NOW OFFERING BEAVERTON - REEDVILLE ACREAGE.

3600 acres, platted into tracts of 1/2 to 20 acres each; a system of completed roads extending along one or more sides of each tract platted; located ten miles southwest of the Courthouse, on Fourth street, railway, five trains each way per day, 40 minutes' ride; no rock, no gravel, hillsides or cold white land, but very fertile soil, especially adapted to fruit, nuts and vegetables.

This plating offers you acres at the price of outlying city lots and only 40 minutes' ride from Fourth and Stark streets. An opportunity you will not allow to pass when you investigate.

A few hundred judiciously investigated in this acreage and paid in easy installments will result in highly satisfactory showing in the very near future.

Come in and permit us to explain to you the extraordinary advantages of this special location.

Now selling at $100 to $300 per acre; payable on easy installments.

Call at our office.

and arrange to go with our representative and examine this property.

Henry Johnson, of near Glencoe, was in town Friday.

J. E. Butler, of Portland, was out to the city Monday, on legal business.

Julius Sorenson has bought the interest of R. Lee Sears in the Main Street barber shop.

Frank Slattery, of this city, is now located at Madras, on the Hill line in Eastern Oregon.

A. Benson, recently elected councilman at Cornelius, was in the city Saturday, and called on the Argus.

Joseph Bucher, the veteran who resides above Mountindale, was in the city Saturday evening.

Daniel Stoller, for years a resident of Helvetia, now living in Portland, was out Saturday, greeting his oldtime friends.

R. N. Varley, who recently sold his ranch on the Oregon Electric, west of town, is now located at Buxton.

Masquerade ball at Alpha Hall, Cornelius, Saturday evening, April 16. Walkers' orchestra. Prizes for best costume.

Albert A. Underhill and Mrs. Caroline Fankboner were married at Forest Grove, April 11, 1910. Rev. Hiram Gould officiating.

Oscar Johansen, of near Farmington, was up to the city Saturday, and added the Johansen name to the Argus family list.

Al. Waddle, traveling man for the Van Schuyver Co., of Portland, was in town Monday morning, visiting his customers.

The Glencoe Woodmen of the World are to have their hall painted and tin gutters placed for the roof drain. They are advertising for bids in another column.

Andrew L. Zeller and Mamie Van L. Styne were united in marriage in this city, April 11, 1910. Justice of the Peace G. W. Barnes officiating. The groom hails from Portland.

Farm for Sale—Square 40 acre farm, with running water, all clear, good new buildings, 1 1/4 mile to Catholic church and school, 1-4 mile to district school, located 2 miles north of Forest Grove.—Inquire Wm. A. Verboort, Forest Grove, Oregon, Route 2.

D. S. Nelson, brother of C. W. Nelson, and who has purchased property in Southern Oregon and the Sacramento Valley, departed Friday for his home at Devils Lake, Dakota. He expects to return soon and make his home in the Willamette Valley.

T. S. Wilkes and son are surveying and platting 100 acres for Wm. Brogden, east of town, and near Sewell station. The new sub-division will be known as the "Brogden Acres." The plat is a part of the old Geo. Smith donation land claim and is very likely property.

Geo. Alexander, running a transit on the Central Oregon road now under construction, and who is in the Madras section, recently sent to Hillsboro two pairs of the handsomest Indian gloves yet seen here. The work and decorations surpass that generally turned out by the Siwash.

The Oregon Railway commission has given out notice that they will take up complaints against the freight charges of the Southern Pacific, at Salem, April 28, and they have sent out word to the various commercial clubs and board of trades, advising them that if freight charges to their cities are not properly adjusted to send representatives to the session. The local board of trade has been notified, and if shippers have any grievances they should make them known at the meeting.

If We Had The Money

We'd start a bank on Street in Joe Down's building where we are now located. But we haven't. So we will continue in the grocery business, and it will be our aim to make our store, The Grocery Store of Hillsboro. Let us demonstrate to you that we appreciate your trade and confidence.
