SON MISSING TEN YEARS IS LOCATED

Article in Argus Finds Frank L. Roesler Junior, in Two Hours

100 DISHEARTENED TO AWAIT RESULT

Son Shows up Inside of One Day to Meet Father, Who was Gone

Last week's Argus contained a query for the location of a man who had not been heard of for ten years so far as his parents were concerned. The Roesler family lived near Grand Forks, Dakota. The son left that section ten years ago, and a few days ago the father and mother came west to Spokane, to visit relatives. Before leaving they were informed that C. W. Nelson, of the Main Street barber shop, had seen the son in this city about five or six weeks ago. The father left the wife in Spokane and arrived in Hillsboro Thursday morning. He solicited help and the county records of registration were searched, as well as the tax rolls, but no name of Roesler could be found. The Argus then ran the inquiry, the paper going to Reedville on the 5:30 train Thursday evening. After supper the same evening Roesler went over to Reedville to get his mail, when he was told of the inquiry and of the presence of the father in this city. Roesler Sr. had agreed, originally, to remain here until Saturday. As the day progressed, however, he became disheartened at not getting results, and although told that he might expect no information for a day or so, went to Salem to visit Minnesota friends. Friday morning young Roesler arrived at the Argus office to find the parent gone. Telephonic communication was made with Salem at one o'clock and a Mrs. Hilke said that Roesler had remained with them Thursday night and had gone to visit a Nick Simon, another Minnesota neighbor. The Hilkes sent word to the father, at once notifying Roesler of the finding of the son, who has been working on a hay baler in the Scholls and Reedville district. Roesler Sr. is a wealthy land owner in the Dakotas, and is 73 years of age.

Roesler Sr. arrived here from Salem Saturday afternoon and the Argus reporter picked the son up at Reedville and had the two together at ten o'clock. The meeting was very affecting, father and son both crying. The Argus reporter turned on his heel and made his get-away before he too, was about to have a demonstration of tears. They went on to Spokane the first of the week, where the boy meets the mother, who is very feeble, and who wished to again see her eldest born before she passed away.

Jack Wood, Owner.

J. W. Hughes, Auctioneer.

Ralph Imbrie was in from West Union Saturday.

We will be ready to sell and deliver brick after Monday, July 25. Give us a call.—Klineman Bros., North Hillsboro.

Jeff L. Crandall, of Portland, and who is in charge of the shipping department of a big lumber and door concern, was out Sunday, the guest of his father, Kenyon Crandall.

For sale: Good hop baler, Krebs' pattern; 50 hop baskets, and some hop sacks in good repair. Will sell at a bargain.—Ralph Imbrie, Hillsboro, Route 1, West Union.

Judge W. H. Hollis, of Forest Grove, was down to the city Saturday, on legal business. Mr. Hollis is handling the legal business for the United in Washington County.

Benjamin Franklin Catching, of near Forest Grove, died at the family home August 17, 1910, from an attack of heart failure. He was born on the original Catching donation land claim in 1856 and has always lived on a part of the old homestead. He was married to a Miss Anna Owens, but no children survive. For some years Mr. Catching has been in the business of brick manufacturing. His widow and two brothers mourn his loss. The brothers are Edward Catching, of Forest Grove, and J. R. Catching, of California. Catching was a prominent Knight of Pythias, and was buried Saturday under the auspices of that order.

Drain your low land and make it produce double. We will start the manufacture of the largest tile in a few days. We now have a supply of 4-inch, 5-inch and 6-inch, on hand. Put in your order at once. Our clay is the best for producing good durable tiling. Order now.—Groner & Rowell, Co., Scholls, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2, Ind. Tel. 71f

N. H. Jones is carrying a twenty-five cent piece which was dug out from under the old chimney in the house built in pioneer days, on the present Jake Milne farm. The coin is dated 1845 and it took a strong glass at the State bank to determine the year of coinage. The house under which it was found was occupied in early days by James Imbrie, an uncle of the Hillsboro Imbrie boys.

