LONG & MCKINNEY

When Hillsboro's new hotel is finished, gatherings like the M. E. conference, now in session here, will be easily handled.

Tawney, standpatter and whip in the National House, was defeated for renomination by an insurgent, in Minnesota, Tuesday, at the primaries. Thus the Cannonites are falling wherever they have a direct primary.

Missed Something

It is said that Teddy, when viewing the Egyptian mummy of Rameses, stood uncovered, silently, for at least 10 minutes, and during that time, he mentally composed:

"You are silent, Ra-me-ses, And peace to your soul! And your spirit's in Heaven already; But you've missed, Ra-me-ses, The greatest of all, The thundering voice of old Teddy!"

Card of Thanks

The undersigned desires to thank the many kind friends who tendered aid and consolation during her recent bereavement, the death and burial of her beloved husband, Otto Leismann.

Mrs. Louise Leismann, Bethany, Ore., Sept. 22, 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bockmann, of Wheeler, below Reedville, were in town Tuesday, transferring a five acre tract, which they have sold from their place in that fruitful section. Mr. Bockmann returned Tuesday morning from Seattle, where he visited a daughter. They were accompanied to the county seat by T. Heidenstrom, of Beaverton.

A mother and daughter from Forest Grove, and who had just taken up their residence in that place, were making their first trip on the Southern Pacific, the other day. The morning was rather cool, but notwithstanding this the daughter was trying to raise the window. Her mother remonstrated with her, but she persisted and had the window half-raised, when the brakeman entered the car to announce a station. "Bertha," he called out, and the girl in anger permitted the window to drop. Turning to her mother, she said, "Where do you suppose that fool learned my Christian name?"

Pulpit assignments for Sunday, Oregon Conference—Methodist Church, 11 A. M. Bishop Charles W. Smith, L. L. D.; 8 P. M. Clarence T. Wilson, D. D.; Congregational Church, 11 A. M. Fletcher Homan, D. D.; S. P. M. Rev. W. C. Reuter, D. D.; Christian Church, 11 A. M. Rev. R. C. Blackwell; Baptist Church, 11 A. M. Rev. F. C. Schofield; S. P. M. Rev. D. A. Watters; Evangelical Church, 11 A. M. Rev. Robt. Sutcliffe; S. P. M. Rev. C. M. Van Marter; Beaverton, Rev. J. W. Hawkins; Oreno, Rev. W. R. Jefferies Jr.; Forest Grove, 11 A. M. Rev. C. T. Wilson.

Ora V. Walker, of Hillsboro, will be entitled to a state certificate when a sufficient period of teaching has been indulged, and Louise Huber, of Beaverton, when reaching the required age, will also be entitled to a like paper. State certificates have been granted Mary Emmel, Scholls, and Rosa Vandehy, of St. Mary's, near Beaverton, and a state diploma has been granted Willis Johnston, of Gaston. The papers were issued yesterday by the State Board of Education, at Salem.

J. T. Powell, of Umatilla, where he is in charge of the engines at that famous old division point, was down to the historic stamping ground Tuesday, the guest of the Slatterys. His son, Clarence, is now hostler—which means that he runs the engines in and out of the round house—at the same point. J. T. says he has an idea that old Hillsboro has been growing some since he left here last year.

P. S. Anderson, formerly a resident of Reedville and Witch Hazel, and who has been up in the Alberta since leaving Ballston, a few months ago, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Anderson says that the season was very dry up in that section, and that crops were not very good this year. He is now spending a few months in the Eastern Oregon country, where he has interests.

W. A. Shaw, who has promoted all the Beaverton-Reedville acreage, embracing several hundreds of acres of fine land, which has been cut up into small tracts and much of it sold to homeseekers, was out to the city Tuesday, on business. Mr. Shaw says that many of his purchasers are putting out young orchards, and it will not be many years until land down that way will be worth as high as a thousand dollars per acre. With fine bearing orchards, and care for trees, his prediction can not but come true.

