CHAS. BLACK SHOT IN MANHATTAN ROW

Victim Was Born in the Verboort Section, This County

KILLED IN QUARREL WITH MINER Was Well Known in Hillsboro and Portland, Years Ago

Charles Black, well known in Hillsboro and Portland, was shot and killed in a wrangle with a miner, at Manhattan, Nevada, near the Goldfield mining district, last week. Black was born in the Verboort country, north of Cornelius, and after reaching manhood, worked in the Hillsboro livery barn, and later worked in Portland. Some years ago, he was married to Grace Powell, daughter of S. D. Powell and wife. Mrs. Black was in Los Angeles at the time of the killing.

Black's father, Henry Black, was well known to the early pioneers of Forest Grove, Cornelius and Hillsboro, and after living many years in this county, moved to the Touchet country, near Dayton, Wash., where he died a few years ago. The dead man was about 45 years of age.

Black was in business with a man by the name of White. They had an altercation over business affairs and no one seems to know just what their trouble was. Black was well liked at Manhattan, and the citizens of the mining town were much incensed over the killing. Sheriff's deputies were sent to Manhattan to assist the local officers in preserving quiet, as there was much street talk of lynching the slayer. Black had been a member of the Woodmen of the World, of Napa, Cal., but had allowed his dues to lapse about a year ago.

J. A. CAMPBELL.

Elder J. A. Campbell, for many years a Christian minister with residence at Hillsboro, died Friday morning at his home in Portland, after being a sufferer for many months from paralysis. He was born in Adams County, Ill., Nov. 3, 1847, and crossed the plains with his parents in 1852. They first settled in Linn County, later coming to this section. Mr. Campbell was educated at Forest Grove and Monmouth, and entered the Christian ministry at the age of 16 years. He was immersed in 1867 and adhered to the Christian faith all his life. As a preacher, he was gifted with rare powers and eloquence. His life was always busy, but he found time for the subtle instincts. A book of verse published twenty years ago contained many gems of thought.

In 1871, he married Martha Stinson, who died in 1890. Later he was wedded to Lyda Johnson, who succumbed to him. Four sons survive: Bruce E., Spokane, Wash.; Wilford, Lester and Jack Campbell, of Portland.

The funeral took place Sunday. Rev. M. F. Horn conducting the services at the Hillsboro Christian Church, and interment was in the Lewis Cemetery, near Farmington.

A brother, Geo. Campbell, resides this side of Laurel.

Mr. Campbell was highly respected and well known all over Washington County. Perhaps no minister of the gospel had so large a circle of friends in Washington County, and his deep sympathetic nature, and his sunny and jovial disposition, coupled with a rare intellect, made him secure in the hearts of all.

ANDERSON BENSON

Edward B. Anderson and Miss Anna Victoria Benson, of Logan, Oregon, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Sunday, April 17, 1910. Douglas Anderson, of Hillsboro, was groomsmen, and Miss Emma Benson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The young couple received many beautiful presents. After a short wedding trip to Puget Sound, they will make their home in the Phillips' cottage, on First Street, Hillsboro.

Mr. Anderson is the well known proprietor of the Arcade Theatre, and is also interested in the Wigwam.

J. W. Jackson and wife, of Glencoe, were in town Tuesday, Mr. Jackson being in to the Mohair pool sale.

Elizabeth Crandall Perry, of Houlton, Oregon, aged 82 years, and 9 months, a pioneer of 1845, and who crossed the plains in company with her husband, Francis Perry; Harvey Northrup, Wm. Kane and R. E. Wiley, died at University Park, Monday, April 11, 1910. Deceased was grandmother to Mrs. John H. Dorland, of Shady Brook. She was well known to many Washington County pioneers. Mrs. Perry was the mother of 14 children, seven of whom survive.

I represent the Spirella corset. Make selections in your home, where accurate measurements can be taken, and you get a corset to meet the requirements of your figure. Send postal card, or phone call for appointment. Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Oregon, Fifth and Jackson Street. Independent telephone, 584.

Henry W. and I. B. Leisy, of Sweet, Idaho, were in the city, Friday, greeting boyhood friends. They came down from Idaho to attend the funeral of their father, the late Isaac Leisy, Mr. Leisy's will was entered in probate at Portland, Friday. J. C. Lamkin went down as a witness to the will, which was drawn 28 years ago. The estate was left to the wife, after giving each of the children $1.

Dr. O. H. Scheetz, Chiropractic Spinologist, of Forest Grove, is a finely equipped exponent of the science. He has taken the course under D. D. Palmer, the discover and developer of chiropractic. All desiring freedom from pain and sickness should consult him. All diseases. Examination free. Next door to LaCourse's Store, Forest Grove, Ore. 4-6

A small boy accidentally threw a piece of brick into one of the plate glass windows next to the door in the new Imbrie block, the last of the week, and the result was a slight "star" scratch, extending but an inch or so each way. The glass must have been a good one or a clean break would have registered. A break would have cost anywhere from $30 to $50, and the little lad will hereafter be careful when he is "playing ball."

