CONNELL & CO.

HILLSBORO, OREGON.

Ex-Sheriff Connell is perhaps more conversant with the needs of travel over Washington county roads than the average man, because for years he had occasion to make many hurried trips over bad roads. Realizing the necessity for a strong vehicle he made arrangements with a Michigan firm for a special manufacture of buggies, designed for Oregon use. The best of hickory, the best of steel, and the best of workmanship—all reinforced above the average make, was the order given, and the carload of special manufacture arrived this week. Call in and see this Michigan buggy at Connell & Co.'s big store.

John Purves, of South Tualatin, was thrown out of a buggy, Tuesday evening, on a hill near the W. E. Smith place, and suffered a Colles fracture, which was reduced by Dr. J. P. Tamiesie. He was injured on the same hill where Mrs. W. E. suffered her accident last fall.

BIG RECEPTION FOR PORTLANDERS

Business Men of the Metropolis to be Here April 29

ALL HILLSBORO TO TURN OUT

Will Welcome the Visitors at the Court House, at 7:00 p. m.

Portland business men, making a trip of the valley in a special car, will arrive in Hillsboro at 6:50 Friday evening, April 29. They will be met at the Southern Pacific depot by the band and all the autos in the city, and the party will be conducted to the court house, where they will be given an impromptu reception. Addresses will be made by Mayor A. B. Bailey, Ex-Mayor Connell, and Dr. J. P. Tamiesie, president of the Board of Trade. Hillsboro intends to give the visitors a royal welcome, and the farmers are also invited in to be at the meeting.

Thos. Richardson, whose excellent work has done much for Portland and the State of Oregon, will be with the party. The old town will endeavor to give the excursionists a right royal welcome—and one they will long remember.

Be sure that you are there!

YOUNGSTERS PLAY BALL.

The K. O. K. A. Club team won a one-sided practice game Saturday with a picked up team from Pacific University, by a score of 14 to 3. The heavy hitting of Hoffman, Lytle, Schroeder and Bettis was the feature of the game, and they were tagged the "Stickers." The K. O. K. A. will play Portland Academy Saturday, April 23, at Athletic Park, and a fast game is promised. "Red" Gillenwater, the clever Glencoe twirler, will pitch and Foord will catch for the Club boys. The teams will line up as follows:

ICE PLANT COMING

The machinery for an ice plant has been ordered from Tacoma, and is expected to arrive next week some time. It will be installed at once at the rear of Emmott's grocery, and the product will be handled at their market. This is something that the town has needed for a long time, and it should receive a hearty patronage.

RETURN GAME BASEBALL.

The Maroons, of Portland, beaten last Sunday by the Cardinals, will be on hand next Sunday for a return game. The visitors claim they did not have their regular catcher with them, and Sunday they expect to give the local nine a game for their money's worth. The Maroons also promise to strengthen their team at other points. The Cardinals, however, have struck their gait, and will work better the coming game than they did last Sunday.

Geo. O. Frost and daughter, Mrs. Beck Hardin, and Miss Shaffer, of North Hillsboro, returned the last of the week from a trip to the Alberta, Canada, section, where they are raising all kinds of wheat. Miss Shaffer invested in some grain land, buying 160 acres. Mr. Frost may later take a plunge at some of it.

J. A. Vandehey and wife and J. J. Smith returned Monday evening, from a trip in Benton, Linn and Marion counties, looking for cheap farm lands. They say that land is a great deal cheaper up that way than it is down here—but that this section has no equal anywhere.

Marshal Baker and wife, of near Laurel, were in town Tuesday, returning from a visit with W. D. Baker and wife, of Buxton. While on the visit W. D. killed a fine bear, which dressed 220 pounds, and still had a fine coat of fur.

A. B. Davis, contracting on the P. R. & N., above Buxton, was down to the city this morning. Mr. Davis says the boys are doing great work on the line, in order to get it through this year.

E. B. Poole, who has been carrier on Route 3, out of this city, many years, dropped his subscription for the rest room into the Argus treasury, yesterday.