For Sale—Team; 7 years old, gray weighs 1600, bay, 1100; set $70 harness; Studebaker wagon, 3 3/4; all for $675. Also black driving horse, pacer, 1,000 lbs., $150. Horses all-round and trustworthy.—Wm. Hergert, Cornelius, Route 2. 23-5

Hon. Henry E. McGinn and wife and Lotus Langley and wife were in the city Sunday morning. Mr. McGinn had spoken in Forest Grove, Saturday night, and Sunday morning Mr. Langley gave them an auto trip through Verboort and Centerville and then into this city across the North Plains. The Portland visitors thought Washington County had it on all others in the state.

Notice to Farmers Bacht, the celebrated Imported Registered Percheron Stallion, will make the Fall and Winter at the ranch of the undersigned, two and one-half miles northwest of Banks.—E. E. Northrup.

Fred Pritzloff, of Gales Creek, was in town Friday, enroute to Portland. Fred is in the dairy business, and already has his winter supply of milk feed laid in. He states that it is more profitable to lay in at this season of the year as the price invariably advances as the winter comes on.

The Climax Milling Co. will furnish sacks free of charge to farmers desiring to sell or store their wheat at their warehouse. 171f

Paul Bailey, son of County Clerk and Mrs. Bailey, is so far recovered from his second operation for appendicitis that he is able to wheel himself around in a hospital floor ambulance. It is expected that he will be able to leave the hospital by the first of next week.

Hop pickers wanted at the Ray & Co.'s yard, at Witch Hazel. S. P. trains stop at station. Write to W. B. Peterson, manager, Reedville, Ore. 211f

C. E. Koontz and wife and Cal. Jack returned Saturday evening from their outing above Timber. They report a splendid time even if their marksmanship and fishermen's luck did break against them.

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

Ex-Marshal W. P. Atkinson, of Portland, was out to the old home, Sunday, greeting friends. He has bought property in Portland and is making his permanent home there. He thinks Hillsboro is improving wonderfully.

Team for sale: Mare and horse, weigh about 1300 each. Good work animals. About nine years old.—H. Harrington, near Centerville.

Mrs. Sylvia Tucker, of Clarksonton, Wash., was in the city Sunday, a guest of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Powell. She has been spending a month at Newport, and left Monday for home.

We carry a choice stock of fruits and nuts.—Koeber's Confectionery.

REST ROOM BID IS AGREED UPON

Contractor Adams Puts in Bid for Fourteen Seventy Five

TO BE APPROVED BY THE COURT

Construction is Soon to Commence on Much Talked of Building

Contractor Adams has revised his figures for a cement block building to be used as a rest room, and located on the court house square, and the price is to be $1,475. The plans and specifications are now being drawn, and they are to be submitted by the ladies of the committee to the county court for approval. It is said that the building, as at present conceived, will be modern as well as an ornament, and that construction is to begin in the very near future, giving plenty of time for use this winter. The ladies have worked long and faithfully to get funds for the erection of this building, and it will come as handy this winter as it would have been in the warm period.

It is understood that the structure will be located on the east side of the court yard square, between the bandstand and Lincoln Street, somewhere. It is something that the city has long needed, and will be a great convenience for those from out of town who trade in the city. When this is built and the city puts in a concrete watering trough for farmers' horses farmers may come to the city and have modern conveniences, for their families as well as their teams.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the legislature subject to the Republican primaries, Sept. 24, 1910. I am a firm believer in the direct primary and believe in its being kept on our statutes. I am also a believer in direct legislation and Statement No. 1, and on these principles go before the Washington County electorate.

Chas. W. London, Columbia Precinct, Cornelius Route 1.

