COLUMBIA PARK BOYS IN CITY

Ball Game This Afternoon and at Crescent Tonight at 8:00

ON A TOUR OF THE NORTHWEST

Carry a Splendid Band With Them. Promise Great Vaudeville

The Columbia Park Boys' Club, of San Francisco, arrived here today, and after a ball game at Athletic Park, will give an entertainment at the Crescent Theatre, this evening, commencing their performance at 8:00 o'clock. Their entertainment is said to be very interesting and the Portland Press gives it a high recommendation.

In Emil Hastings and Eddie Nelson, the club presents two clever singers and dancers that always bring down the house. Hastings with his cleverly rendered comic songs, elaborately acted out, and Nelson with his marvelous face grimaces carry all before them. Montague Barton is a star jig and toe-stepping dancer. None better was ever seen in this difficult art and he is irresistible in a quaint black velvet knickerbockersuit. Little Sheridan Williams whose beautiful rich baritone voice has received the plaudits of thousands of Australians a country where boy singing is greatly cultivated, is another star of the first quality.

Of the big acts, the College Football Rally is the great hit of the show. Twenty boys with their dances, yells and songs and the queer professor amongst them, makes a jolly, happy presentation of American College life. The Difficult pyramid building by sixteen boys, in their beautiful costumes is another brilliant performance, which always receives its full quota of applause. Lavell and Burke present a harmonica act which they have given with repeated success for eight years, and they never fail to win several recalls. Perhaps the most popular act is the comical boxing. Two bouts serve to show the clever little and big fellows in their fast work with the gloves and in between, comes the comical bout between Johnson and the great "White Unknown". The "Last Rehearsal" the play that concludes the performance, is what the theatre men call a "scream". It presents a company of bad actors rehearsing for a military drama and the woes of the energetic stage manager cause unbounded merriment until the curtain falls. The music of these boy-musicians is truly marvelous, every one is an artist on the instrument he plays, and in all of the cities they have visited—Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, their band is declared to be the finest that has ever visited the Northwest, although every member of it is only a boy. It can truly be said that their performance is a really high class entertainment and one that our citizens will be fortunate to witness.

Edw. Boge, of Farmington, was up to the city Tuesday afternoon.

Lou Meyers, the potato raiser of near Laurel, was in the city the last of the week.

Mrs. A. M. Wells is located at her cottage over at Nye Creek, enjoying the Pacific breezes.

For sale, cheap: Thoroughbred Scotch collie pup, four months old. Inquire at the Argus office.

John Bohm was over from Jobe's the first of the week. He is now located on the McCourt ranch.

A. G. Watson, of Forest Grove, and K. N. Staehr, the college city music dealer, were in the city Tuesday, greeting friends.

Guy Weisenbeck, of near Reedville, and who is farming one of the big ranches down that way, was a county seat caller Tuesday afternoon.

Buy your dry goods at H. Wehrung & Sons. They are retiring from business. All lines at cost and less than cost. You can have the benefit of these prices.

N. P. Oakerman, of below Beaverton, drove up Tuesday afternoon, and says that the crop prospects along the road are exceptionally fine. Mr. Oakerman has farmed many years in Washington County and says that mid-July prospects were never better for bumper yields, although he confesses that a little moisture would be beneficial.

A CLEAN WATCH
means good time to you for years to come. True economy in a time-piece lies in cleanliness. The delicate parts doing indescribable work will soon wear themselves to ruin, destroy their high finish and perfect fit, when running in accumulating dirt and rancid oil. It will cost you nothing to let me examine it.—C. F. Libby, Jeweler, Hillsboro, Ore.
