HON. H. W. SCOTT. In the death of Hon. H. W. Scott, Oregon loses one of its foremost citizens, and the nation at large one of its ablest editorial exponents. His culture was not that of the aesthetic, but that of the mind which sought analysis of all great questions in the concrete. His editorials unwittingly have done more to build up independent thought in the present generation than any other dozen agencies in the state, or in the Northwest. As Victor Hugo's wonderful word painting of the battle of Waterloo gave one the glint of steel and the thundering of squadrons, so did the writing of Scott on many questions of public policy illumine the reading mind.

His personal side one must have known in order to appreciate. He took an active interest in young men, and it was worth something for the youth in formation of character to listen to his advice, which was never given in the spirit of patronage. Of all the editorial work today in the United States there is none to compare with the editorial that came polished from the pen of the pioneer. Peace to his ashes. The great newspaper which is largely his creation, will thrive in Scott's old battle ground, but it will be many years—perhaps never—when so versatile and able a mind will again control its destinies.

The attempted assassination of Mayor Gaynor, of New York, by a discharged city employee, has filled the nation with indignation. Gaynor has proved himself a man for the place and he has presided over the destinies of New York's millions with a single eye for honest and efficient public service. It is to be hoped that he will live for men of his stamp are not always elected in Gotham.

MORE DECLARATIONS. Wm. M. Jackson has filed his petition and primary declaration, for county treasurer, as follows: "If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability." A. A. Morrill, county surveyor: "Faithfully perform the duties of county surveyor, to the best of my ability." Chas. F. Tigard, Representative: "Oppose all useless commissions and extravagant appropriations of public funds. I desire to have placed on the ballot after my name, the following words: 'Recommended by the Washington County Republican Assembly.'" John A. Chapman, Representative: "Honestly and conscientiously perform the duties appertaining to said office, and will oppose all class legislation and extravagant appropriations of public money." He also wants on the ballot: "Recommended by the Washington County Republican Assembly."

John Nyberg for county commissioner: "Faithfully, conscientiously and fearlessly perform the duties appertaining to said office to the best of my ability." Words on the ballot: "Good Roads; Washington County to the Front!" L. T. Cornell was a beach visitor last week. Attorney O. W. Humphreys, of the Grove, was down Monday, and was present to hear the Rosclair sentence.

Announcement of Geo. G. Hancock. To the voters of Washington County, Oregon: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Washington County, subject to the endorsement of the primary election, to be held on September 24th, 1910. If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office, faithfully and impartially discharge the duties thereof, and give to the people of this County an efficient and at the same time an economical administration.

I further state that I will give the business of that office my personal attention, with courtesy and fair treatment to all. GEO. G. HANCOCK.

For County Treasurer. The undersigned hereby announced his candidacy for the office of County Treasurer on the Republican ticket, subject to the primary, which will be held September 24, 1910. H. G. KING, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Announcement for Treasurer. To the voters of Washington County: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Washington County, on the Republican ticket, subject to the action of the Primary Election to be held September 24, 1910. If I am nominated and elected, I will at all times endeavor to conduct the affairs of the office as carefully in the future as I have in the past. W. M. JACKSON, Hillsboro, Ore., Aug. 8, 1910.

CARDINALS AND GIANTS. The Hillsboro Cardinals and Gresham Giants have signed up for a game at Athletic Park, on Sunday, August 21. This will doubtless be the game of the season, as the Giants are coming loaded.

FOR SALE. Gray mare, 10 years old, weighs 1,250. True to work. Also 30 head goats, nannies and wethers, well bred Angoras.—Oral Gardner, Cornelius, Route 1, 2 miles miles above Mountandale, Pacific States Tel., Glencoe, 97.

L. C. Brown, of Iowa Hill, sent in several boxes of fine Lawton blackberries the first of the week, and they were exceptionally large and sweet. Mr. Brown tried irrigation on his vines this year and "there's a reason." Irrigation works wonders with the blackberry.

Persons living in the county and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long—so get in your order soon.

An adjourned meeting of the Socialist Counts Convention of Washington County, Ore., is hereby called to meet in mass convention at the court house in Hillsboro, Ore., on Saturday, August 20, at 1 o'clock p. m.—Geo. Peterson, County Committeeman.

William A. Green and Nettie M. James, the groom being from Multnomah, were married in Hillsboro, Ore., Aug. 8, 1910, Rev. L. Jean officiating.

