~1910 =d

Start the NEW YEAR by opening an account with the

Hillsboro Commercial Bank

EDW. SCHULMERICH, President GEO. SCHULMERICH, Cashier

We do a general banking business, and the strength of our institution is unquestioned. Courteous treatment to all. Be One of Our Patrons

Pays You 4 Per Cent Interest on Savings and Time Deposits

Base -Ball - Goods

Our Store carries the best assortment in the city, and Our Prices are the cheapest.

Fishing Tackle

We keep the line DeLuxe. Come in and let us show you

Bicycles

Best manufactures of bicycles always in stock. Our bicycle repairing is the kind that "Stays Repaired."

R. LEE SEARS, - Hillsboro.

Garage: Third Street.

TICKETS EAST THROUGH

ON SALE DAILY

Oregon Electric Railway

And Choice of Route Beyond Portland

LOW ROUND TRIP EXCURSION

ST. PAUL ST. LOUIS CHICAGO

DENVER NEW YORK BOSTON

On Sale Sept. 8, 1910.

For rates-Sleeper reservation and full information address.

A. L. RUFF, A G F & P A H, CRONISE, Agent Oregon Electric Ry. Oregon Electric Ry. Hillsboro, Ore. Portland Ore.

PIONEER WOOD YARD

All kinds of Fir. Oak and Ash Wood, four foot, or 16 inch. First class Mountain Fir and A1 pole Oak. Prices reasonable.

All fir wood sold by me will be sawed for 50c per cord for fir, 60c per cord for outside wood; 60e per cord for hardwood. Three-cut sawing, roc extra.

BOTH TELEPHONES.

John W. Masters.

CHARTER NO. So36 CONDENSED REPORT OF

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF FOREST GROVE, OREGON.

At the Close of Business June 30, 1910.

ASSETS	LIABILITES
Loans and Discounts $ 95,214.00 U.S. and Other Bonds 46,875.00 Banking House Fixtures 10,710.49 Cash and Exchange 50,310.03	Capital and Surplus$ 30, Undivided Profits 1. Circulation
Total $203,109 52	Total$203,

Directors: L. J. CORL, JOHN TEMPLETON, T. W. SAIN, H. W. H. HOLLIS, W. K. NEWELL, H. T. BUXTON.

We appreciate your paronage and hope to merit a continuance of same. DEPOSITS: Official statement January 31, 1910, $108,635.91 Deposits: Official statement June 30, 1910, $203, 109, 52. Increase in Deposits 35 per cent.

MAY BE LAST OF POPULAR EXCURSIONS

Lovers of Mountains Should Make Next Sunday's Trip

GO UP AND SEE THE BIG TIMBER

Train Will be Under Conductor Dan McLauchlan

hills and travel over a road that "I thought you told me that you plicate, does not come every day, month as much as you have in one The management has a nice pic- morning I would thank God my life nic ground at Timber, and there spread on the banks of the Ne- ed, still scornfully. "Money!

under the construction charge it you to help your fellow men. will run the train clear to the

Notice to Contractors

Scaled bids will be received by the County Court of Washington when they had a new play to offer to County, Oregon, until 2 p. m. of the theater. Dumas would write to the 8th day of Sept., 1910, and the director of the Porte St. Martin: then opened for the construction of a fill and bridge to replace the bridge on the Armentrout place, foy. Provost and five new scenes near Roy station.

cent of the amount of bid will be duction of the play till better days. required and the court reserves he right to reject any or all bids. Specifications may be seen at the office of the County Judge.

By order of the County Court, J. W. GOODIN, County Judge. August 22, 1910.

MARGARET DYKE

County, and returned to Iowa in 1866. In 1875 she came to Washington County, and in 1879 went to Colfax, Washington, where dren. John Davidson, of Colfax. came down to attend the funeral. The services were held at the preached the funeral service.

SUNDAY EXCURSION

in the morning, and returning, pltable desert. leaving Timber at 5 o'clock in the evening. The charge for along the line.

the day in the mountains is well obscurity. worth the price of the trip. People desiring to get out of the be gruffly inquired.

"You are too late, my dear sir," redust and heat for the day will this trip on the Tillamook line.

The onion harvest is starting early this season J. L. Barngrover has his four acres on nelius, nearly all pulled, and J. same section, are now harvesting. They report a nice crop notwithstanding the dry season, and state that harvesting is earlier this season than usual. Growers generally wait until about Sep-tember 1 to commence taking in the crop.

There is some complaint that ly loading some young goats too at this moment? heavily. A citizen states that the other day he saw a kid goat, six or seven months old, pulling mind that the little chaps can stand only about so much load.

