JOSEPH M'CAIRN STILL TRAVELING

Was Sent to John Day to Get Two Horses—Decamps.

WAS GIVEN MONEY FOR EXPENSES

Was Seen in Grant County With Horses and Then Disappears.

Joseph McCairn, soldier in the British army in the Boer War, logger, and landscape gardener, and a faithful attendant at Sunday school while in Washington county, has disgraced himself and cost his employer a bunch of money, and incidentally followed off two horses, which he had been sent after in the John Day, last Spring. McCairn was about 40 years of age, and had worked for some time for H. M. Basford, of below Newton, and not far from Farmington. Early in April Basford gave McCairn a horse and sent him to the John Day country to bring down two horses, a horse and mare, both of which were branded "H" on the left shoulder, and he was last seen at Mt. Vernon, Grant County, where he told a liveryman that the horses belonged to Mr. Basford, of near Hillsboro, and that he was bringing them down to the valley. From that point he left no trail, and it is supposed that he lapsed from the path of righteousness and forgot his Sunday school lesson. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's" etc., etc., and sold the animals and took a long hike to British Columbia, or perhaps crossed the big pond, back to Merrie England.

Anyway, McCairn is a minus quantity; so are the horses; and so is a saddle, which had been made by Gentry & Noble, of Heppner, and which bore their letter stamp, and a new bridle with a half-Spanish bit.

Mr. Basford is out to get McCairn, and will pay a reward of $50 for the return of the horses.

CORNELIUS ELLIOTT

June 21, 1910, at high noon, the marriage of Miss Bessie Emily Cornelius to Mr. John Arthur Elliott, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cornelius, 161 South 14th street, Salem.

The bride was born in Hillsboro and spent much of her early life in Washington county. Both bride and groom are graduates of Willamette University, and the groom also a graduate of the University of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will make their home in Seattle, Wash.

NOW GET BUSY

The Great Northern Railway writes the board of trade that Hill will this Summer and Fall send East a car of exhibits along agricultural and horticultural lines from the Oregon country, for exhibition in the Eastern states. The car will be labelled "From Oregon", and will contain exhibits of grains and grasses, and fruits. He wants cherries on the branch as well as other fruits, on the bough, and has secured a party in Portland who will preserve them for shipment. It is not yet too late for Bing and Lamberts, and here is an opportunity, as Washington County always has some elegant specimens of this fruit. Hill will have a display in the St. Paul depot, and has also arranged for an exhibit, permanent, at Chicago.

Anyone having cherries or other fruit, grains and grasses, or fine vegetables, are requested to see N. H. Alexander, secretary of the board of trade, who will see that they reach Hill's headquarters in Portland.

Team, wagon and harness for sale. Inquire at Argus office, 14t

C. Vohl, of Jobe's Crossing, was in town Monday.

D. B. Reasoner, the contracting carpenter, was in the city Saturday.

Will Pitman, who has been in charge of a big donkey-clearing-land-crew, on the Columbia, came home the last of the week to spend the holiday with his family.

Sam Rafferty, of Mountandale, was in Monday. Sam is getting his appetite whetted up for a fine piece of venison, which he expects to capture as soon as the season opens.

L. Josselyn, of Newberg, had a peculiar accident at the corner of Main and Second, Monday morning. He was abstractedly walking down the street and came to a crossing just as a farmer was passing in a ramshackle buggy. The horse moved slow and Josselyn slowed up a trifle, but not enough, as he soon discovered. His right foot went into the wheel and before he could extricate himself he was turned completely over, the wheel making a revolution. By this time the horse was stopped, and Josselyn pulled out his pedal extremity, with no damage except a skinned ankle and a slight bruise on the nose, which was scraped on the street planking. "By gosh," said the Newberg man, "I've heard of fellers having wheels in their head, but this is the first time I ever knew a passion having wheels in his legs."

I have made arrangements with Ernest Goetter to do blacksmith work in the shop at Laurel on Mondays and Thursdays. He will also be there part of the day at other times, if patronage demands. We trust the people of the Laurel section will favor the shop with patronage and help us to build a greater and better Laurel.—E. T. Turner, merchant.

