IF OVERLOOKED SEE THAT YOU FIND HIM

Do not Let the Census Taker Miss Anyone in Hillsboro

GIVE YOUR NAME TO THE SECRETARY

Board of Trade Will Then Get You in Touch With Enumerator

Do not let the Census Enumerator overlook you. Hillsboro wants all the count there is in the corporate limits. If by hook or crook you have been overlooked, let the Secretary of the Board of Trade, N. H. Alexander, know it, and he will at once get in touch with the census taker, and have you on the government count.

The two precincts will soon be closed and once gone the enumerator can not get you in his report. You will find Mr. Alexander at his office on Second Street. Give him your name and where you live, and he will do the rest.

ATTENTION, VETERANS

The reunion of the Washington County Veteran Association and their Auxiliary, at Cornelius, to take place on the 5th of May, will be a success in every detail. The program is the result of a desire to please a discriminating audience. There will be vocal music and recitals rendered by the best artists in the Northwest. The speakers have been selected from a long list of Portland's best orators. Drums and fifes have been selected from the Department Drum Corps, which will fill the old town with Army music. Doors open at 10 a. m.; dinner at 12 noon; program forenoon and afternoon. To avoid the crush at the dining tables come late.

W. J. R. Beach, President.
W. H. Morton, Secretary.

LOCALS WIN

The K. O. K. A. "Stickers" won Saturday from Portland Academy by a score of 7 to 5, the game being exciting from start to finish. "Red" Gillenwater pitched a good game for the club team, and held the visitors down for six innings without a score, but he weakened in the last three innings, and the visitors piled up five runs.

Batteries: Gillenwater and Ford, Robertson and Staley. Next Saturday, the team travels to Yamhill to play the High School.

"Whose Fault Will it Be?" is the striking subject at the Christian Church, Sunday evening. Straight gospel preaching. You will be interested in this great subject. Splendid singing. Interesting Bible school at 10 a. m.; contest begins Sunday; morning sermon at 11; Junior Endeavor at 5 p. m.; Senior at 7, great rally of Endeavors, good programme; evening services at 8. You are wanted at all these services. Marion F. Horp, Minister.

Dr. Butler, physician and surgeon with the Sweeney construction camps, at the front, on the Tillamook line, was brought to the Hillsboro Sanitarium, Tuesday evening, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. He was brought in on a special train, and was accompanied by Dr. Buckley, the head surgeon.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Roth, of Seghers, was burned in the night, Monday, and the inmates barely escaped with their night clothes. All the contents were lost. There was some insurance, but as the policies burned with the house, Mr. Roth does not know just how much he will get. Mr. Roth is postmaster at Seghers, which is more properly known as Gales Spur.

Antoine Lebard, formerly of near Kinton, and now residing in Portland, was in town yesterday. While in the city, he called on the religious weekly, which he has read for years, and then helped swell the rest room collections.

N. A. Frost, the census enumerator for South Hillsboro, has about concluded the enumeration in the city limits, and will start for the country the last of the week. The North portion of the city has been concluded by C. E. Deichman. If any have been missed they should notify N. H. Alexander, Secretary of the Board of Trade.

J. R. Bailey, of above Buxton, was down Tuesday evening; returned home yesterday. He says that fruit orchards are now in full bloom up his way with prospects for a fine crop. J. R. has been cleaning up more land, which he expects to plant with trees.