672.21

Prof. Chas. Bradley, who is well known around Banks and Forest Grove, and who is in the you've said." chair of chemistry at Corvallis, is down for a short vacation with Washington County relatives. He was in the city Tuesday, en-route to Portland, from which place he returns to Benton Coun- 1838. The shipment consisted of sev-

HELPING HUMANITY.

Father and Bon Viewed Conditions From Opposite Standpoints.

Twenty years ago, says the Chicago Advance, a discouraged young doctor in a large city was visited once by his old father, who came up from a rural district to look after his boy. "Well, son," he said, "how are you getting along? "I'm not getting along at all," was the disheartened reply. "I'm not doing a thing:

The old man's countenance fell, but he spoke of courage and patience and perseverance. Later in the day he Residents of Hillsboro and along pensary, where the young doctor had went with his son to the free disthe line of the P. R. & N. should an unsularied position and where he take advantage of the Sunday ex- spent an hour or more every day. The cursion to the big timber next terested spectator, while twenty-five father sat by, a silent but intensely in-Sunday as this may be the last poor unfortunates received help. The of the popular Sunday dollar ex- doctor forgot his visitor while he bent his skilled energies to the task, but cursions for the year. The hardly had the door closed on the last chance to spend a day in the patient when the old man burst forth were not doing anything! Why, if I for scenic beauty is hard to du- had helped twenty-five people in a counted for something."

"There isn't any money in it are many nice places where all though," explained the son, somewhat parties can have a luncheon abashed. "Money!" the old man shoutnalem. The train will leave is money in comparison with being of Hillsboro at nine in the morning and will start on its return trip this work every day. Fil go back to at five in the afternoon. Stops the farm and gladly carn money will be made all along the line. enough to support you as long as I If the company can get right live yes, and sleep sound every night of way over the track that is yet with the thought that I have helped

SHREWD VICTOR HUGO.

Quiet Way In Which He Bullied the Theatrical Managers.

Here are the methods which Dumas the elder and Victor Hugo employed My Dear Friend-I shall bring you o

This extravagance would alarm the A certified check for 5 per director, who would put off the pro-Then Victor Hugo would appear and shyly draw a manuscript out of his pocket. He would agree to everything The stock company would play his piece admirably, since all he wanted was a good ensemble; no new decorations would be needed nor any change at all

So the piece would be read, and as the roles were distributed Hugo would say musingly, "Dieu, how fine Frederick would be in that part!" "That is true," Horel would murmur, and a few Mrs. Margaret Dyke, well known days after he would announce that as "Grandma" Dyke, died near Frederick was engaged. Hugo would Banks, Aug. 21, 1910. She was then remonstrate that this destroyed born at Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. the equipoise of the cast, and Raucourt, 24, 1822. The family later moved to Missouri. She remembered Halley's comet in 1835 and with the public had tired of were almost nessed the great falling of the an insult to these great artists. If stars 33 years ago. She crossed Horel showed reluctance at this. Hugo the plains in 1865, and lost a lit- would threaten to withdraw his piece. tle finger while enroute, it being And so the game would go on till, the result of an accident with a little by little, Hugo had obtained ev-

Australia's Stony Desert. The great stony desert of north Ausshe resided until 1907, returning tralia was discovered by Captain Sturt, here and taking up her residence an Australian explorer, in 1845-6. It west of Banks. She leaves no is north of the river Darling and is children and 33 great-grandchil- consisting of sandy dunes or ridges. Its want of trees, except along the creeks, gives the country a sterile appearance. These ridges were probably formed by the joint effect of winds Banks church, and Rev. Smith and a gradually retiring sea. According to Captain Sturt, these waters were gradually lost by evaporation or carried to some undiscovered sea. The only vegetation, growing scantily, is prickly acacias in full bloom, all of The Pacific Railway & Navigation | stunted growth. Water is scarce ex-Company will run its alternate cept in the creeks which are sheltered, excursion on Sunday, August 28, and this is generally brackish. Few leaving Hillsboro at nine o'clock travelers care to traverse this inhos-

A Quick Lie.

Presence of mind recently saved an the round trip will be made all eminent actor his gold watch and chain. While crossing a bridge in a This is one of the finest excur- thick night mist a suspicious looking sion trips on the West Side and man suddenly loomed up out of the "Can you tell me the time, gov'nor?"

find no better enjoyment than plied the actor suavely. "A gentleman who passed a minute ago stole my watch!"-Exchange.

The Aftermath.