For rent: 355 acre ranch in Lane County. 140 acres cleared and in cultivation. Good hay, stock and grain ranch. Inquire of Geo. Schulerich, at Commercial Bank.

N. H. Alexander accompanied Sheriff Hancock to Salem, Monday eve, to aid in placing Rosclair in the penitentiary.

Carl Gribner, of near Banks, was in the city the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Palmateer visited in Oregon City over Sunday. Page Gardner is at the Pharmacy this week, assisting at the counter.

The City and the Country are bound together by the telephone line. The farmer and his family use the rural telephone constantly, calling up each other and the market town on all sorts of matters and for all sorts of supplies and information. City people also find the rural telephone of great advantage. A traveler from his room in the hotel talks with the farm folks miles away. Without the telephone he could not reach them. The farmer himself may travel far and still talk home over the Long Distance Lines of the Bell System.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH CO. Every Bell Telephone is the Center of the System.

RECORDER OF CONVEYANCES. To the voters of Washington County: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Recorder of Conveyances subject to the Republican primaries to be held September 24, 1910, and if nominated and elected will give the office my best attention. H. L. Perkins, Hillsboro, Ore., August 11, 1910.

A large man with a heavy growth of stubble on his face rode into Buxton, from the front, yesterday and went up town to get a shave. He found no one in the shop and proceeded to shave himself. An urchin happened to pass by and called up Hugh Rogers, telling him that a hobo was helping himself to the razors in the barber parlors. Rogers hurried up the hill and entered the shop to find the man shaving himself. He watched him a minute, as the man's back was turned, and had just commenced to consider that he might need help as the invader was of good size. A parting scrape of the razor and the intruder turned around—and lo, and behold!—it was Chas. Koontz, of Hillsboro, who had left camp to get his lilacs trimmed.

Fine chance to build a home; cheap; on easy term; part down; balance as rent; 14 acres, 7 acres easy cleared, rest not bad; nearly enough wood on place to pay for it; just off road with right of way; a spring and on river.—C. F. Bunsen.

The American Women's League will hold a meeting on Friday, August 12, at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. D. Wood. It is important that every member be present, as business in which every member is interested is to come up.

Jacobs and Batchelar have but two more layers of blocks to complete the masonry of the second story of the Tamiesie three-story hotel. They expect to have them laid the end of the week and will then start the last story.

Miss Marie Tunst and friend, Miss Erickson, of Portland, and who have been student-nurses at the North Pacific Sanatorium, are in Hillsboro, on a visit at the Tunst home. The young ladies will enter the St. Vincent hospital Sept. 1.

J. L. Smith, of Tualatin, and who is interested in sawmilling and the manufacture of brick and tile, was in town this morning.

W. N. Hathorn, of Laurel, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Hathorn and wife are the proud parents of a baby girl, born July 30.

Judge Hollis, of Forest Grove, was down this afternoon, and went on out East of Glencoe, on United Railway affairs. Born, to Wm. F. Heinrich and wife, of near Roy, Aug. 5, a son. Born, to Th. Nissen and wife, of near Farmington, July 29, 1910, a daughter.

For Representative. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Representative, subject to the Republican Primary election to be held on September 24, 1910. Chas. F. Tigard.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE. To the Voters of Washington County: I hereby announce my candidacy as Representative for Washington County, subject to the Republican primaries to be held September 24, 1910. Forest Grove, Ore., Aug. 11, 1910.

OREGON ELECTRIC. The schedule of departure and arrival of Oregon Electric Cars for Portland follows:

Table with 2 columns: FOR PORTLAND, FROM PORTLAND. Times listed for various routes.

John Meurer Jr., of near Cedar Mill, was in town this morning, and called at the Argus office. He says harvest and threshing are in full blast down his way.

Mrs. J. C. Hare, of Portland, has contributed $3 to the Rest Room fund. The ladies of the committee expect to build before the wet weather sets in.

The county commissioner's court is holding a session today and tomorrow to clean up road affairs. The viewers have reported $200 damages in the proposed logging road across the C. L. Brown land, above Buxton.

R. J. Charles and wife, who have been with the Crescent Theatre for over a year, start tomorrow morning for Castle Rock, Wash., where Mr. Charles will take charge of a moving picture business.

