Mrs. Annette Marsh, wife of the well known pioneer, J. W. Marsh, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. G. Weidewitsch, at Cornelius, Friday morning, September 2, 1910, after being a sufferer for a number of years. Mrs. Marsh bore her invalidism with much fortitude.

She was the daughter of the late Jack DeLetts, and was born in Randolph, Coos Co., Ore., October 2, 1835. The family moved to Centerville in 1867 and since that time deceased has made her home in that locality. She was married to J. W. Marsh, October 6, 1870, and they at once settled on the home on Dairy Creek. Her mother, now Mrs. C. J. Anderson, of Salem, and two sisters, Mrs. Molly Newman, of Seattle, and Mrs. Alice Wiggon, of near Garden Home, survive of her immediate family. In her home she leaves the husband and the following children: John Marsh, Forest Grove, Route 2; Mrs. L. G. Weidewitsch, Cornelius; Mrs. T. Green, Banks; Mrs. D. Dr. Elmer H. Smith, osteopathic physician and consulting surgeon, Linklater Block, upstairs. No charge for consultation.

Fred Bower, who has been firing on an engine near Arlington, Wash., was over to Hillsboro and Scholla, the last of the week, on a vacation. Mr. Bower is a son of F. H. Bower, well known here, at Cedar Mill, Mountaineer and Scholla, and who is now located in Idaho. Fred was in the recent wreck that cost the engineer of the locomotive his life, and a timely jump is all that saved his life. He remains in the valley several days and then goes up to Idaho for the balance of his vacation.

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long so get in your order soon.

G. A. Lechner, of near Bethany Phillips section, was in the city Saturday evening. Mr. Lechner came in to get a permit to burn a slash, but found that there was no fire warden here. He says that many are ready to burn and do not know where to apply to get permission to burn. He sent to the State Board of Forestry, at Salem, for instructions.

For sale: Good hop bales, Krebs' pattern; 50 hop baskets, and some hop sacks in good repair. Will sell at a bargain. Ralph Imbrie, Hillsboro, Route 1, West Union.

County Clerk Bailey celebrated Labor Day by keeping open for registration and Deputy Con Archbold was busy nearly all day fixing up those who came to the city. Many came up for the purpose, not realizing that it was a legal holiday. Very few came in the city on other business, and the postoffice kept to holiday hours throughout the day.

For rent: 355 acre ranch in Lane County. 140 acres cleared and in cultivation. Good hay, stock and grain ranch. Inquire of Geo. Schulmerich, at Commercial Bank.

The sawmill below Wheeler, east of Reedville, is being rebuilt. The mill burned a few weeks ago and as the company had a lot of logs cut it was deemed advisable to renew the structure. The timbers are being placed and the machinery will be installed in a few days.

Will pay $13 per ton for good A 1 prunes at the drier. Money ready on delivery. S. L. Hollenbeck, Mountaineer, Or. 24-6

The run on the Forest Grove local via Cook's and Oswego is one of the prettiest on the West Side after the lake is reached, the scenery reminds one of the bad lands in North Dakota, or some of the Wyoming fastnesses.

Keep your chickens enclosed! Just received—a large consignment of poultry wire. Now is the time to buy.—Emerick & Corwin.

C. B. Buchanan, of the Cornelius warehouse of Buchanan & Company, says that nearly double the usual amount of grain has been warehoused this season. This report is duplicated in many other sections of the county.

Money to loan on real estate Terms reasonable. Apply to Kurlati Bros., Hillsboro, Or. 21f

Catcher Behrman, of Cornelius, went down and caught a game for Beaverton, Sunday, against a team from Portland. Beaverton was beaten—but the stocky little catcher says he is willing to try them again.

Frank Wallace, in the government train service at the jetty, below Hammond, was out Sunday, and went down to his Farmington ranch, and also visited with his daughter, Mrs. Scott, of above Dilley.

Will trade my nearly new piano for a good horse, or horse and buggy. Address by letter A. B., care of the Argus.