With a droughty Summer and late Spring, Washington County emerges from harvest with a fine hay and grain crop—equal or better than the average of coast crops, and away ahead of the Mississippi Valley. There's no place, after all, like the Williamette Valley. The fruit crop, worth millions to our orchardists, will be very fair.

Farmers are now hauling in grain and hay and the dust is reported abominable from all quarters of the county. A good soaking rain would do much to make it more comfortable.

Mrs. Rena Brewer, of Portland, was out the first of the week, a guest of relatives. Mrs. Brewer formerly worked at the Independent office.

J. H. Dance, of near Laurel, was in town Saturday afternoon. He is farming on the White ranch.

J. A. Chapman, candidate for the representative on the assembly ticket, was in town Friday.

NEW MILK ROUTE

The undersigned will establish a new milk route in Hillsboro on September 1, and will furnish pure, first-class milk, with standard tests. Those wishing milk may leave orders for same at the Ballard Shoe Shop, near the Crescent Theatre, or telephone Independent Tel. 083, or drop postal to John Madding, Hillsboro, Ore. 23-4

D. M. Whitesell was over from South Tualatin, Saturday, and called on the Argus.

County commissioners Butner and McClaran were in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Connell and Miss Susie Morgan returned Friday from a week at Newport.

County Clerk J. W. Bailey spent Sunday in Portland with wife and son.

J. B. Walker, of below Beaverton, was a county seat visitor Friday.

Green Walker and wife, of Roy, were in the city Friday, on a visit to friends.

Miss Margaret Crusoe, of Portland, was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bagley.

Hess brothers, whose machine burned last week at the M. Fitzsimmons place, paid Mr. Fitzsimmons $55 for his grain loss, although they allege that no one knows just how the fire started, and they do not think it started from the engine. The blaze started when all were at dinner. Rather than have trouble the owners of the burned separator and the lost grain got together and adjusted the loss. Hess Brothers state that they have used every care to prevent fire catching from the engine and they are at a loss to know the fire's origin.

Sheriff Hancock was out in the Greenville section Sunday, to restore to a woman a minor child. She has sued for divorce, and asked the court for an order restraining the husband from interfering with her during the pendency of the suit. The husband went out Sunday morning and took the child away, but before the sheriff arrived he had returned the little one. When told that he was likely to get into trouble if he molested the woman he was considerably abashed.

We manufacture rough and dressed lumber of all kinds, and out of fine timber. If you are going to build, give us a chance to figure on your bill. Will figure at yard, or deliver. We are now sawing from the best timber cut in our section for years.—Groner & Rowell Co., Scholls, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 2. 71f

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lazott and daughter, Mildred, and Miss Ethel Fineout, of Buxton, left last week enroute to the coast. They intend to visit friends along the way and are prepared for a good time in general, taking with them a lot of "fries" and a good supply of other good things. They will be absent about three weeks.

Ice cream delivered to any part of the town. Remember we have Hazelwood. Both telephones.—Koeber's Confectionery.

J. S. Lorusung and family returned Saturday from an overland trip to Tillamook and the Nehalem, returning by the way of the Salmonberry. They made 170 miles in about 8 days and fished along the line.

J. A. Imbrie and wife, and son, Robert, are spending a few days at the Newport beach and surrounding country. Robert took along a hunting and fishing license and left with happy anticipations of a good time.

Money to loan on real estate security. We sell farms. Try us.—The Webfoot Realty Co. Hillsboro. 121f

J. C. Smock, who has been identified with the town of Sherwood for many years, and who laid out one of that town's additions, was in town Monday, on business at the court house.

J. E. Borwick, the Reedville merchant, has this season arranged his store and warehouse rooms so that he is able to keep his stock in nice shape. He is also postmaster for that section.

Wolf Bros. teams, which are hauling rock for the road work west of town, haul over three yards at a load. These Cornelius boys know how to make it pay.

Benton Phillips and wife, of near Buxton, and who have been visiting over in Clark County, Wash., passed through enroute home, last Saturday.