Superintendent M. C. Case reports 60 applicants for county papers and five for state papers, at the county examination now being held at the school house, Mr. Case, Mrs. Case and B. W. Barnes are the board of examiners.

G. N. Taggart today shipped a dozen apples back to Oklahoma which went close to half a bushel dry measure. The smallest apple in the lot measured 12 inches in circumference and the largest went 16 3/4 inches. One pippin weighed one and one-eighth of a pound. They were taken from a four year old tree and there were about 60 apples in the lot. For flavor they were hard to beat but Mr. Taggart says he does not know the variety. They have a flavor much like the Gravenstein.

There is quite a bunch of dejected looking citizens in the city, and the song, "My wife's gone to the Country, Hooray!" has no particular sense to them. Each of them looks more or less like a dyspeptic and each acts a great deal like he had lost a dear relative. They patronize the moving picture show for amusement, with an occasional swim in the creek and if the list gets much larger the Arcade and Crescent will have to increase the seating capacity. There are others but the chief sufferers are S. C. Killen, H. T. Bagley, Sheriff Hancock, Ed. Wann, Chas. Nelson, L. M. Hoyt, Clerk J. W. Bailey (Mrs. Bailey is with her son Paul, at the Portland Hospital) and E. E. Colestock. Killen says he is cooking along pretty well with his getting but investigation proves that his son Wade is doing the culinary stunt.

August Rossi, of Beaverton, was up to the county seat this afternoon. Chas. S. Roper and Sarah T. Boldrick, of Forest Grove section, have been granted a marriage license.

Marshal Larson this week picked up young Earl Townsend and Harry Gardner, two young lads of the city and charges of incorrigibility may be filed against them. The Townsend lad had been getting delicacies at one of the stores on the family account and had taken a check home, telling his mother that he had been working and that this was his pay. The little Townsend kid is 15 years old, but small of his age, and it is stated that his "high finance" attempt is his first lapse. The boys were taken before Judge Barnes yesterday afternoon for a little sweating to ascertain just what they had done that needed attention.

Stage Names. Kid Easton, the lightweight, I used to admire—His punch was exceedingly hard—But I found, to my grief, when I chance'd to inquire, Childie Weeks was the name on his card. I listened enraptured when Melissa sang She wassed the god in his heart With her melodious voice till I found, With a pang, She was plain Mrs. Patricia McCart. As Diana, the diver, comes down with a turn My bosom with wonderment thrills, But somehow it averts my pleasure to learn That his true name is Thomas F. Mills. When Edmund Flanagan, the tragedy king Brings Hamlet and Shylock to view, I never go near him, I can't care a thing For talented people born Brown. I take no delight as I gaze at the names That history sets us to view Old Pagan was likely a Smith or a James And Casar perhaps a Lipson.

Catty. Mrs. Wrywell—I do wish I could get a good maid. Mrs. Hantille—You might interview mine. I think she'd be delighted to go to you. Mrs. Wrywell—Why, aren't you going to keep her? Mrs. Hantille—She won't stay. She says she wants a place where she won't have so many gowns and hats to take care of.—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Song of the Aviator. (After Ben King) Nothing to do but fly, over the hill and down. Nowhere to go but up, nowhere to fall but down. Nothing to see but clouds, nothing to breathe but air; Nothing to dodge but wind; nothing but death to dare. Nothing to do but go, wherever the mad will swirl; Nothing but storms to face; nothing to feel but thrill. Nothing but necks to rick! Alas and again, alas! Nothing but arms to break, nothing but skulls to crack. 'Tis a tame and a quiet life! More stringing by far to be In the path of a wild joy ride when the riders are.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Like the Trip? Pretty good weather to sail to the pole. On an iceberg, broad and high With by dreams for to end your soul 'Nought my life but a faded glow. But over and over the tale do. For the bread that's life to the hand and you. And never a vision of rest to view. Till time for the last "goodby"—Atlanta Constitution.

Needed in New York. Briggs—I see now they have a company to operate a line of flying machines across the English channel. Griggs—That's a good idea. Let's hope that some day we will have a line across Broadway.—Town and Country.

Color Blind. I guess I must be color blind; I don't know what is right. Wayman says that White is black, And Brown is black as White. I thought my color was all right, Were yellow through and through, But wife maintains that White is green, And Brown is surely blue.—Chicago Tribune.