Deeds have been filed conveying the McMinnville Telephone Co.'s interests from McMinnville to Portland, through Washington County, the consideration being ten thousand dollars. The purchaser is the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Co., successor to the company formerly known as the Pacific States.

With the hop harvest all saved; with a splendid grain crop; with a good yield of hay, and with fruit of all kinds in abundance—Washington County is serene as a day in Indian Summer. And, by the way, did you ever see nicer weather?

The United Railway is rushing construction rapidly out to the Northeast, and it is said that cars will be running to North Plains, the new town near Glencoe, in a few weeks.

Fred Greener, of below Rood's, was down to Portland, the first of the week—and it is a safe bet that Fred saw that "Buffalo Bill" show.

M. C. Hewitt, the carpenter, is still in the housemoving business, and if you have a building to move, see him for an estimate.

Oscar Fenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McClarkin, of Laurel, arrived home last week from a five months' trip to Alaska.

H. H. Cochran, of this city, will begin the Fall and Winter term of school at Columbia Academy, North Plains, next Monday.

Ernest Goetter, the Laurel blacksmith, was in town the first of the week, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

When you want ice cream, get the best—Hazlewood-Koerber's Confectionery.

Mrs. O. M. Gardner and son, Oren, were down from Mountaine, Monday afternoon.

Guernsey bull, 18 months old, for sale. Inquire at County Farm, Newton. 28-29

Judge C. E. Kindt was up from Kinton, Tuesday afternoon.

Al McCumsey, of Mountaine, was in town this afternoon.

H. H. Hall, of Shady Brook, was in the city this morning. Harry has been nursing a siege of the La Grippe for the past week.

Supt. Barnes, of the public schools, reports an enrollment of 435, which is larger than at the corresponding period of the school opening last year.

William H. Holland and Carrie Cox were married in the city today. They will take up their residence in Hillsboro after a wedding tour to Puget Sound and Tatoosh.

George Cramberg, aged 70 years, died at his home near the school grounds, Monday evening, from rheumatism. He had just returned from a trip to Florida, and on the day of death had sold his place, preparatory to moving back to Illinois. His widow survives. There are no children. The funeral took place yesterday. The Crambergs resided on the Gragg property.

Julius Wolf and Herman Simon, of Portland, who with a brother of the latter, who is touring the U. S. A., returned to Portland Saturday, after an extended visit with Emil Fischer, the Botsford mill blacksmith, of Vineland. Mr. Fischer says his friends had a good time, and that the Mr. Simon from Germany says he likes America fine, and that he would become an Oregonian, but for a good position he holds in the Fatherland.

The city council has instructed the Recorder to draw an amendment to the charter, permitting of paving streets, and also an ordinance requiring cement sidewalks to be laid from First to Eighth, and from the S. P. to Grant when old walks must be renewed. The Recorder was also notified to prepare a bond issue of $16,000 to take up outstanding warrants. It begins to look as though Hillsboro will have some pavement, both on the streets and walks.

FOR CONGRESSMAN. HAWLEY OR MULKEY—WHICH? W. C. Hawley is the assembly candidate. B. F. Mulkey submits his candidacy to the people. Hawley opposes Statement One, the direct primary and popular election of senators. Mulkey stands for Statement One, the direct primary and popular election of senators. Hawley stands for Cannonism and stand-patism. He voted for a revision of the tariff to enrich special interests. Mulkey stands for a revision of the tariff downward to benefit the consumer, stands with the insurgents and Roosevelt to make this a "government of the people, by the people, for the people," instead of for the trusts and special interests. Hawley is reactionary. Mulkey is progressive. Mulkey has challenged Hawley to debate the foregoing issues. Hawley has repeatedly declined. Why? Which do you prefer? If you are a stand-patter vote for Hawley. If you are a progressive, vote for Mulkey. NO. 13 ON BALLOT.
