THE NATION'S DEAD

Next Monday, a grateful nation will honor the soldier dead, a fitting tribute to those who consecrated their lives upon the battle field that the country might live, a united people. The ranks of the Civil War veterans are rapidly thinning, and a day set aside for memorial exercises is a fitting tribute to that love of country which meant sacrifice of life for its institutions. That country is safe which faithfully remembers its heroic dead while actively honoring its present faithful.

SUNDAY'S GAME

Leo Perkins tried hard to slide but his brakes interfered.
Geo. Schumlerich on Third base makes you think of Joe Tinker—only he doesn't.
Mayer Bailey made an ideal first baseman for the professionals.
The Cardinals played great ball, and "baseball luck" broke with them.
The Cardinal hitting order looked better as played, eh?
Luckey certainly made a lucky one when he hit it over the fence.
Chas. Koomt, out in the field, reminded one of a party trying to peel a banana while wearing a pair of boxing gloves.
Clay Freeman played like a veteran at first base and did some excellent stick work.
Dr. Pittenger says he got his strong pitching arm from exercise in drawing molar.
Ed Schumlerich accepted all the chances that came his way—only Ed says it was poor day for chances.
Norman Greer believes that handling oranges and lemons has had a tendency to make him afraid of baseballs.
Roy Grear says he has forgotten all about his muscle soreness since he has sold so much liniment.
Houston some batted. He and Freeman each landed three safe hits—and Freeman's three bagger was a corker.
The way N. H. Alexander turns flips would lead one to believe that at one time he was with the Sells-Floto people.
W. G. Hare says he is now ready to challenge the pennant winners when the Pacific Coast League gets through with the season.
D. Marshall says the Dental student societies aren't in it with baseball when it comes to catching every nerve in the body.
Homer and Lou Emmott are grateful that they buy their beefsteaks wholesale as it makes it cheaper to poltice the sore spots.
Williams struck out nine men—and he did it easily. The big fellow is getting so he pitches himself out of a pinch nicely.
Wm. Ne'con, manager of the business men's team, took the field and at a distance looked like "Your Uncle Marn," so a lady in the grandstand remarked.

BUSINESS IS GOOD! Good Goods, and Right Prices make Business Good. Good Business, and Good Treatment Makes Friends. Friends need goods, and they generally get them from their friends when they know they are rightly treated, provided they can get good goods at right prices. OUR AIM is to carry a complete stock of the best goods at the right prices. IF YOU are thinking of buying a wagon take a look at the Peter S. Schuttler. It'll be a canopy top hack, or a buggy, the John D. ere is hard to beat. It's a binder, the Buckeye is superior to all. If a mower, the Tomcows Crown is the best. If it is a dressy pair of shoes, the Peter card fills the bill, but for hard wear the Sillion Kellogg. If it is a hat, The Conqueror has the style and fit. I t is fencing, your neighbors know the best, they are all using the Pittsburgh Perfect, the fence with the electric weld, the weld that holds. It has no equal, but if you are going to paint those buildings don't be misled by using anything but the Sherwin Williams, the paint with a name of world-wide fame, that even Halley's comet can not peel off. In addition to the above we carry a complete line of General Merchandise. We handle produce. Our Motto is, "LIVE AND LET LIVE." TRY US, Mays & Conover, SCHOLLS, OREGON.

Little Batchelor was there with the big stick, also.
Brown and Williams batted in poor luck.
The blonde catcher of the professional nine was game from start to finish. Art Shute worked hard to land the game but he says the boys he played with were out of batting practice.
