Jim Hill promises to make it interesting for the Northwest, and, particularly, for Oregon, in the way of railroad building.

Prospects for crops were never better at this time of the year, and the early spring grain is looking fine.

Princess William of Sweden is an expert chauffeur. She is not only a princess of Sweden, but a grand duchess of Russia and the Duchess of Sutherland.

Princess Victoria Louise of Prussia, Emperor William's only daughter, has an exquisitely beautiful string of pearls, which her mother has been collecting for her ever since her birth.

The German empress is, like her husband, an early riser, and she and the emperor breakfast at 8 o'clock, never later. The empress pours out the coffee and sees she has three to do so the emperor would not think of starting the meal.

King Albert of Belgium is devoted to the sciences. He is well up in electricity, mechanics and economics and has lectured on these subjects considerably more than once. He is a soldier besides, having started at the bottom of the military ladder and worked his way up to nobility.

Judging from the good things their Menu calls for the Dem of Sweets will this season be equal to any Portland confectionery in serving fancy sandwiches, drinks and such.