John Goodin, who years ago built many bridges for the county, was out from Montavilla, Saturday afternoon, and called on the Argus.

Hans Rasmusen, the West Union carpenter and rancher, was in town Monday morning.

John F. Carstens and wife returned from Newport, Saturday and were in the city Sunday, enroute home to Banks.

R. S. Alexander, formerly of above Blooming, now of Forest Grove, was in the county seat Saturday.

Thos. Murphy, road supervisor for his district above Mountindale, was in town Monday morning.

E. T. Turner, of Laurel, and in the general merchandising business, was in the city Monday morning.

John Friday was down from Banks the latter part of the week.

A. A. Mead, the oldtimer, has been spending a few days in the city. Ott Hartrampf is down for a few days from the Cedar Canyon hop ranch.

WILL HAVE FINE FRUIT DISPLAY

Growers Requested to Bring in Fruit for Packing

COMMITTEE WILL PACK FOR EXHIBIT

Then Wishes to Send to Portland for Exhibition, Naming Grower

Those orchardists and farmers who are contemplating to send in fruit for the street carnival are requested to at once see N. H. Alexander as to receiving and packing the fruit for display. Mr. Alexander has a practical man who will pack the apples, pears, or other fruit, and he requests growers to bring in a box, if possible of fruit of each variety for exhibition, and he will have it neatly packed free of charge. He asks that the fruit sent in be free of scale and worms, and after it has been on exhibition here it is intended, with the growers' permission, to ship the displays to Portland with the growers' names attached. Neat packing in boxes is one-half the value of the exhibit, and care taken in this regard is worth a great deal to the grower.

For County Judge

To the Republican voters of Washington County. The undersigned is a candidate before the Republican primaries, Sept. 24, 1910, for the party nomination for County Judge of Washington County, Oregon.

If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, conscientiously and impartially perform the duties appertaining to the office, and will use my best efforts to give the people of Washington County a progressive, businesslike and economical administration of county affairs. I favor the building of permanent rock roads, a uniform system of road building, and getting permanent returns for public money expended—and I will earnestly work to that end. I desire to have placed on the ballot, after my name, the following: "Businesslike administration; Permanent Roads; and full value for every cent expended."

G. W. Marsh, Cornelius, Oregon.

Eugene Delplanche, of near Centerville, was in town Monday.

Geo. Biersdorf, of North Plains, was in Monday, taking out hop supplies.

J. B. Stewart, of South Tualatin, was in town Monday afternoon.

Toni Gassner, in the merchandising business at Reedville, was in town Sunday.

August Boge, of near Farmington, was over to the county seat the last of the week.

Martin Vandehey, superintendent of the county farm, was up to the city Monday afternoon.

A. W. Waker, of South Tualatin, was a city caller Monday afternoon.

Daniel Bailey and family, of South Tualatin, were in town Monday.

L. F. Carstens, of Banks, was down to the county seat Monday afternoon.

Do not forget to hold out that extra nice fruit for the coming street fair.

Lee Mead came down from Sheridan the first of the week to go on to Seaside with his father.

J. A. Abbott, of Forest Grove, and who is the chief factor in the new race track up there, states that several horsemen are desirous of opening training quarters up here.

Contractor E. M. Rice has moved the Tamiesie residence from its old foundation and set it eastward a few feet. This house was built by the late William Hay, in the fifties, although it has been remodelled since.

Carload after carload of grading machinery has been shipped out to Roy for the United Railway work, and everything is being crowded to the limit. The contractors have orders to get to the mountains before the wet weather commences.

Louis Ennes, who runs the big steam roller, which weighs about seven tons, is doing veteran work on the road between the P. R. & N. and race track grounds. The only trouble with Louis is that he is so tall that he has to "hump" over when he is operating the engine. It would be wise for him to cut a hole through the canopy for his "kopf" so that he could occasionally stand erect.
