

1500 Acres Added to

Beaverton-Reedville Acreage

The last tract in this locality now cut into acreage lots and offered for sale. Rapid development of entire community now assured. Select a choice location in this large new addition. We have sold more than 2,000 acres adjoining this new patting, which is rapidly developing in fruit and intensive farming. Only a mile out, good stream and electric car service; all community conveniences established. Timbered land, with running water, $125 to $200 per acre. All cleared land, ready for crop, $2.50 per acre and up. Some tracts with home buildings and some with orchards. Small cash payment and balance to suit. Call at our office, 245 1/2 Stark street, arrange to go with us, without expense to you, and verify the above.

CIRCUIT COURT TAKES AN EXTENDED RECESS

Wikberg, Gaston Man, Gets Instructed Verdict and is Dismissed
JURY ALLOWED TO GO HOME
Court may Return by the Third Monday in May

Judge Aiken, Saturday evening, adjourned circuit court and allowed the jury to go to their homes, subject to call by the court. The business transacted by the court Friday and Saturday follows:

State vs. Wikberg, charged with larceny by bailee; defendant had sold property on which there was chattel mortgage, but testified that he had sold same subject to the chattel; jurors sworn: M. H. Henderson, J. J. Adkins, N. J. Christensen, H. T. Buxton, Thos. Corkill, J. B. Downing, F. McLeod, Carl Her, John Schmeltzer, Wm. Roberts, Edw. Hughes and C. Rehse; verdict for defendant.

Hedge vs. Hedge—order of dismissal granted.

Ingram vs. Ingram; divorce granted.

Etta Kimberlin Maddox granted divorce from Marshal Maddox; property settled out of court.

Jackson vs. Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Co., defendant allowed 10 days to file answer.

State vs. Jacob Challacombe; new trial denied.

Jas. Butler was out from Portland, Sunday.

Edwin Boge, of near Farmington, was in town Monday.

Banker E. W. Haines was down from Forest Grove, Monday.

Fred Hamel, of West Union, was over to the county seat Saturday.

C. W. Loudon was over from Glencoe, Sunday, to see the ball game.

E. A. Wolf, of Reedville, was in the county seat Monday, greeting friends.

Lincoln Geiger, of Cornelius, was crusing timber in the Buxton section, last week.

J. E. Hedge, of Tualatin, and one of the oldtimers of that section, was in town Monday.

F. A. Northrup, of Shady Brook, and who is running the Harris Farm, was in the city Monday.

Miss Susie McKinney, of Portland, visited at the home of Mrs. E. McKinney and other relatives, Sunday.

There is not, and could not be, a more complete line of fruits and vegetables in the city than at Greer's.

B. Leis, the Beaverton orchardist, was in town Saturday, an interested spectator at the horticultural meet.

E. B. Anderson and bride arrived the last of the week, and are domiciled in the Phillips cottage, on First Street.

J. B. Merrill, of Cornelius, was in town the last of the week. Mr. Merrill is one of the best horsemen in his section.

Good, thrifty tomato plants for sale by Mrs. W. A. Marlin, one mile south of Hillsboro, on Laurel road. Also on sale at Walsh's Store.

Miss Alta Niman, of Portland, and who is a daughter of the late A. Niman, was out the past week, the guest of Mrs. M. C. Case.

Ed. Wood, a prominent real estate man of Portland, and connected with the Portland Realty Associates Co., was out to the city Monday.

Wm. Adams, of Mountindale, was in town Monday. He is preparing to prove up on a timber claim in the near future. Mr. Adams has been up in the State of Washington all Spring.

Ferd Groner and F. E. Rowell, having big interests at Scholls, were up to the city Saturday. Mr. Groner says that the mill and brick and tile factory have big summer runs before them, and they find a big demand for the product of both industries.

The frame work is up for the extension of the Wilkes Bros. brick, one door south of the Argus, and in a few days it will be enclosed. The wall will be fire proof and imitation brick. The extra room will be appreciated by the abstract firm. The front will be remodelled.

Drain your low land and make it produce double. We will start the manufacture of the largest tile in a few days. We now have a supply of 4-inch, 5-inch and 6-inch, on hand. Put in your order at once. Our clay is the best for producing good durable tiling. Order now.—Groner & Rowell, Co., Scholls, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2, Ind. Tel. 747
