Sherwood Merchants Fined for Selling Bad Lard

SEGMERS MAN UNDER THE LAW

Carcass of Dead Deer

Deputy Food Commissioner M. Barnes, of Hillsboro, to answer a charge of selling adulterated lard. The deputy alleges he put adulteration.

They pleaded guilty, however, under the circumstances, and Justice Barnes fined them $25 and costs. The Food Commissjoser will now go after Mr. Jones, who in turn furnished the lard to the merchants.

Judge Barnes had another case vesterday, John Cummins, Sr., of Segners, being charged with mutilating the carcass of a dead which was met with the coin of gelical church. your Uncle Samuel, He will come down Tuesday and plead his case. Cummins says he is not guilty.