Dairymen attention—The undersigned has for sale some registered Jersey bulls, yearlings, and a few registered Jersey heifers, bred and unbred—as finely bred stock as can be found in the state.—Wm. Schulmerich, near Farmington, Ore., Hillsboro, Or., R. 5, Ind. Telephone. 1-6

John McDonald and wife, of Newberg, and Aug. Poole and wife and Richard Wiley, of Portland, were in the city Sunday, guests of W. V. Wiley. Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Poole are sisters of Mr. Wiley. Mr. McDonald worked at the blacksmith business in this city many years ago.

For sale: Forty acres, Shady Brook section; 4 acres cleared; 1-4 mile from school house; on mail route; 1-2 mile from church; old house. Nice spring; can be piped to house. Three miles from United survey; $1700 terms.—Jas. Gray, Glencoe, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 3. 3-6

Evan P. Hughes, the newly elected pastor of the Cong. Church, will still make his home at Ridgefield, Wash., where he has property, and expects to make his weekly trip to this city to fill the pulpit. Mr. Hughes is very much taken up with Hillsboro's showing from a building standpoint.

For sale: First class baled timothy hay, cut at right season. At my farm, Farmington, four and one-half miles south of Hillsboro. Will sell at $22 per ton cash; $23 on time; subject to raise of market.—John Kamna. 7

G. M. Hunter, the contractor, is engaged in building the brick extension on the Wilkes Bros. Abstract Building, one door south of the Argus office. The vault for the records of the Abstract Co. is already completed, and within a few days the outer walls to the rear of the lot will be finished.

Cream of fresh lemons, for face and hands. A delightful face preparation.—Mrs. M. S. Neyhart, 9th & Main. Independent Telephone 087.

R. J. Schwanke, of Centerville, was in town Friday. Mr. Schwanke is selling the Olds gas engine, and has an announcement in another place in this issue.

Pasture wanted: For 25 head of cattle in one or separate pastures. Will give good price for good pasture. Address Forest Grove, Ore., R. 2, Box 74.

Early Rose potatoes at Greer's.

CARDINALS CLINCH THE INITIAL GAME

Beat the Portland Maroons by Score of Eight to Four

BATTING RALLY SAVED THE DAY Youngsters From Portland Put up Classy Baseball

In a game that for six innings looked to be irrevocably lost, the Cardinals inaugurated a batting rally in the 6th and 7th innings and clinched the initial game at Athletic Park, Sunday afternoon. The Maroons, who have been beating all the amateurs in and around Portland, put up a splendid exhibition of good team work, and their pitcher was all that could be desired. Carstens fanned the first man up, but a score was made before the inning closed. Three more were annexed before the sixth inning, and the Cardinals had nothing to show for their labors, but 5 nice little ovals on the score board. It was here that Jim Cave besought all in the grandstand to stand up—and then the batting rally began, and before the inning was called three tallies were dragged over the plate. In the 7th, the willow was again welded five markers, and it was all off for the visitors.

Considering the lack of team work, the Cardinals did finely. There were basketsful of errors, but both sides were bothered with the bug.

Carstens pitched good ball all the time, although many moundsters would have lost heart as inning after inning passed away without a score. Little Phelps was at his old tricks, and handled the backstop like a leaguer. VanBiarcom, formerly of the Colts, of the Grove, handled first base for some innings, but was taken out, as it was his day off. Van worked hard, but somehow the balls got away from him, although he tried hard. It must be admitted that his chances came hard. Roy Cook umpired the game, and the attendance was superb—grandstand and bleachers being taxed to their capacity and a good overflow on either side. There were many ladies in the audience.

The Hillsboro band was there with the new music; the day was ideal, and the game went right—and the warm afternoon was worth while, anyway.

CHAS. KOEBER, OF SCHOLLS, WAS UP TO THE CITY MONDAY, A BIDDER ON THE EMIL STARK PROPERTY, WHICH WAS SOLD BY SHERIFF HANCOCK.

N. S. PRICKETT, OF BANKS, WAS IN THE CITY SATURDAY. MR. PRICKETT HAS SOLD HIS FARM NEAR THAT PLACE, AND EXPECTS TO TAKE HIS WIFE TO ARIZONA OR TEXAS, FOR HER HEALTH IN THE NOT DISTANT FUTURE.