For County Judge

To the Republican voters of Washington County: The undersigned is a candidate before the Republican primaries, Sept. 24, 1910, for the party nomination for County Judge of Washington County, Oregon.

If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, conscientiously and impartially perform the duties appertaining to the office, and will use my best efforts to give the people of Washington County a progressive, business-like and economical administration of county affairs. I favor the building of permanent rock roads, a uniform system of road building, and getting permanent returns for public money expended—and I will earnestly work to that end. I desire to have placed on the ballot, after my name, the following: "Businesslike administration; Permanent Roads; and full value for every cent expended."

G. W. Marsh, Cornelius, Oregon.

BIG METEOR PASSES OVER WASHINGTON CO.

Thought to Have Buried Itself in Pacific Ocean

FROM TWO TO FIVE MILES HIGH

Seen by Many Who Were Abroad Shortly After Noon Hour

Between 12 and 12:30 o'clock, Sunday, a huge meteor passed over Washington county, coming from the southeast and passing to the northwest. It was seen by a party of autoists who were near Helvetia, and they say it passed over toward the coast, disappearing across the coast and sea line between Tillamook and Astoria.

Others throughout the county say they also saw the meteor, and that to them it appeared to be from two to five miles high, and it appeared to be a foot in diameter. There were a number of sparks shooting from the body, and the illumination was quite plain, notwithstanding the sun was shining brightly.

A minute or two after it passed, many claim they heard a dull intonation, as though it had struck the earth or landed in the Pacific ocean. It is possible, however, that the noise heard was from a blast, as several heavy intonations were heard as early as ten in the morning. Scientists from other parts of the coast allege that they believe this to have been one of the largest meteors ever visiting the coast, and a search will be made to see if the terrestrial visitor has landed in Tillamook county.

PLEADS GUILTY

J. O. Cummins, of near Seghers, pleaded guilty before Judge Barnes, Saturday, to the charge of mutilating the carcass of a deer, so that the sex could not be determined. He was fined $50—which was half of the cash bail he had deposited the first of the week. This law was passed so that hunters could not easily evade the statute where it forbids the killing of does. The district attorney's office can press the charge of killing a doe, but the one penalty may suffice the demands of the law.

BENEFIT DANCE

There will be a benefit dance at Hannan Hall, Buxton, Saturday evening, September 24, under the auspices of the Catholic people of that vicinity. The Buxton orchestra will furnish the music and all kinds of light refreshments will be served in the hall. There will also be a big supper served—such a supper as the Buxton ladies know how to prepare. The net proceeds will go into a fund looking toward making some improvements on the church property.

THE LAST CALL

On Monday several townspeople, newspaper men, court attaches, etc., received the following card—the last preliminary for the celebrated John D. Roselair:

Oregon State Penitentiary
C. W. James, Supt.
Salem, Oregon, Sept. 2, 1910.

Mr. You are hereby invited to be present and witness the execution of John D. Roselair, on Thursday, the 8th day of September, 1910, at the hour of 12:30 p. m., within the enclosure of the Execution Chamber, of the Oregon State Penitentiary, at Salem, Oregon.

C. W. JAMES, Superintendent Oregon State Penitentiary.

A QUICK PAYMENT

John Vanderwal, a week ago Saturday, adjusted a fire loss for Thos. Hinton, whose house burned the same week. Mr. Vanderwal mailed the proof of loss and adjustment on Sunday morning, and on Thursday afternoon received a check for Mr. Hinton, in the sum of $700—the amount of the policy carried by the gentleman. The policy was in the London & Lancashire.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the legislature subject to the Republican primaries, Sept. 24, 1910. I am a firm believer in the direct primary and believe in its being kept on our statutes. I am also a believer in direct legislation and Statement No. 1, and on these principles go before the Washington County electorate.
Chas. W. London, Columbia Precinct, Cornelius Route 1.

C. A. Hanley, of North Plains, was in the city Labor Day.

W. C. Jackson, of Glencoe, was over to the county seat Monday morning.

D. Tschabold, of the Helvetia section, was in town Monday morning.

Peter Gottlieb, of North Plains, was in the city the first of the week.

