. Leisy was a unique character and was noted for his rugged honesty. Up to the hour he was stricken, he took a great interest in public affairs, and when the stroke came he was listening to a newspaper article, which was being read by his brother-in-law, Edison Marsh, of Idaho, who was down on a visit. The funeral was conducted under the auspices of the United Brethren Church, of which he was a member.

"Death and taxes—two things you can't escape," is an old and true saying, whether or not it is always true. Both, however, caught Jacob Schaefer, the Bethany blacksmith who committed suicide last Summer. After Schaefer's body was found searchers discovered something like $3,800 in gold and silver, beneath his bed. Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was appointed administrator of the dead man's estate, and yesterday Mr. Ritter paid $70 taxes on the money on sheriff's assessment. Schaefer had never paid taxes on his money and there is no doubt but what the bulk of the coin was with him at his Bethany shop nearly ever since he had bought it. Here is one instance where the old saying worked out in realistic strength.

Ex-Sheriff Connell is perhaps more conversant with the needs of travel over Washington county roads than the average man, because for years he had occasion to make many hurried trips over bad roads. Realizing the necessity for a strong vehicle he made arrangements with a Michigan firm for a special manufacture of buggies, designed for Oregon use. The best of hickory, the best of steel, and the best of workmanship—all reinforced above the average make, was the order given, and the carload of special manufacture arrived this week. Call in and see this Michigan buggy at Connell & Co.'s big store.

W. J. Ingram, of near Farmington, and who is still in the hop-growing business, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Ingram came to the coast in 1852, and since that time has made four trips to the crest of the Rocky Mountains. Each of the four times, during mining excitement, he packed his horse, and walked through the mountains. Mr. Ingram and his party met with the father of J. P. Magruder,

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.

Laura Hart, Plaintiff
vs.
Mike Hart, Defendant

To Mike Hart, Defendant above named: In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby notified that the plaintiff has filed a complaint against you in the above entitled court and cause, and you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint or file some appearance herein on or before the last day prescribed by the order of publication thereof, to-wit: the 14th day of May, A. D., 1910; and if you fail so to appear and answer the complaint or file some appearance herein, the plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and noted, and will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint herein, to-wit: a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and plaintiff and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and proper.

The date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, the 24th day of March, A. D., 1910, and this summons is to be published on every Thursday of each week for a period of six weeks between said dates.

This summons is published by order of Hon. J. T. Casswell, Judge of the above entitled court, made in Chambers, this 21st day of March, A. D., 1910.