The Stiff Part. "The judge gave Townson Bowers a stiff sentence." "Why, it was only ten days in jail?" "I know, but the judge recommended that the first day be spent in a straitjacket."—Toledo Blade.

You Bacchanalianist! I wrote my wife I was temulent (She's where there is fiction nary), And she can't find out what the Deuce I meant. It's well to be honest—and wary.—New York Mail.

Convincing. "This palpitating age calls for men who have convictions," declared the orator in the park. "Where, I ask, shall we find them?" "In prisons," called out a man in the crowd.—Scraps.

Along Country Ways. The summer girl is outing now. Along the meadows, on the farm; The country lover tries to show How well he drives with but one arm.—Green Fruit Grower.

Unfortunate. Benson—This anti-trust movement is spreading rapidly everywhere. De Broke—Yes; my tailor has caught the fever now.—Boston Transcript.

The Spider and the Fly. "Will you walk out of my parlor," "The spider to the fly." "Your feet are full of typhoid, And I do not wish to die."—Life.

Way Out of It. "Don't you think a woman should have a vote?" "Sure, provided she doesn't use it."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Sunday Piety. The devil does not care how meek A man may be on Sunday. If he can see him all the week, Beginning early Monday.—New York Times.

SIRE AND SONS. Henry T. Flock has been musical critic of the New York Evening Post ever since 1881. Butler Ames of Massachusetts does not devote all his time to politics. He is an inventor. Just now he is perfecting an aeroplane.

Otis A. Poole, a tenor soprano, of Yankona has crossed the Pacific ocean forty-nine times, equal to about thirteen trips around the world.

John D. Long is quoted by the Boston Post as saying: "I do not want to go to congress, and I have asked my friends to drop the use of my name."

Royal E. Cabell, recently appointed United States commissioner of Internal revenue, is a member of one of the oldest families of Virginia. He is in his thirty-fifth year.

Dr. Charles F. Stokes, the new surgeon general of the navy, has requested his subordinates to refrain from addressing him as "admiral." He declares that, although surgeon general with the relative rank of rear admiral, he is not in reality an admiral, but a doctor and prefers to be simply called Dr. Stokes.

George Schumann, whose oratorio "Ruth" was recently presented in America for the first time, was born at Koenigsstein, on the Elbe, in 1860. He has held several important positions in Germany and has acquired much fame as a director of choral and orchestral organizations, but it is as a composer of music in its larger forms that he is best known.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS. Miss Eleanor C. Zimmerman of East St. Louis has won a prize for drawing the best plan of a seven room house in cost $2,500. She had more than 5,000 competitors.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland is to have a library named in her honor at Wells college, New York, where she was graduated. She was present at the ceremony of laying the sod.

Miss Mary R. May of Peacocks, R. 1, and Miss Alice Cook of Oaklawn, Ia., received a degree of bachelor of divinity at the seventy-sixth anniversary of Hartford Theological seminary.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the Chicago public schools, has been elected president of the National Education association. Mrs. Young is the first woman to be chosen president of the association.

Princess Kabanokole is the wife of the representative from Honolulu. Last winter she proved herself a charming hostess in Washington, giving many elaborate entertainments, and her rare collection of jewels attracted much attention.

One of the pioneers in "back to the soil" idea is Mrs. Henry Parsons of New York. Farm plots, established in vacant city lots, are the means by which she approaches the important question of the enriching and saving of child lives in the congested districts.

The Music Was Fatal. A New York politician once found it necessary to attend an entertainment at an orphan's home and he was having a bad time of it. The selection by the boys' band was particularly distressing. Turning to a friend the politician said with a shudder, "No wonder they are orphans."—Success Magazine.

Multiplication. I had a little secret, And it just couldn't be told. But I bet you thought I was right, And as we sat there in the fading light I slipped and fell, I knew 'twas gone As truly as could be. And now my little secret That I guarded faithfully I believe to Henry Marcus, son. The whole wide town, and no.—St. Nicholas.

The Only Way. "Why did he leave all his money to the black sheep of the family?" "He said the other children were too good to go to jail." "Well?" "And he wanted to fix it so the black sheep would be too rich."—Kansas City Journal.

Notice of Final Settlement. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Administrator of the estate of Margaret Jane McEldowney, deceased, has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington, the Final Account in the matter of said estate and said court has fixed Monday, the 12th day of Sept. 1910 at the County Court room in Hillsboro, Oregon, at the hour of 10 o'clock A.
