FRIDAY SEPT. 30 IS PORTLAND DAY

Board of Trade Asks All to Get in and Make Fair a Success

LAST CALL TO THE EXHIBITORS

A few Don'ts interspersed With Some Good Advice

Friday, September 30, will be "Portland Day" and we ask every man, woman and child, to help make the Fair the success it deserves to be—in fact we appeal to your personal pride in your county, knowing as you must, that it is second to none. Don't hold back because your neighbor has not the gumption or get up to be in the swim, but take the lead yourself and talk Fair for the next week to all with whom you come in contact, and ask them to bring or send something for display. We have been telling the people about the wonderful apples, pears, plums, grains and grasses we raise in old Washington, and they have said "show us", so it is up to us to show them that we have the goods.

Please see that the apples are of uniform size. Send in as many different varieties as you can.

Saturday, October 1, is the day, 2 o'clock is the time, and the Court House the place, where all are invited who are interested in the formation of a fruit growers association.

A FEW FAIR DON'TS

Don't let anything keep you away from the Fair next week.

Don't keep all the good things you raise at home; let others see them.

Don't let your neighbor keep his apples at home, they must be seen to be appreciated.

Don't refuse to exhibit a box of apples worth 75 cents this year, when the success of the Fair means $1.50 for the whole crop next year.

Don't forget that it is to your interest to help make the Fair a success in every possible way.

This is the last chance I will get to tell you the Fair belongs to the farmers of the county, and its success depends on you—so put your shoulder to the wheel and push hard.

N. H. ALEXANDER,
Sec. Board of Trade.

Particular News for Particular People

Some stores think that particular women are a "nuisance."

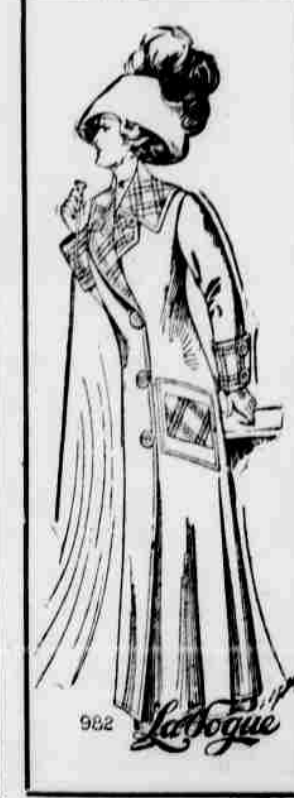

We count particular women profitable. We're particular ourselves and we like that quality in others. The particular shopper is critical of defects, but is usually enthusiastic over merits.

If every particular woman in town will come into our cloak and suit department tomorrow, we guarantee that we can outfit her to her perfect satisfaction. We have great confidence in these LaVogue garments—because we've searched everywhere for better and not found them. Manufacturers are particular in selecting; and we invite you to most critical inspection before you purchase.

Don't feel under obligations to buy. You are welcome to examine and try on all of the tasteful LaVogue styles.

We suggest, however, that you visit our cloak department soon before the selection becomes broken.
