

FORGER CAUGHT AND LODGED IN JAIL

Tried to Pass Worthless Paper on Forest Grove National

ARRESTED AS HE REACHED PORTLAND

Forged the Name of Alex Chalmers to Check for $125

Joseph W. Clancy, a young fellow of about 30 years, and whom the officers think has a criminal record behind him, tried to pass a forged check on the Forest Grove National Bank, the first of the week, and he is now in the county jail awaiting the action of the grand jury. Clancy called up the bank by telephone, telling A. L. Thomas, who was at the receiving end, that Mr. Chalmers was talking, and that he was about to give a Mr. Clancy a check for $125. A short time afterward Clancy appeared and presented the paper. While the body of the writing said "One Hundred and Twenty Five Dollars," the figures as written in blue ink were $100.25. When Mr. Thornburgh and Thomas examined the check they told him he had better have the discrepancy corrected, as they could do nothing until it was. He concurred, and hurriedly left the bank, saying he had sold Chalmers a horse, and that the purchaser had gone to Portland to get it, and he (Clancy) would intercept him in the city. He left, and their suspicions being aroused, Mr. Chalmers was telephoned. He said he had issued no such a check. Other banks were notified, and the case put in the hands of the sheriff, Frank Stutz, of the Cornelius State Bank, was telephoned, and he understood his informant to say that the check was on the Cornelius bank. He took the afternoon car, and from the description given concluded his man was on enroute for Portland. He slipped off at Hillsboro and telephoned the sheriff's office to intercept at Portland, while he would board the train and watch the forger. This was done, and when Clancy dropped off at the Portland electric depot, an officer was there. Clancy was arrested and brought out to the county jail. The forgery was a poor attempt at imitation. It is said that Clancy worked a Newberg bank recently. The check he tried to cash was found on his person. J. A. Thornburgh, A. L. Thomas and Haskell Ferrin came down last evening, and they positively identify the man. Clancy was bound over by Judge Barnes, yesterday, under the name of Jas. Lansing. His bond was fixed at $2,500. He admits drawing the check.

BANKS BEATS ROY

The first game of a series of the Washington County League was played, Sunday, between Roy and the Banks Invincibles, on the Dooley grounds, the score being 2 to 0, in favor of the Invincibles. It was the best game witnessed there for a long time, says the reporter. Batteries for Banks: VanLum and Wunderlich; Roy: Chas. Bettis and W. Cop. The return game will be played at the Roy grounds Sunday.

MRS. L. W. DAVIS

Mrs. L. W. Davis, of Hillsboro, died at Pendleton, April 28, 1910, from an attack of heart failure. She was buried at Oregon City, by the side of her father. She leaves a husband, L. W. Davis, who owns a home at 12th and Washington, and who came here from Hermiston, last Fall; two sons, Wm. formerly operator with the Oregon Electric, and now night agent and operator at Pendleton; and Ralph, aged 15, now at Pendleton, with the brother; and a daughter, Zelah, aged 8 years. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. G. A. Patterson, of this city. Mrs. Davis went to Pendleton on account of her health, and she died but five days when she passed away.

BIDS WANTED

Sealed proposals will be received by the building committee of the new M. E. Church at Roy, Oregon, until 10 a. m., of the 20th day of May, 1910, for the purpose of constructing a frame church, the dimensions of which will be found in the plans and specifications, which are to be found in the possession of the pastor W. C. Stewart, at Banks, Oregon. The building committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.—W. C. Stewart, Banks, Oregon.

Wm. Rohr, formerly of Banks, and Shady Brook, and who left the Glencoe section last Fall, for a trip South and East, was in the city yesterday, full of praises of praise for Oregon. In all his travels he found no such country and climate as Oregon, and he says he is going to again locate here and be satisfied that old Webfoot can't be beaten. He was in Milwaukee when the municipal election placed a Socialist in the Mayor's chair, and as Mr. Rohr is an ardent socialist, he was better pleased with the election results than he was with the climate. He was accompanied to Hillsboro by Fritz Spatz, one of his oldtime "tillicums."