J. L. SIMPSON, THE SOUTH TUALATIN FRUIT GROWER, WAS IN TOWN SATURDAY. HE SAYS THAT THE FROST, HOWEVER SEVERE, OF LAST WEEK, HAD NOT INJURED HIS FRUIT BLOOMS IN ANY WAY.

C. W. WHITMORE, OF CHEHALM MOUNTAIN, WAS OVER TO THE COUNTY SEAT FRIDAY. HE SAYS THAT UP TO THAT DATE FROST HAD INJURED NO FRUIT, ALTHOUGH ONE NIGHT THE GROUND WAS ENCRUSTED.

PARTIES WISHING THEIR CEMETERY LOTS CLEANED UP AND SEEDED TO GRASS, OR PLANTED WITH FLOWERS; OR KEPT IN SHAPE THE YEAR ROUND, SHOULD APPLY TO HIRAM BENNETT, AT RACE TRACK, IND. TEL. 102; CAN BE CALLED FROM 5:30 P. M. TO 7:30 A. M., OR AT NOON HOUR. EXPERIENCE.

Wm. Wohlschlegel, of Scholls, was up Saturday. He is going into the dairy business on an extensive scale, and is now milking 18 cows. He has just rearranged a barn with automatic stanchions, and has things in fine shape around his stables.

C. O. LARSON, OF SHERWOOD, WAS IN TOWN TODAY. HE OWNS SOME VALUABLE SWAIL AND HAY LAND, AND SAYS THAT VALUES ARE GETTING PRETTY HIGH DOWN THAT WAY, AND, WITH THE PROPOSED ELECTRIC RUNNING PAST SHERWOOD, UP TO THE NEWBERG AND YAMHILL COUNTRY, AN ADDED IMPETUS TO IMPROVEMENT WILL FOLLOW.

Edw. Boge, of Farmington, was up to the city Monday, and brought in three hen eggs that measured, each 6 1-4x8 1-4—all from one hen, and her henship keeps shelling the big fellows out nearly every day. It is not uncommon for a large hen to lay an egg of this size, but when you find one that makes a business of it, and doesn't cackle any more than the ordinary hen, it's going some.

J. W. MARSH, OF CENTERVILLE, WAS IN MONDAY, SETTLING UP THE ESTATE OF HIS LATE SON, W. W. MARSH.

FOR SALE: One year old graded Jersey bull.—Zina Wood, Hillsboro, Ore. 5tf

STOLEN BASES—Wilkes, Carstens. Sacrifice hits—Hinkle 2, Wilkes 2, Muller, Don-Johnson. Base on balls, off Winterbotham, 2; off Carstens, 2. Struck out by Carstens, 7; Winterbotham 4. Hit by pitched ball—Alderman and Carstens.

PHILLIPS SURPRISE

A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reimer, of Phillips, Sunday, the event being the celebration of Mrs. Reimer's birthday, who was aged 50 years last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Reimer expect to make a trip to Germany this Summer, departing some time in June. Those present at the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kuratli, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kuratli, Hillsboro; Andrew Heckmann and family, Fred Hanson and family, Bethany; J. J. Kuratli and family, Phillips; Arnold Dysle and wife, Albert Dysle, and Miss Hazel Reed, Portland. The day was spent in conversation, and a splendid dinner was served.

J. W. MARSH, OF CENTERVILLE, WAS IN MONDAY, SETTLING UP THE ESTATE OF HIS LATE SON, W. W. MARSH.

FOR SALE: One year old graded Jersey bull.—Zina Wood, Hillsboro, Ore. 5tf

Geo. Dooley, of near Banks, was in the city the last of the week.

Miss Martha Luck has returned to Portland, to remain permanently.

Roy Schulmerich, son of Ed. Schulmerich, went out on the P. R. & N. survey, Friday.

T. A. McCourt and wife, of Portland, were guests of Chas. Koontz and family, Sunday.

E. L. Shute will run his chopper on Friday, May 6 the last run of the Spring season. Farmers should take notice of this.

Frank Weisenbeck, of Witch Hazel, was in town Saturday. He says that seeding is not yet finished in his section.

For sale: Good, fresh cows (one with calf at side) or fresh soon.—Victor Callier, 4 1-2 miles south of Cornelius. 6-7

John Schaefer and Ulrich Bartsch, of above Mountindale, were in the city Saturday. Mr. Bartsch has sold his place to Jas. May, of Vineland.

M. C. Hewitt, the carpenter, is still in the housemoving business, and if you have a building to move, see him for an estimate.

A. T. Stratton and family were down from Cornelius, Monday. Mr. Stratton called on the Argus.

H. Peterson, who for years supplied local blacksmiths with charcoal, was an Argus caller Monday.

Dorr B. Waggener and wife, of Portland, were guests at the Geo. H. Wilcox home, the first of the week.