Mrs. DuPuy-1 was so surprised to hear that Eoth and Mr. Sissingham Baseline, between here and Cor- were married You know they always used to claim their attachment was T. Rice and Otto Wohler, in the merely platenic. Mrs. Kolkremes-Yes, I remen ber. But now, I fear, they wouldn't claim it was even that. -Lippincott's.

How Like a Man!

Mrs. Nocknoodle-Oh, Norris, it you and kind as you are at this moment three hours, while the widow sang how happy we might be! Mr. Nocknoodle (losing his temper instantly and then hauled up and thawed out with a bellowing at the top of his voice)-Do thorough good licking, handed his There is some complaint that you mean to say, madam, that I am some young lads are thoughtless- not always as good and kind as I am

Jones-Yes, sir; that boy of mine is a two big husky youngsters in a wonderful plano player. Why, he can wagon, and the little quadruped play with his toes! Brown-How old in as he walked, walked off with all had more than he could handle. is be? Jones-Fifteen. Brown-l've the deposits in bank. The youngsters should bear in got a boy at home who can play with his toes, and he is only one year old.

> Liquidizing. "Dry work this speechmaking." "Well, I've drunk in every word "Ah! Making a draft of my speech?" -Lippincott's.

A Pioneer Shipment. The first shipment of wheat from Chicago via the lakes was made in enty-eight bushels.

Aunt Sally's Money

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1919, by Associated Lit-

ow of a farmer. She was a bustling tions as this: "Take the silver uplittle woman with a babyish look. She kept a hired man on the farm and a door," "Count your change." Of hired girl in the kitchen, but she was a boss and a worker as well. She was she had left. When I parted from her kind to wayfarers and a liberal con- at the station she told me that she had tributor to the unfortunate, and she was ready to take advice on all points drawer and made me promise that I but one. There she was singularly obstinate and seemingly foolish,

During his lifetime Farmer Henderson had been the victim of a bank failure. True, he lost only $17 in it, but it was a lesson to last him the rest of his days and to be handed over to his wife when he departed. She had the articles were all present, and been a widow for three years, when a sister died and left her a thousand always kept there was missing. It bedollars in cash. There was then a private banker in the nearest village, and my wife's return or take the consebe was spoken of by all as God fearing and strictly honest. There were people who had known him from infancy, blot on his character. When Aunt ring and no questions asked. A couple Sally got her thousand she was advised to bank it. She declined. After she had been talked to by her neigh- I meditated having a duplicate made bors, her minister, the justice of the peace and others she did consent to drive into the village one day and take had little hope of deceiving my wife a look at the banker. He looked good if I had. She wrote me frequently to other folks, but after five minutes asking if I did this and I did that and "I wouldn't trust that man with a ingle dollar" "But why?" was asked.

You take my word for it, he'll turn out to be a rascal.

She was laughed at, but she said no toe-in banker for her thousand dollars. She'd keep it in the house. Of was ashamed of it. course she was warned of the danger of robbers, but she smiled in her baby way and replied that they could come on as fast as convenient. In a month it was known pretty much all over the county that Aunt Sally Henderson had a thousand dollars in the house. Some said it was buried in the cellar, others that it was hidden in the garret, others still that it was in a trunk under her bed. With everybody talking there was bound to be results.

It was a big tramp who came limping along the highway at sundown one day and talked of his hunger and afflictions. Besides his limp he had his left arm in a sling. No friends, no home, nothing in the future for him. He wept as Aunt Sally questioned him. He was fed and given quarters in the barn. At midnight be came out of the barn without his limp or his sling and raised a kitchen window and stepped in. As he stepped in he also stepped into a beartrap yawning for Weary Willie, and the jaws closed on one of his legs. He was a big man, and he made a fuss according to his size. Aunt Sally dressed and came out of her bedroom and had him carried up and the trap removed, and she said she would see him later. After breakfast his case was attended to. The

The next comer floated in from the village. He was traveling with a circus as a seller of pink lemonade. Although he was making 500 per cent on his liquid he sighed to get rich faster. children, but leaves 12 grand- about 300 miles long and 100 broad, Hearing of that thousand, he walked out to cooper it and buy some cold storage stock. No kitchen window for him. In the first place he was too tony, and in the next he found a parlor window open. It looked good to him. He went in. The same beartrap was there. Aunt Sally had simply shifted it. The victim had a good voice on him, and he used it to arouse the house. He was taken out and laid on the grass as the other had been, but when morning came his punishment was a bit different. The rain barrel at the corner of the house was full, and he was lifted up and ducked until he had swallowed about half the contents and was nearly drowned in the rest. It was the hired man and girl who did the ducking.

