

OREGON METHODISTS NOW IN CONFERENCE

Convened in Hillsboro Tuesday Evening, Sept. 20

HOUDING SESSIONS IN M. E. CHURCH Deliberations Presided Over by Bishop Chas. W. Smith

The 25th annual conference of the Oregon Methodist Episcopal Church convened in this city Tuesday evening, the session opening in the new church building.

The public reception to the conference ministry was opened at 7:30 p. m., Rev. F. V. Fisher, of the local church, presiding, State Senator W. N. Barrett delivered the address of welcome and the response by Bishop Charles W. Smith was a splendid effort.

At 8:30 p. m., Rev. Thomas Nicholson, of New York, corresponding secretary of the Methodist Episcopal board of education, addressed the conference on the subject of church universities.

Rev. Nicholson is now in the West looking after the various M. E. universities, and hopes to lay a foundation for the aid of Willamette University through the Rockefeller fund.

Yesterday morning the conference settled down to business. The morning devotion was opened by Rev. Fletcher Holman, of Willamette University, after which the conference organized. Then followed the statistical report and the conference sermon, which was delivered by Rev. Freese, of Klamath Falls.

The reports of the Sunday Schools were heard in the afternoon, and an address was made by Rev. David Downey, of Chicago. An outdoor meeting last evening, at 7:00, and the report of Epworth League work, ended yesterday's session.

Rev. W. C. Stewart, of Banks, handled the Epworth League Anniversary, which was supplemented by an address by Rev. Edwin Randall, of Chicago, the general secretary of the League.

At 8:30 this morning the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed, which was followed by the business session, taking up the forenoon. At two o'clock the Missionary work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was taken up, and an address was delivered by Miss Carrie Bange, Tacoma, national secretary of the field work of the Young Peoples' work.

At four o'clock the work of the Board of Foreign Missions was under consideration, and this was followed by an address by Rev. S. S. Sullivan, of Vancouver, Wash.

At seven this evening Rev. W. J. McDougall, of Portland, will report on the Freedmen's Aid Society, and Rev. C. R. Mason, of Chicago's celebrated negro ministers, who has a nation-wide reputation as an orator and minister, will make an address.

The session adjourns this evening after an address by Rev. W. B. Hollingshead, of Portland. The remainder of the program, official, appears in another place in this issue.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our heartfelt gratitude for the help and sympathy received in our recent affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. White and Family, Cornelius, Ore., Sept. 22, 1910.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute of Portland, Ore., operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. K. and Wireless officials and places all graduates in positions. It will pay you to write them for full details. 27-9

AWAUTION SALE

Tuesday, Oct. 4, 11 a. m., quarter of a mile southeast of Hillsdale postoffice (Bertha station), half mile northwest of Capitol Hill, on the McCall farm, I will offer at public sale: 30 head of good dairy cows, some fresh and some coming fresh soon; 1 year-old Jersey Holstein bull. All cows are tested. Lunch at noon.

Terms—Sums of $10 and under cash; over $10 one year's time at 8 per cent; bankable note; 2 per cent cash on sums over $10. PETER STEUDER, Owner. J. C. Kurathi, Auctioneer; Ed. Shute, Clerk.

Articles of incorporation for the Mountaineer-Helvetia Swiss Association have been filed with the county clerk. The organization will look after the Swiss needy by the way they will be hard to find and seeks to cultivate social intercourse between the Swiss; buy and sell real estate; provide amusement for its membership. The association already has $2,000 worth of property, and its sources of revenues will be from fees and assessments. J. J. Nimbamer, Carl Christener and Gottfried Yungen are the incorporators and present trustees. The home of the society will be in Helvetia.

Jon. Bishop, aged 31 years, and a son of Joseph Bishop, of Helvetia, is still in the land of the missing. He left a logging camp near Scappoose, two weeks ago tomorrow morning, and although search parties hunted for days, and William Bishop, of Helvetia, went down and hunted a week, no trace of the missing brother was discovered. Young Bishop had his gun with him, and it is thought he may have been killed through accident.

As an echo of the famous Rose-lair case, Judge Eakin this week gave the state judgment against his property in the sum of $807.60, costs of the suit and carrying it to the Supreme Court. As there is a mortgage against the property, aside from the claim of Attorney Jeffrey, it is probable that only a small part of the judgment will be paid.

R. B. Reeves writes the Argus: "I notice the news statement in the Argus of last week, that of the 2,000 registered, 2,000 are republicans. It is peculiar how the county at large differs from this precinct. I have registered 84 voters, taken as they came, and of that number there were 25 democrats and 27 republicans."

E. H. Shepard, editor of Better Fruit, of Hood River, and who is also an apple grower, has written N. H. Alexander that he will be in attendance, and will give us all that he can in the way of publicity. He will also take up the matter of an apple organization for the county.

Rev. C. E. Cline, who has been in the pulpit at Portland for some years, and who formerly had the Hillsboro charge, is attending conference this week. Rev. Cline is one of the really able members of the Oregon conference, and as a pulpiteer has few equals in the Northwest.

THIEF SELLS TEAM

The thief who sold the Hagye team at Sherwood sold it the next morning to Sullivan, an East Portland liverman. The day he stole the outfit he telephoned Sullivan, asking him if he would buy a team and rig if the price were right. Sullivan replied in the affirmative, and the thief then telephoned Hagye to send a team to the depot to meet him. He left and the next morning sold the rig to Sullivan for $125. The team was later hired to a cattle buyer and he lost his way and ran across a rural mail carrier, near Sherwood, who told Hagye of the team being in the section. From there the cattle buyer went to Beaverton, but was allowed to go on into town. Hancock visited all the liveries in Portland and found the entire outfit at the Sullivan barn—and Sullivan is out his $125. The sheriff thinks the same chap stole the single rig from Purdin & Heim—and there is yet no trace of the stolen animal, nor of the thief, who is thought to have extensively operated in this section.