A. C. Winney, of beyond Glencoe, and well known all over the North Plains, was in the county seat Saturday.

Nearly new Iowa cream separator for sale at a bargain. If interested, drop your address to Box 87, Hillsboro, Ore. 6-7

C. A. Hanley, of North Plains, was in town Saturday, and incidentally remembered the Argus rest room fund.

Chas. Koerber, of Scholls, was up to the city Monday, a bidder on the Emil Stark property, which was sold by Sheriff Hancock.

N. S. Prickett, of Banks, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Prickett has sold his farm near that place, and expects to take his wife to Arizona or Texas, for her health in the not distant future.

J. L. Simpson, the South Tualatin fruit grower, was in town Saturday. He says that the frost, however severe, of last week, had not injured his fruit blooms in any way.

C. W. Whitmore, of ChehalM Mountain, was over to the county seat Friday. He says that up to that date frost had injured no fruit, although one night the ground was encrusted.

Parties wishing their cemetery lots cleaned up and seeded to grass, or planted with flowers; or kept in shape the year round, should apply to Hiram Bennett, at race track, Ind. Tel. 102; can be called from 5:30 p. m. to 7:30 a. m., or at noon hour. Experience.

Wm. Wohlschlegel, of Scholls, was up Saturday. He is going into the dairy business on an extensive scale, and is now milking 18 cows. He has just rearranged a barn with automatic stanchions, and has things in fine shape around his stables.

C. O. Larson, of Sherwood, was in town today. He owns some valuable swail and hay land, and says that values are getting pretty high down that way, and, with the proposed electric running past Sherwood, up to the Newberg and Yamhill country, an added impetus to improvement will follow.

Edw. Boge, of Farmington, was up to the city Monday, and brought in three hen eggs that measured, each 6 1-4x8 1-4—all from one hen, and her henship keeps shelling the big fellows out nearly every day. It is not uncommon for a large hen to lay an egg of this size, but when you find one that makes a business of it, and doesn't cackle any more than the ordinary hen, it's going some.

J. W. Marsh, of Centerville, was in Monday, settling up the estate of his late son, W. W. Marsh.

For sale: One year old graded Jersey bull.—Zina Wood, Hillsboro, Ore. 5tf

STICK OF DYNAMITE BREAKS A WINDOW

Thos. J. Allen's Gate Blown to Flinders, Thursday Evening

NOT THOUGHT MURDER INTENDED

Popularly Supposed That an Enemy Intended to Scare

Thos. J. Allen, of Beaverton, has received the double cross sign by some enemy, and last Thursday night his front gate was blown to flinders by a stick of dynamite. One window in the house was shattered and the detonation was heard by many of the neighbors.

Allen is an outspoken fellow, and had been having some trouble over cows running at large. It is popularly supposed that he created some enmity among some neighbors, and that the stick of dynamite was exploded in order to scare Mr. Allen, and no one thinks murder was intended. Mr. Allen had been to the post-office and had returned home early. The blast was touched off a little after nine o'clock.

Allen employed Deputy Sheriff Dessinger to try to locate the outlaw who committed the depredation and bloodhounds were sent for and sent down by the Salem authorities. No track was scented, however. The blast was ignited within about 50 yards from the Allen domicile.

In connection with the case Frank Allen, a young man of the Beaverton section, was arrested Saturday night upon complaint of the man in front of whose house the dynamite was ignited.

Bail was fixed in the sum of $1,000, which was deposited. Young Allen will come before the grand jury soon. He is an industrious young man, and has always been highly respected. The defendant is a son of C. W. Allen, one of Beaverton's esteemed citizens, and now a resident of Portland. The charge against him is threatening to kill.

LETTER FROM LOWNSDALE

LaFayette, Or., April 15, '10. To the Editor:

The time has come when the people of our great Willamette Valley must adjust themselves to new conditions that the progress of other portions of the State are forcing upon us. There are almost unlimited opportunities of increasing our output of fruit just opening before us. These demands for our fruits, especially apples, will add immeasurably to the values of our lands, if we pay strict attention to the necessities of the situation.

I wish to discuss these matters with the people of Washington County and have suggested that a meeting of farmers and their wives and of growers of all varieties of fruits be held in Hillsboro on Saturday, April 23, at 2:00 o'clock p. m.

Mr. Newell, President of the State Board of Horticulture, will also be present and will speak on his experiences during his recent trip to Washington to fight the Lafean apple-box bill.

M. O. LOWNSDALE, Commissioner First District State Board of Horticulture.

M. N. Bonham, of this city, has just closed a seven months' term of school at the Union School district, near Cedar Mill. He was assisted by Miss Templeton, of Forest Grove. Mr. Bonham may take the field and do some assessing for Assessor Crandall.