The last attempt on that $1,000, so far as heard from, for the widow still lives and keeps it in the house, was a pretty fair plot. A stranger called and introduced himself as a minister, who wanted board in a quiet place for a month while he composed half a dozen sermons and rested up. He toed in, but Aunt Sally took him in and determined to watch. One afternoon at the end of the second week she had to spend an hour at the barn with a sick horse, and he was left to finish a sermon on the sin of dancing and circus going. When she came back to the house he was hunting among the cobwebs of the garret for an old oyster can holding a thousand dollars. He claimed to have gone up there to be nearer heaven, and his claim was not disputed. He was tied up, however, and lowered down the well. It was a deep well and a cold well, and he had would always be as good and gentle no fur coat. He was left there for "Beacon Lights" for him. He was manuscripts and headed out into the world. He had flashes of heat and cold as he went, and he heard Aunt Sally singing "Watchman, What of the Night?" until he was half a mile away,

And two days later the good banker,

The Result of a Search By ARTHUR W. BREWSTER

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

sentminded and generally untrustworthy. She never gives me a letter to post without insisting upon tying string around my finger and a knot in my handkerchief just as if I were a little boy. She objects to my having more than fifty cents in my pocket at one time because she declares I never stop after buying a cigar to receive my change, and half the time car conductors return me ten or fifteen cents short change. My wife recently went to the country, leaving eards stuck up all over the house bearing such miserable injune stairs at night." "Lock the front course I tore them down as soon as left her jewel case in her bureau would go straight home and put it in the safe. Instead I went to my office intending to go home at noon and attend to the matter.

It was three days before I removed that jewel case. Before doing so I examined the contents to make sure found that a valuable diamond ring hooved me to recover that ring before quences, the nature of which I was quite aware. Fortunately the owner was to remain away several weeks. and they vouched that there was not a I advertised a large reward for the of weeks passed and nothing was heard of the ring.

with paste diamonds. But I had no pattern for a workman to copy and Aunt Sally turned from him and said: if everything was safe. I replied that I did everything she commanded and a great deal more. When she asked if I had put her jewel case in the safe "Because he toes in when he walks. I said I had-but not when. Lastly when she asked if all the jewels were there, I wrote, "Your jewels are safe," meaning that they were in the safe. It was a miserable subterfuge, and I

A week before my wife returned I absented myself from my office, giving my time entirely to hunting the pawnshops to which everybody knows stolen articles usually find their way. Near the end of that period I found the ring. I proved my ownership, or, rather, my wife's ownership, and secured the property. Then I asked the proprietor how he came by it. He told me that it had been brought to him by a woman who acted as a gobetween for persons who wished to pawn articles, but were too respectable to be seen entering a pawnshop. He gave me the address of this broker, and I went to see her.

"That ring was stolen," I said to her, 'but I don't suppose you knew this when you pawned it. If you will tell me who brought it to you I'll make no trouble about your receiving stolen property."

She said that she couldn't leave her shop at the time, there being no one to take her place, but if I would call the next afternoon she would take me to

I took the ring home and put it in its place, glad enough to escape the obout on the lawn. There he was tied loguy that would have been heaped satisfy any and all who wish their inupon me for my forgetfulness. That struments attended. Recommends from night my wife returned and found the every firm that has operated in Portland the result of an accident with a house in good condition and nothing horse. She settled in Baker erything he wanted, even to the hired man brought up some blue beech missing. I felt very fine over this, assuming some superiority by telling her that for her to leave out the jewel McCormick, or to the l'atterson Furnicase just before going away was sim- ture Store. ply shocking. If I hadn't hurried home to take care of it something might have been lost. She made no reply, and I was glad she didn't, for it would have been a catalogue of my own past offenses. The next afternoon I left the office early and called on the woman broker who was to show me the thief. She was ready for me, and we sallied forth together. The route we took led my way, which was, to say the least, convenient. She finally turned into the street in which I lived, moving in the direction of my home. What was my astonishment when she stopped at my

"All right," I said, trying to conceal my feelings. "Now describe the thief."

She described my own wife. It was now a clear case that the Jewel was not in the case at the time of my wife's departure. Being curious to know why she had pawned it, I wished to speak to her about the matter, but if I did so I would criminate myself in the matter of neglect. I waited till we were together one evening in her room before dinner and the jewel case was on her dresser. I looked over the contents and asked: "My dear, I don't see your double diamond ring here." Then she confessed that she had pawned it to get a scapegrace brother of hers out of a scrape.