Geo. Schulmerich, cashier of the Commercial Bank, returned Sunday from the Bankers' meeting at Pendleton. The money lenders had a great session, and before leaving old Umatilla went out for an auto trip to Brigham Springs, one of the finest mineral developments in the Blue Mountains. Twenty-seven auto loads went out and Geo. said that the bankers all had a plunge in the famous hot water that cures all the ills known to the materia medica.

Groceries at cost—White River flour, $1.40; A. & H. soda, 5c; best corn starch, 5c; 50 lb. dairy salt, 25c; 50 lbs. H. G. salt, 25c; Blue Ribbon corn, 8c; Blue Ribbon tomatoes, 8c. All other articles in proportion.—H. Wehrung & Sons.

Dr. C. E. Brown, an old-time Hillsboro favorite, came out Monday with his car, enroute for Denny's Crossing, above Mountandale, to spend the day. Two other cars with the party, and Miss Izetta Jewell, leading lady at the Baker, accompanied Mr. Brown. They returned in the evening in time for Miss Jewell to take the lead at the theatre.

Dr. G. F. Schmelzel, osteopathic physician, of Portland, will be at the Commercial Hotel, Hillsboro, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays of every week. Hours 1:00 p. m. to 4:00.

Geo. T. Brickell, for some years road supervisor in his district, was up from the Sherwood section the last of the week. G. T. found a $10 warrant which had lain in the clerk's office several years and he is that much ahead.

Miss Pearl Smith, of the Argus, and Miss Laura Glascoe, spent Sunday at Collins, Wash., a guest of their aunt, Mrs. Emma McKinney, who is there for her health.

Contractor Holland and T. P. Buzhard have returned from Newport, where they finished a cottage for Rufus Waggenner, formerly of this city.

I. C. Nealigh, of Scholls, was up to the city Saturday. Mr. Nealigh and his brother, J. T., late of Hood River, have just finished putting out a nursery of 23,800 best apple varieties, on I. C.'s place, at Scholls, and they expect to soon have stock for sale. They have carefully selected the best trees adapted for the Willamette Valley. J. T. Nealigh has his sawmill now in operation.

Died at the County Farm.—Mrs. Catherine Miller, aged 70, and a native of Illinois, died at the county farm, Saturday, June 25, after an illness of several months from Bright's disease. She was sent to the farm about three years ago, in company with her husband, J. C. L. Miller, coming from below Beaverton. The husband died a year ago last August. The only property the old lady had was two small lots, for which she was offered $100 a short time ago, but which she refused to sell.

Jephtha Garrigus, the pioneer minister, of above Banks, was in town the first of the week.

When you want ice cream, get the best.—Hazelwood—Koeber's Confectionery.

Martin Vandehey, superintendent of the county farm, was in town Monday, accompanied by his wife.

Miss Anna Dean, in the accounting department of the First National Bank, Forest Grove, was in the city Monday.

Engineer Harry McLauchlan and Fireman Chester Alexander were down from the front, over Sunday.

Jake Milne, who is having a fine cottage built by D. B. Reasoner on his ranch on North Plains, was in town Monday afternoon.

Will and Geo. Darety, two of Glencoe's boys, and who have put in boyhood and manhood at that point, were in the city Saturday.

A. L. West, of Sherwood, secured a bond for his appearance before the grand jury, Friday, and was released from the county jail. He is to answer the charge of statutory assault.

Jas. Gray, who has been in the boot and shoe-making business at Glencoe for fifteen years or more, was in town Monday. Mr. Gray is thinking of going back to the old country in the not distant future.

C. F. Libby has moved into the Imbrie frame building on Third & Main and will remain there until the new Tamiesie hotel is completed, when he will take quarters there with his jewelry store.

Tennis Pyl, of South Tualatin, is experimenting with alfalfa and has exhibited some fine growth, of the first cutting at the Imbrie Land Co. office.

Fred Zilly, traveling for the Irwin Hodson Co., was home over Sunday. He has just completed an auto trip from The Dalles clear through the interior to Prineville and Bend, and says it is a fine trip for a sightseer.

