If you grow any fruit, or think of growing any, do not fail to come to Hillsboro, Saturday, and hear the addresses at the big fruit meeting, Washington County, by virtue of altitude and protection from cold winds, is one of the finest apple producing sections in Oregon. Our product has the bouquet acquired by no other Oregon apple. Come in and learn something about apple culture, care of the trees, and all that goes along with the orchard industry. Mr. Lowsdale, of the State Board, will be here - and Mr. Lowsdale is the man who made Hood River take off its hat to Willamette Valley apples.

The building of a fine hostelry will mean a great deal for Hillsboro. The town is large enough to give such an institution a hearty support, and that it is needed, and will be a financial success, is already settled in the minds of those who know the needs of a growing city.

Roosevelt may run for President in 1912 - and he will be elected if he runs. Might just as well count the ballots, and give him his certificate of election.

Glints Of The Game

The baseball game Sunday was attended by a splendid crowd. Carstens was in good form and pitched a little better all the time.

Phelps was there with the mitten and his wing to second has lost none of its cunning.

Geo. Alderman the player who succeeded VanBlaricom, on first, was all to the good. "Let George do it" - and he did.

Ash Houston was still the same shifty player as of old. Briggs of the Cardinals, is good enough for any company, and so is Gordon Brown.

Little Wilkes still has a fine survey on the infield. Hinkle fielded some dandies Sunday - and he had his batting eye.

Little Bachelor, in the right field, was there all the time. If any one should tell that Carstens can't steal a base - he's wrong.

A. E. Fleck, of near Cooper Mountain, was a county seat caller yesterday.

Born, to Clyde Lincoln and wife, of Glencoe, April 19, 1910, a son.

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long - so get in your order soon.

Jos. Meier, who came to the United States 26 years ago, and who has lived near Newton, for many years, starts the last of the week for Zug, Switzerland, to visit his boyhood home. He will be accompanied to Europe by Jacob Huber, of Sellwood, an old time friend. Mr. Meier may conclude to make his home back in Switzerland, but the Argus will wager that he will be back among his Oregon friends before many months. Jos. is well acquainted with the many hundreds of Germans and Swiss in Washington County, all of whom wish him "bon voyage" and who hope to see him back again this fall.

Fifteen lads of Tualatin Castle, K. O. K. A., left Hillsboro Friday, by various routes, overland, and made Portland that evening, where they were met by Rev. F. V. Fisher, of the M. E. church. Saturday they were shown about the city and Mr. Fisher introduced the lads to Hon. H. W. Scott, of the Oregonian, E. Lee Paget, Judges Morrow and Bronaugh, and Dr. Thompson, of the Y. M. C. A. The little chaps had a varied experience in their overland "hike," and paid their way by doing odd jobs along the route. This was a part of initiation to a higher degree in the work of the society. Those who made the trip: Gerald Bath, Clifford Long, Verne McKinney, Hallie Ireland, Robt. Greer, Taber Hoyt, Rich Hoyt, Robt. Imbrie, Linn Ballard, Wm. Nelson, Claire Wilkes, Ward Wilkes, Chas. Deichman, Russell Morgan, Brie Goodin and Vining Fisher, the latter of whom went as an escort.

Mrs. M. E. Anderson, of Reedville, was a caller in the city today. Born, to F. W. Wells and wife of Wheeler, below Reedville, April 18, 1910, a son. Born, to Richard Keenan and wife, Vineland, April 20, 1910, a son. Geo. Schulmerich returned Tuesday evening from Southern Oregon, and brought out his new Parry car from Portland. W. E. McCourt, connected with Connell & Co., has taken up his new work at the store - and he fits in like an old timer. Willis Anderson, managing the big Ladd & Reed Farm, at Reedville, was in town the first of the week. Thos. Wyatt and wife visited Sunday with Rush Wyatt, U. S. assistant district attorney, of Portland. The census enumerator is now abroad, and every section in the county is represented. C. E. Deichman is in North Hillsboro. Give them all the information required by the government. A meeting of the ministers of the county is in progress at the M. E. church this afternoon, taking up the question of the temperance movement. Dr. Hollingshead, of Portland is presiding. Mrs. Mary Anna Guyer, aged, and living alone in East Hillsboro, was examined for insanity by Dr. S. T. Linklater, the last of the week, and taken to the asylum at Salem. Mrs. Guyer was the widow of the painter who did some good work years ago, and some not so good. His painting of "Custer's Last Stand" was his best execution, and ranks well with the original conception. Mrs. Guyer has been failing mentally for some years.