I looked very serious. "I discovered the loss when I put your case in the safe," I said. "I have recovered it.

I handed it to her and told her how I supposed it had been stolen and found it in a pawnshop. I returned the money loaned on it, and since then my wife has been much more tractable.

Water Colors.

Water color painting was gradually raised from the hard, dry style of the eighteenth century to its present brilfiancy by the efforts of Nicholson, Copley, Sanley and others. The Water Color society's exhibitions began in 1805 and may be said to mark the real beginning of modern water color painting. The great master, if not creator, of the art was the celebrated Turner, of whom we read so much in the works of John Ruskin.-Exchange.

How Old They Were. "I see you employ a number of old men."

"1 do." "How old are they?"

"Too old to be interested in canoeing or mandolins or race horses or girls or tennis. That makes them fine for work."-Washington Herald.

Exercise.

Walking, we are told, is a good exercise-better than riding in an automobile. The trouble is that a great many 0. B. Williams Co. of us are not looking for exercise. Milwaukee Sentinel.

Registration of Land Title

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASH INGTON COUNTY

In the matter of the application of John Wood and Elien Wood, husband and wife, for the registration of the Title to the fol-lowing described real property, situate in the County of Washington and State of Oregon, and particularly described as follows to wit: Beginning at the North west corner of section eight (8) township one (1) North, range three (3) west, Will Mer running east 44 chs, and 66 links; thence south 17 chains and 91 links, theree west 44 chains and dolinks; thence north 17 chains and 91 links to the place of beginning, containing eighty (80) acres, more or less, being a part of the North 1.2 of section 8, township 1 m rth, range 3 west, Will, Mer,

To Isaac David Brazilton, and to the iseles at law of Creighton Kuder and Jack-son Kuder and all others whom it may isio, an application was filed by John Wood and Ellen Wood, hisbend and wife, in the Circuit Court of Washington County, Oregon, for initial registration of the title to the land above described,

Now notices you appear on or before the 25th day of Aug. 1910 and show cause why such application shall not be grant-ed, the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the applicants and you will be foreser barred from disputing the

J. W. Bailey, lerk of the Circuit Court of the State of regon for Washington County. Ragiey & Hare, attorneys for applicants

READ AUGUST SUNSET

Read "The Philippines as I saw Them" by General James F. Smith, Ex-Governor of the Philippines, and "California Black Gold, the Romance of the Oil Wells," by Walter F. Woehle, in Sunset for August now on sale, at all new stands, fifteen cents.

Notice of Fina' Settlement Notice is Hereby Given that the undersigned, Administrator of the estate of Marraret Jane McEldowney, deceased has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County his Final Account in the matter of said estate and said court has fixed Monday, the 12th day of Sept. 1910 at the County Court room in Hillsboro, Oregon, at the hour of 10 o'cock A. M. of said day as the time and place for hearing objections to said Final Account and for the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this Aug. 9th, 1910

Dated this Aug. 9th, 1910 Frank E. McEldowney, Administrator of the estate o Margaret Jane McEldowey, deceased. Bagley & Hare, Attorneys for Admin-

FOR SALE

A good dairy and stock ranch of 380 acres; about 125 acres of good bottom land; about 65 acres in cultivation; balance of bottom in good pasture; about 100 acres good timber; plenty of running water; 3 barns; five room house; about 100 fruit trees; county road and telephone line runs through place. Two and onehalf miles from railway station. $30 per acre, on easy terms. J. M. Greear, Corvallis, Or. 21-4

REPAIRING AND TUNING

Twenty-five years experience at making, repairing and tuning planos is a sufficient guarantee that Venen, the toner, can for the past 20 years, besides the mastern factories of Kimball, Estey, Steinway come Leave or telephone orders to

A. P. VENEN, Piano Tuner,

Wise Dental Co. Painless Dentists

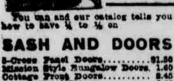

Failing Building, Third & Washington, PORTLAND, OREGON FOUR CHAIR

Barber Parlors Courteous Treatment

Capable workmen Baths in connection, and a Fine Shower Bath Newly Furnished Shop. A trial will please you. JAMES ANDERSON. Pythian Bldg, Hillsboro.

BUY DIRECT FROM THE MILL' We sell nothing but well seasoned, kin-dried fir, put together to stay. Your money back if not as represented.

We are the largest Sash and Door Factory in the Pacific Northwest; own our mill and save you the needless middlemen's profits. If you are skeptical send us a list of the material you need.

We sell anybody. Ship anywhere

Bend for Catalog