LONG & MCKINNEY

Jim Hill is asking for bids for the remaining 56 miles from Glencoe to Bay City, and Porter Brothers have already been given the work between Portland and the Glencoe section.

Oregon received better appropriations this session of Congress than it has for many years. And yet there are those so prejudiced that they fail to see what the Oregon senators have been doing back in Washington.

Next Monday is the great American holiday, and out here in Oregon we are yet sufficiently patriotic to lay off and make the day one of general observation.

And it makes our old friend, Hon. Hubert Bernards, smile to see that three-story hotel going up in Hillsboro!

The Modern Maud Miller

Maud Miller on a summer's day Refused to go and rake the hay, And said, "I'll pack my clothes and go Where hay don't grow, and grow, and grow."

She went to town and in a week Was waiting on the townfolk sleek, In an eating house along the street, And you can bet she looked quite sweet.

Before the hay was fairly cured Our Maud had many snubs endured— But she landed a judge with her smile so bland, And now she feeds him from her hand.

So now each year the Judge and Maud, In laying time the old farm land, And just as soon as Summer quickens Go out and eat all Pa's Spring chickens —The Deacon.

Herman Leonard, a bachelor residing near Newton, was struck in the face by debris from an explosion in his kitchen stove, today, and he may lose the sight of one of his eyes. Dr. F. A. Bailey attended the injured man and says that vision is doubtful. Leonard had been absent and some one had entered the house and stolen several articles and wound up their nefarious visit by putting an explosive—possibly, powder—in his stove.

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long—so get in your order soon.

The rain which started about noon today has caught considerable hay down in sections, but the damage will amount to nothing unless it continues several days.

Fred Johansen, of Farmington, was in town this morning, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. John Halvorsen. He says that the Rood hopyard below Newton is looking as fine as any in the county.

To exemplify the popularity of Teddy Roosevelt it might be of interest to state that when the Arcade last week put on a "Roosevelt in Africa film," the house was crowded to the doors and there was not standing room at times. The house had the largest patronage for many months. It is said that the films was not spurious, and that those who have seen the mighty hunter are positive that the pictures were bona fide. Anyway, it was a straw to show that the Dutchman is strong in the popular heart.

Peter Johnson, of East Hillsboro, has raised some of the finest cherries yet seen this season, and some of his product has been shipped as far east as Nebraska, with another shipment to Wyoming. Two boxes were expressed to Reno to be on hand at the big swatfest, Monday.

Edwin D. Hight and M. Ethel Cook were married at Forest Grove, June 28, 1910, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Cook and wife, Rev. W. N. Coffee, Portland, officiating. They expect to go into the foreign missionary field after their honeymoon. They will reside at Montavilla.