David Reghitto, of Beaverton, was in town Monday, on legal business.

Wm. Conley, working at the Stephenson mill, above Timber, was down the last of the week and remained over Sunday with his family.

Dr. Elmer H. Smith, osteopathic physician and consulting surgeon, Linklater Block, upstairs. No charge for consultation.

Wanted: Woman to care for modern house, and three small boys. Good wages to reliable party. Both phones.—Mrs. Spencer Brown, Hillsboro, Ore.

W. F. Hartrampf, who was formerly connected with the flouring mill at the Forest Grove S. P. depot, is building a feed mill on Main Street, uptown, and will install the latest machinery.

Herman Rehse's picking crew finished the Toberyard, near the Road place, Thursday, and commenced on the Rehse yard Friday. They expect to finish by the end of next week.

Quite a number of Hillsborosites, chaperoned by J. W. Cave, went to Portland, Monday, to witness the opening day of the Livestock Show and the double header at the baseball grounds.

Apple growers report one of the best crops for years—both for quality and quantity. All along the railway lines are found trees which are propped up to keep the limbs from breaking, so heavy are their loads.

O. W. Epperson and wife, of St. Johns, were out Sunday, guests of Oscar Kelsay and wife. They go from here to their ranch up near Goldendale. Mac Epperson, their son, is now firing a locomotive on the O. R. & N., out of Albina.

Reedville has more cordwood on the sidetrack than any other station along the line of West Side Southern Pacific in the county. There is a great deal of land clearing along the line down in that section, and the timber is being converted into fuel.

G. W. Morgan, of upper Vine-lands, was in town Monday morning, and states that he saw a monster black bear near his home, just after starting. He returned and sent the boys out after Bruin, but results haven't been telephoned in as yet.

Zina Wood Jr. has concluded irrigating for the season, and has run water for 60 days, irrigating about 100 acres, sown to clover, and to oats. Mr. Wood says that it has proven a success and that he has now used water long enough to profit by experience. His pump has thrown 600,000 gallons of water every day it was working, and this means a great deal of water. A fine crop has been the result.

The Argus notes that Portland auto men generally get through the county to report the "awful" condition of our roads. They are not compelled to ship their machines in by freight as they have done from other counties in the state. These same people go through Eastern Oregon, where the dust is worse than it is here and you never hear any complaint. Meantime the Washington County farmer gets his product to market and it is safe to say, with the condensers running, there is more hauling per acre here than any county in the state. And, aside from this, road improvement is being made all along the line, with promise of more next year.

GEORGE W. PARKER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

Was Out Shooting at Chicken Hawks, Friday Morning

FOUND DEAD ON SUCCEEDING DAY

Coroner E. C. Brown Says no Question of it Being Accident

George Washington Parker, aged 58 years, and who arrived at Forest Grove last Spring, taking possession of a place near the A. B. Todd ranch, between Forest Grove and Dilley, was found dead in the timber on the Naylor place, Saturday morning, by his son and daughter. Parker had left the house Friday morning with a double barreled shotgun, and was shooting at chicken hawks, which had been molesting his chickens. A shot was heard shortly after nine o'clock Friday morning and when the father did not come to the house the wife and children made a search. The body was not found, however, until early Saturday morning, when it was located about 225 yards from the house. Everything pointed to accident and Coroner E. C. Brown, who went to the scene of death, says that Parker must have stumbled. The gun had a safety and this was not set. One cartridge was discharged, and the shot had entered his temple, blowing a hole to the dome of the skull. His cap was found on a small limb close to where his body was found.

Parker bought 20 acres and went on the place May 6. He had made many improvements and was well thought of in the community.

His wife and a son, aged 19, and a daughter, aged 16, survive. Coroner Brown impaneled a jury which found that death was accidental. The coroner's jury: Alex Todd, Geo. Sloan, Edw. Naylor, J. M. Hiatt, Ed Rivett, O. H. Wilson.
