VOL. XVII HILLSBORO, OREGON, SEPT. 15, 1910. NO. 27

ALBERT TOZIER MAYOR OF FAIR TENT CITY

Former Hillsborite is Chief Executive at State Fair

FATHERS THE HILLSBORO CONTINGENT

Takes Good Care of the Visitors and Needs no Police

Albert Tozier, well known to Hillsboro people in his boyhood days, is mayor of the "Tent City," at the Oregon State Fair, at Salem, and he is unquestionably the right man in the right place. Mr. Tozier sees that the best of order prevails in his domain, and he generally allots space to the various counties so that friends can camp in proximity to each other.

While he needs no police to keep the peace he has appointed J. A. Imbrie chief of police in the Hillsboro section and John W. Sewell is the police judge. They are having no business and anticipate no trouble, although they expected to have to fine Herman Collier, of Scholls, Wednesday, for entering the precinct without registering.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the legislature subject to the Republican primaries, Sept. 21, 1910. I am a believer in the direct primary and believe in its being kept on our statutes. I am also a believer in direct legislation and Statehood No. 1, and on these principles go before the Washington County electorate.

Chas. W. London, Columbia Precinct, Cornelius Route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbrie, of West Union, are attending the State Fair this week.

To the Republican voters of Washington County: The undersigned is a candidate before the Republican primaries, Sept. 21, 1910, for the party nomination for County Judge of Washington County, Oregon.

If an nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, conscientiously and impartially perform the duties appertaining to the office, and will use my best efforts to give the people of Washington County a progressive, business-like and economical administration of county affairs. I favor the building of permanent rock roads, a uniform system of road building, and getting permanent returns for public money expended—and I will earnestly work to that end.

Sunday was a red-letter day for the people of the Roy community. The New Methodist Episcopal Church was dedicated at Roy last Sunday, with Dr. B. F. Rowland, of Salem, as the preacher. At the conclusion of the sermon T. S. McDaniels, of Portland, took the chairs financier and soon had the people in the mood of giving. At 12:30 lunch was announced and the audience repaired to the school house where it was enjoyed. When 2:30 arrived the people again assembled in the new building and listened to short addresses from Rev. F. V. Fisher, of Hillsboro, Rev. Soper, of the Baptist Church, Rev. Carriek, of the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian Church. Mr. McDaniels took the platform again and in an extremely short time it was announced that sufficient funds had been raised. The indebtedness on the building was $800 and when announcement of the amount was made it was found that $457 had been raised. This new church has a property which is worth about $1500.

There will be a benefit dance at Hannan Hall, Buxton, Saturday evening, September 24, under the auspices of the Catholic people of that vicinity. The Buxton orchestra will furnish the music and all kinds of light refreshments will be served in the hall. There will also be a big supper served—such a supper as the Buxton ladies know how to prepare. The net proceeds will go into a fund looking toward making some improvements on the church property.

The open Grange meeting Saturday was poorly attended owing to the absence of so many to the hopfields, but the exercises were very interesting. Five new members were initiated in the third and fourth degrees. After a jolly Grange dinner the literary meeting was held. The Normal Schools, to be voted upon this Fall, came under analysis, and it was considered that such a school in Eastern Oregon would be desirable, and that the Month school should be maintained by the state, as it is a very worthy institution. The question of a constitutional convention was also taken up, and the general opinion was, that as the amendments were to be ratified by the electors of the state, it is worthy of an affirmative vote. Other questions to be voted upon at the election will be taken up at the next open meeting.

Prof. French, of the Oregon Agricultural College, was in the city Saturday. He is making a trip over the county for geological research. He will report on all deposits of rock which can be utilized for macadamizing roads; tell how best reached by team or by rail, and state which rock is the best for the purpose. This report will go into the state archives and also be sent back to Washington, D. C., for incorporation in the road records of the nation.

Alfred Guerber and daughter, Miss Esther, of Helvetia, returned the first of the week from a visit with relatives in the Bitter Root and Butte sections, Montana, and report a good time. Mr. Guerber, however, says the Oregon climate suits him, as it was snowing in Butte, on Sunday, September 11. What do you know about that?

Persons living in the country and wishing to take the Daily and Sunday Oregonian for one year can, by paying a year in advance, get the Argus and an Oregonian map, or chart, for the one price. This offer will not last long—so get in your order soon.

B. C. Hollenbeck, of Clackamas, was over the first of the week and went on out to Mountaineer, to visit relatives, and look after his interests in that section. Mr. Hollenbeck still owns his ranch on Dairy.

For sale: Good hop baler, Krebs' pattern; 50 hop baskets, and some hop sacks in good repair. Will sell at a bargain.—Ralph Imbrie, Hillsboro, Route 1, West Union.

E. G. Hagey and Dr. Heineck, of Sherwood, were among the Salem visitors, last Thursday, attending the Roselair neektie party.

For rent: 355 acre ranch in Lane County. 140 acres cleared and in cultivation. Good hay, stock and grain ranch. Inquire of Geo. Schulermerich, at Commercial Bank.

Herman Collier and wife, and daughter, Miss Lucile, went to Salem, Tuesday morning, to spend the week at the State Fair.

PRIMARY BALLOTS IN PRINTERS' HANDS

Clerk Bailey Gets Ready for the Primary, September 24

NO DEMOCRATS HAVE FILED

County Ticket is a Blank—Only State Officers on Ballot

County Clerk J. W. Bailey has sent the primary ballots to the printers, and the first of next week Sheriff Hancock will take the ballot supplies to the various precincts. From the county down, on the democratic ballot, there are no filings, and the places are left blank, to enable the voters to write in their choice. The State and district candidates, however, are complete. Even the usual number of candidates for justices of the peace have not turned up in the democratic filings, and the followers of Jefferson and Jackson will have some writing to do when it gets down to county and precinct affairs.

The Republican ballot—as usual in an overwhelming county—is filled, and then some, and the X will be about all there is to it for the Republican voter, except where there are more than one candidate.

The game law states that the open season for upland birds begins October 15, instead of October 1, as erroneously reported in several state papers. The Argus inadvertently fell into the same error. So don't get out and shoot any birds until October 15, for if you do the State authorities will get you. And reading it October 1 will do you no good, either. So get your gun primed for October 15.