Do not forget the dance—open air—under the big canvas, at Shute Park, Saturday evening, July 2. Toelle's five-piece orchestra and a fine floor, all newly dressed down. Just the place for a nice time.

Andrew Eggiman, for many years a resident of near Cedar Mill, and who was engaged in dairying the last few years, was up to the city, Monday morning. He is now in Portland, working at his trade.

Marshall-Wells' hardware salesman was in the city Monday, and says that in all his travels over the Willamette Valley he found no county where grain looked as well as it did in old Washington County.

R. K. Simpson, who owned the former L. E. Shute place, below Moffatt, and who left here for California, in the Vallejo section, some time since, came up a few days ago to renew "auld acquaintances."

W. H. Forney has about four acres of wheat on the Baseline road, west of town, which has heads averaging at least six inches in length. From present indications the cereal will go at least 40 bushels to the acre.

Elbridge Cheney, formerly of Forest Grove, but who last year bought a place above Banks, was in town Monday morning. His brother, the tinner, M. R. Cheney, is out at the ranch taking life easy, but his health is not the best in the world.

Julius Asbahr, of South Tualatin, has a fine field of barley—about the finest to be seen in the county. N. H. Alexander, secretary of the Board of Trade, wishes all farmers who have fine prospects for grain would save him some nice sheaves for display, as well as for exhibition at the carnival.

R. Sessemann, of Vernonia, and who has been over there for 20 years, was in the city the first of the week, returning from a visit with his son, J. P. Sessemann, clerk in the big Bailey store at Forest Grove. He returned home Monday and says he and his wife will be out to the Hillsboro celebration.

E. W. Dant, the Reedville thresherman, who has put in over 30 years turning out grain, was in Monday, enroute making his machine stands for the coming threshing season. E. W. says that the grain so far has more straw than last year, but its yield is still a matter of conjecture. Last season he had one of the best runs for yield in many years.

EIGHT TO NOTHING CARDINALS V PIEDMONT

Team That Shut Out Gresham Falls to Hillsboro.

VISITORS GET BUT FIVE HITS

Hillsboro Batters Slug Out 10 Hits on Visiting Pitcher.

The Piedmont Stars—the nine that shut out Gresham—came, saw and was conquered by the Cardinals, Sunday, by a score of eight to nothing. Horse colars were all that the Piedmont boys could get although at one time it looked as though they were going to have a batting rally. Fitzgerald went on the mound for Hillsboro and he held the visitors down to five hits and struck out ten men. His support, however, was as classy as is generally seen in amateur games, the fielding by Hinkle, Briggs and Batchelar being superb. The infield played great ball, as well as Brown, Wilkes, Houston and Freeman being all to the good. Every man on the Cardinals got a hit except Wilkes and Houston, and Houston made first and scored in the eighth on an error of the shortstop. When Fitz gets a little less stage fright and a little more experience he should make a great slabster. The line-up:

HOW IT ORIGINATED

The slang expression, "Got His Goat," has become almost universal for anyone who loses out on a deal. The metaphor, which is now world-wide, originated on the old fair grounds in Hillsboro, in the early seventies, and has been going ever since.

Pat Powers and Steve Scorgin bought a race horse from California which had beaten everything he had gone against. When they purchased, the seller gave them a goat, which had always been stabled with the racer as company. There was a strong attachment between the horse and the billy, and two days before the race, some one stole the goat. The horse grieved, and did not eat, and when he went under the wire he was in bad condition. He lost, and when Robert Imbrie, now passed to the beyond, and who was one of the judges, was asked why the best horse lost, he replied logically, "Oh, they got his goat." And it has gone the rounds ever since with turfmen.

VOTE FOR ASSEMBLY

The county central committee of the republican faith met in the city last Thursday and voted to adopt the assembly plan in the coming election. It was voted to hold the primaries July 9 and the county convention on July 16—a week later. The assembly will pick out candidates, it is said, for ratification at the primaries, and it is contended by the leaders of the move that it will have a tendency to discourage so many candidates.
