

1500 Acres Added to Beaverton-Reedville Acreage

The last tract in this locality now cut into acreage lots and offered for sale. Rapid development of entire community now assured. Select a choice location in this large new addition. We have sold more than 200 acres adjoining this new patting, which is rapidly developing in fruit and intensive farming. Only 10 miles out; good stream and electric car service. All community conveniences established. Timbered land, with running water, $125 to $300 per acre. All cleared land, ready for crop, $200 per acre and up. Some tracts with home buildings and some with orchards. Small cash payment and balance to suit. Call at our office, 245 1/2 Stark street, arrange to go with us, without expense to you, and verify the above.

SCHOLLS, OREGON.

H. M. Basford was up from below Newton, Saturday.

Wm. Hostetter, in the hop business near Reedville, was up to the city Saturday.

D. O. Quick, of North Forest Grove, was in the county seat Saturday.

Theo. Nissen, of near Scholls, was in the city Saturday, on business.

Geo. Bacon went to Portland, Tuesday, to attend the sale of some fine dairy stock.

Albert Keehn, of near Elmonica, was up to the city Tuesday, and called on the Argus.

Will Darity, of beyond Glencoe, was in the city the first of the week.

Geo. Harms, of near Mountindale, was in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Chris. Johnson, of Mason Hill, was in the city the last of the week.

J. Schmitke, owner of the Delaney farm, above Mountindale, was in the county seat Monday afternoon.

M. Palmateer, of near Reedville, and who has farmed down that way for many years, was in town Saturday.

There is not, and could not be, a more complete line of fruits and vegetables in the city than at Greer's.

Monday night a heavy rain visited this locality, and although it suspended farming operations for a while the benefit is not to be calculated.

Good, thrifty tomato plants for sale by Mrs. W. A. Marlin, one mile south of Hillsboro, on Laurel road. Also on sale at Walch's Store. 7-8

Miss Grace Bath, attending O. A. C. at Corvallis, came down the last of the week, called home owing to the illness of her brother, Gerald.

Sheriff Hancock has turned over $186,125.50 to Treasurer Jackson, and Deputy Wilcox and Walter Hamer are computing another turnover, to be made the last of the week.

The Donald Lumber Co., of Crawford Station, expect to finish cutting their present supply of timber this season, and will either buy more in that section or move their mill elsewhere.

C. H. Payne, of Portland, and who is manager of the Donald Lumber Company, with mill at Crawford Siding, on the P. R. & N., passed through town Tuesday, enroute to the sawmill.

Ralph C. Ross, of Chicago, was in town Monday arranging for a Lyceum lecture course for Hillsboro, next winter. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ross who is also familiar with Lyceum course work.

Bring in your tickets to Johnson's new studio and order your photos before June 1, if you wish to get the benefit of special rates. Remember the location—Heidel Block, Second floor, Main Street, Hillsboro.

Green Walker, of near Roy, was down Tuesday. Green says this rain has done a world of good, and given him a chance to leave the field and take a few notes out of that old shell with which he has entertained his section so many years.

J. J. Hartley left the first of the week for Klickitat County, shipping his auto to Lyle, Wash. He will be there until the 18th, the guest of his father, J. C. Hartley, well known in the Banks' section, and who has a ranch up there.

LILLY HESSE DEAD

Lilly Hesse, the youngest daughter of Henry Hesse, died at the family home on Third Street, between Oak and Fir, Monday morning, after an illness covering several months. She was born at West Union, Washington County, April 10, 1889, and lived there continuously until the family moved to this city some years ago. The funeral took place Wednesday, at the Christian Church, and interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Of her immediate family the father, Henry Hesse, who is the U. S. mail carrier between the postoffice and the Southern Pacific, and the following sisters and brother, survive: Mrs. Chas. Meacham, North Hillsboro; Mrs. Amelia Victor, Pullman, Wash.; Miss Elizabeth Hesse, Hillsboro; Mrs. John Fugy, of Phillips; Miss Bertha, who has a position under Post Master Cornelius; and Charles Hesse, in the state of Washington.

Although a great sufferer for months Miss Hesse was cheerful to the end, and had abiding faith that she would recover. Only last week, she was walking about and declared she would soon be strong. A change came Sunday morning and she gradually sank until death relieved her.

John Carlson, of near Elmonica, was up to the city Friday, making the trip in preparation of the funeral arrangements of the late Oscar Nord.
